A Lantern, An Owl and a Burned Barn—A New Doctor—Literary Society Discusses Live Questions.

MOLALLA, Dec. 3.—Thanksgiving: thankful that we are still alive and that our most excellent weather continues. The day set apart having past, again we are thankful for what has gone by, wishing we were more hopeful for the future.

Rev. Gray preached at the school house last Sunday at 11 o'clock and Rev. Gardner entertained the audience in the evening.

Malcolm McDonald, our blacksmith, will move to Newberg about the first of the new year where he expects to live in the future. Our old burg's loss will be Newberg's gain, yet we hate to lose "Mack."

Dr. W. C. Belt, of Astoria, has located here, he comes with good recommendations. The new drug store will be his office.

N. P. Kayler is now back to town but not yet on his feet, although getting along fully as well as could be expected.

Last Saturday morning at 6 o'clock H. S. Ramsby's barn and contents burned, and it was only by great effort and a favorable atmosphere that the other buildings were saved. An insurance of $600 was carried. Mr. Ramsby set his lantern in the wagon seat, as usual, while he fed; an owl was in the barn which flew about, striking various objects and finally came in contact with the lantern, upsetting it, the oil lighting and licking upwards, catching the over-hanging straws of a 16-ton hay mow. Before one could think twice the barn was enveloped in flames. In trying to whip out the fire with a sack Seaver got his hand and beard burned. It was with much difficulty that the horses were saved.

Molalla Lodge No. 40, A. O. U. W., had initiation and election at their last meeting. The names for the several offices will appear later.

Prof. Eugene Ogle has treated himself to a splendid piano, which means further advancement in the science of music.

Molalla Literary society is discussing many of the leading topics of the day, such as the "government ownership of the railroads."

Sunday morning last "Uncle Jake," Molalla's "Clark Braden," got into a "come and go as you please" discussion with a Rev. Doctor of Divinity, in which the former claims to have delivered over to the latter more gospel than the D. D. ever heard before.

SANDY SAYINGS.

No Thanksgiving—Nothing to be Thankful For—A Wedding—Enjoyable Entertainment.

SANDY, Dec. 1.—Thanksgiving day passed unobserved here. Sandy people seemed to think there was nothing to be thankful for.

The High Forest Debating and Literary Society is growing in attendance and interest at every meeting. Saturday, December 1, was the most enjoyable affair in the history of the society.

People for miles around were present, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Andrews of Cottrell postoffice, B. Myers of Eagle Creek, T. and J. Epperson of Sandy Ridge and Steve Wable of Pleasant Home, besides many others. The question for debate was: Resolved, That art is more pleasing to the eye than nature. The affirmative was led by Lewis Huglin and the negative by A. Rich. After a lively discussion the question was decided in favor of art.

At the conclusion of the debate the literary exercises began. An excellent program, consisting of recitations and songs was rendered in a highly interesting manner which was greatly appreciated by the audience.

The following officers were then elected: President, Edw. F. Burns; Vice President, Lewis Rich; Secretary, Miss Mollie Dunn; Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, Lewis Huglin; Marshal, Robert Jonsrud.

A pleasant wedding occurred the past week. The happy couple were Miss Rena Pederson and Gilbert Huglin. County Judge Hayes tied the knot. We all wish them a successful and long happy married life.

Considerable interest seems to be manifest in the sale of B. Gerder's estate which is located in our village. A large number went down to Oregon City from here. Each party wants to buy it, but the sale was postponed till December 17. It is said several gentlemen from Portland are anxious to buy the land and lay it out in lots. We hope this will be the case as it would be a boon to our town.

Casper Arduser has sold his stage outfit to the mail carrier. Casper will probably go to Portland for the future.

P. Sautenbine is busy making cider. He runs his cider mill with an engine and is making cider in large quantities.

J. and C. Timmerman are down with the mumps but are slowly improving.

Carus Notes.

CARUS, Nov. 27.—Another road petition is being circulated by Uncle Jake Spangler, relating to the Molalla road. We understand the county commissioners objected to the petition presented on the ground of a slight omission. It is the manifest design of the people to have this road located, and the present petition, it is thought, will leave no loop-hole for escape.

Eph. Jones has erected a neat cabin on his ranch, dimensions 12x16. He has fitted it up with bed, bedding, furniture, etc., and now little Vida Graham asks, "Where is Mrs. Eph?"

Mr. Officer has returned to the Alpipe farm and will look after the comfort of Dr. Casto this winter. The doctor has rented his land on shares to Bud Smith. The Casto family are in Portland.

Walter Emmett has so far recovered from his severe illness as to be around the farm.

CALLA.

Borings Breezes.

BORING, Dec. 3.—We are having some cold weather at present, but most of the farmers have got all of their fall plowing done now.

The roads are getting pretty bad. There has been some more culverts put in Borings which makes it some better. We had ought to have better roads now for we have got good old democratic times. Since the election in the East you can scarcely find a democrat or populist anywhere and when you do find one he looks pretty sick.

Edward Boring, son of J. H. Boring, has come home from work up at Molalla. He was working for his brother-in-law, A. K. Mulligan. We are glad to see his smiling face.

The wedding bells have quit ringing now after the marriage of Mr. Preston and Mrs. Harrison and also Mr. A. Faubion and Miss M. Van Fleet.

The last chance saw mill has moved over to Troutdale.

Mr. Burninger, who is clearing for M. Vetsch, has about finished clearing his ten acre tract.

J. A. Sutton is fixing up his house. Look out young ladies he will want a helpmate before long.

Orville Boring, who is attending school at Portland University, came home and spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boring. He reports school getting along nicely.

John Hilroy is fixing up his house. He things he will take "leathers" before long. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wood were the guests of W. H. Boring last week.

