Rev. J. C. Reed vacated St. Paul's rectory last Friday and moved into the house belonging to M. Howell, formerly occupied by D. H. Glass. The family of I. Dawson, the rector of St. Paul's parish lately from Baker City took possession of the rectory Saturday morning.

The Oregon State Poultry association will hold a meeting in the parlor of the St. Charles hotel, Portland on Saturday Nov. 24th. Parties desirous of becoming members will please take notice.

The Chautauqua Musicals.

A very pleasant social event of the week was the Chautauqua musicale given by the McLaughlin circle in honor of the Nautilus and Sunset circles of this city at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams on Monday evening.

PROGRAM.

"Zampa" Overture Mrs. E. E. Williams and Miss F. Morey Banjo Duet. "Darkies Patrol" Miss Mary Charman, J. Lewthwaite. Vocal solo. "Call Her Back" Miss Neita Barlow.

"Salvia" Miss Myrtle Stevens Quartette, "When My Ship Comes Over the Sea"—Mrs. A. S. Dresser, Miss Barlow, Messrs. A. S. Dresser and E. E. Williams.

"Tyroline Idyll" Violin and Piano Dr. Shubert and Mrs. E. E. Williams. Tenor Solo—Mr. Chas. A. Ralph, of Portland.

String Quartette. "Dude's March." Vera Caufield, Pauline Campbell, Clare Campbell, Harley Stevens.

Vocal Solo. Selected Miss Agnes Watt of Portland.

Piano Solo. Miss Spangler Instrumental Duet — "Midsummer Night's Dream" Mendelssohn Dr. Emil Shubert and Mrs. Williams.

Instrumental Solo—Violin Obligato—Dr. Shubert, Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Vocal Solo—Violin Obligato, Dr. Shubert Mrs. E. E. Charman.

Had time permitted every number would have been repeated, so well was the elaborate program carried to completion. Special thanks are due to Miss Watt, Mr. Ralph and Dr. Shubert for making special effort to come and assist in this entertainment. Nor had we any reason to blush for home talent. The vocal solos by Miss Barlow and Mrs. Charman, and the quartet by Mr. and Mrs. Dresser, Miss Barlow and E. E. Williams reached the high-water mark of vocal music in this city. The audience was also agreeably surprised by the evidences of progress in string music by our young people. Miss Charman and John Lewthwaite are becoming experts on the banjo. The string quartet by Pauline and Clare Campbell, Vera Caufield and Harley Stevens was worthy of a conservatory. The brilliant playing of Miss Stevens, the artistic touch of Miss Spangler, the perfect time and harmony of Mrs. Williams and Miss Morey, were appreciated by all. Especially did Mrs. Williams show her skill in her accompaniments with Dr. Shubert in his truly artistic playing.

That the chautauqua is a social power in this city was evidenced by the fact that over eight chautauquans and candidates for chautauquans were gathered in the spacious parlors. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served by the McLaughlin circle, and after an hour of sociability the company disbanded, well pleased with this new feature of chautauqua study. One said, "It was better than a party," an evidence that the new spirit of making recreation a means of culture rather than of killing time has taken possession of our growing city.

The next musicale will be held at the residence of Mrs. E. E. Charman in place of the regular meeting, during the holidays.

Prof. W. F. Werschkul, Portland's popular vocalist, has been engaged to conduct the singing class which is being organized by some of the musical young people of this city, and which promises to be a great success. Prof. Werschkul is a thorough musician whose compositions rank among the best works of the land, and whose ability as an instructor is unsurpassed. The young people are to be congratulated on securing his services as his influence cannot help but elevate the musical standard of any community.

A very pleasant party took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bradley last Friday evening the occasion being in honor of the 13th birthday of their daughter Nettie. The evening was spent in games, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Nettie Bradley, Pearl Wood, Nellie Wood, Bersa Reddick, Iris Reddick, Kitle Gault, Carl Nehren, Clara Nehren, Wilda Harris, Mertie Wineset, Ida Kelly.

Married, at the residence of Mrs. Dora Hamilton, on Fourth and Washington streets, Saturday, Nov. 17, Miss Isa Padgett and Clark P. Scoggins, both of this city. Judge T. W. Fouts tied the knot in his usual pleasant manner in the presence of a few friends. Mr. Scoggins is an employe in the paper mills, and the couple have a host of friends who wish them a long and happy life.

Prof. Werschkul's vocal class will meet in the First Presbyterian church on each Thursday evening commencing Nov. 22. Tuition fee $1.50 per term. This is an excellent opportunity for all who desire to become proficient in sight-reading and chorus singing. Persons wishing private lessons in voice culture can arrange for them by applying at the church on class evening.

Miss Rena Peterson and Gilbert Hauglum, of Canby, were married last Monday afternoon by Judge Hayes. The couple left on the evening train for their future home at Canby.

The Free Reading Room.

One of the institutions of Oregon City that is acquiring a permanency and which is becoming the nucleus for the building up of a library in our city, is the Oregon City Free Reading Room. Started in a small way two years ago by some of the public spirited citizens of Oregon City, who saw the need of a place where strangers, idle men and boys could pass their time pleasantly and profitably away from the vices of the street, has lived and been self sustaining even during these hard times. In addition to the regular contributions the reading room has received several substantial donations during the year in books, magazines, furniture and fuel which were greatly appreciated. The rooms are now fairly well furnished and present an attractive appearance. The attendance has been much larger during the past year than was anticipated and shows how well the institution is appreciated by the public. Much of the credit for the success of the reading room is due to Rev. Wall, the librarian, who has been untiring in his efforts to carry out the work of the association. Thursday of next week will close the fiscal year for the association, when officers will be elected, reports made and other important business transacted. It is expected that all interested in the work of the association will be present.

R. H. Taber, one of the successful farmers of Mt. Pleasant, donated to the agricultural editor of this family journal four potatoes that are prize winners. The shortest one measured nine and the longest one eleven inches in length and were of unusual size and symmetrical in shape. They were of the Beauty of Hebron variety. These potatoes grew on very high land and is butted proof that the hill land of Clackamas county cannot be excelled in growing potatoes or any other crop.

Home-made bread is recognized as the very best at all times and the customers of J. Egle the Shively building baker assert that they can not tell the difference between his bread and that made at home unless it be that his is just a little the better. But don't tell your wife that.