Smith Hinton, of Portland, was in this vicinity the past week visiting friends and relatives.

W. H. Boring has rented T. O. Sorindson's farm for the next year. Ask 'em.

FROG POND NEWS.

A Grand Wedding—A Popular Couple—Our Correspondent Overcome.

FROG POND, Nov. 28.—Undoubtedly the most notable wedding that it has been the good fortune of the residents of this peaceful and quiet little hamlet to witness took place at the residence of the bride's parents last Thursday when Miss Ella H. Turner, the acknowledged belle of the neighborhood, and Mr. John Seedling, a well-to-do and handsome young Canadian, joined hands and with the assistance of Nelson McConnell, J. P., were launched on the blissful sea of matrimonial content. Never before did the bride look so pretty as she did on that eventful day. Her dress, the color of which was old rose, trimmed with silk and braid, was faultless to a point; she also wore a bridal veil, which gave her the appearance of a queen of women. The groom, too, was at his best, dressed in a suit of conventional black, and the peaceful and satisfied expression which his features contained evoked the envy of even our correspondent who, by the way, falls far short of having any matrimonial inclinations whatever.

Miss Susie Turner, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid and Mike Gross, with his pleasant ways, becoming features and winning smiles, did the honors of best man. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Turner, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Kruse, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Seely, of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eligen, Mrs. Sharp, Mrs. Lettie Toome, Misses Maletta, Kate and Malenda Sharp, Rosa Wagner, Susie Turner, Ella and Lena Eligen, Messrs. John, Albert, Herbert, Charles and Smith Turner, F. M. Kruse, Walter and O. P. Sharp, Mike Gross, Arthur Turner, Henry Eligen and John Tyler. The presents to the young couple were generally speaking both numerous and costly, the most noteworthy of which were from T. L. Turner and wife a bedroom set, Hon. John Kruse and wife a rocking chair and cushion, Miss Rosa Wagner an elegant nickel, latest improved, hand lamp, J. A. Turner and wife a silverware set, Fred Eligen and wife a silver bowl, E. H. Seely and wife a cake stand, F. M. Kruse a lemonade set, Lena Eligen chair tidy, Ella Eligen flower vase, Susie Turner set of cups and saucers, Meier & Frank a bedspread. In the evening the young couple gave a dance to which everybody were invited, and they did justice to the occasion by "tripping the light fantastic toe" till daylight next morning. That happiness and prosperity may attend the young couple is the earnest wish of A. Frog.

Eagle Creek News.

EAGLE CREEK, Nov. 27.—The school exhibition held at Wilber's hall Saturday night was a grand success. The program was short, but very interesting and instructive. With the exercises our worthy school teacher closed her three month's term. Miss Dauvers leaves here with the good wishes of all.

Bert Stafford made a flying trip to Lents Sunday. There is some great attraction at that place for Bert.

Ernest Dodson, of Park Place, is visiting friends and relatives at Mr. Wilber's. Miss L. Whorton is the guest of Mrs. E. N. Foster. Miss Whorton is an applicant for the school here.

A petition is being circulated asking for the straightening of the road near Mrs. Glover's, which is greatly needed by the community.

The dance held at the hall on Thanksgiving was the grandest and best attended of any had for some time.

Bert Stafford has hired out as coachman for Dr. C. B. Smith.

Services were held at Central Point M. E. church yesterday by the regular circuit minister.

David Penman, sr., has some fence in the county road that ought to be removed as it is a very bad place to get over in the winter time.

The people in Leland school district are going to have a Christmas tree and an entertainment on Christmas eve.

Sam Cox was taking in the neighborhood Tuesday, looking after his threshing blis.

Mr. Editor, could you kindly state in the columns of your paper how many coling mints there are in the United States and where they are located. [Answer: Three—Philadelphia, New Orleans and San Francisco.]

CANBY NEWS.

City Officers Elected—Street Lights Good but More Needed—Road Work Needed.

CANBY, Dec. 5.—The annual city election was held last Monday. The following candidates were elected: W. A. Avery, collector for one year; George Knight, treasurer for one year; H. A. Lee, L. A. Cloninger, J. J. Schmitt, A. W. Riggs, councilmen for two years.

The I. O. O. T. gave an entertainment and basket social Tuesday evening in Knight's hall. The hall was well filled and everybody was well pleased. The receipts of the evening were $17.95.

Mr. Trullinger has started a new blacksmith shop in the building formerly occupied by J. Zeek.

The revival meetings in both the M. E. and the Christian churches are still in progress.

Mrs. James Evans is quite sick at her home in Canby.

A. Rosenkrans, from Michigan, is visiting his brother, F. A. Rosenkrans. He says when he left Michigan a week or ten days since there was snow on the ground and the weather was very cold. Here he finds such mild and pleasant weather that he seems to be well pleased with Oregon.

Two young men arrived from the East last week on a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bissell.

Mrs. Tenant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt, arrived here from Michigan last week.

The street lamps put up lately are a good thing, but we think they are not enough. The lights are too far apart. There should be at least five or six more.

The roads are getting to be in a very bad condition. Those that were worked and thrown up are, if possible, in a worse condition than those that were not worked. There is no use in talking, we will have no good roads until they have gravel put on them. We hope next year many of our roads will be graveled.

LOGAN LOCALS.

Thanksgiving Pleasantly Celebrated—A Lively Debating Society—Other Notes.

LOGAN, Dec. 3.—Thanksgiving day found most of our people in a frame of mind. Even those who complain of the mud are thankful that it is no deeper. There was some visiting and neighborly eating of Thanksgiving dinner. The great attraction was the masquerade at Lin's mill. We went by couples, families and crowds. The hall was gay with sailors, Indians, negroes, clowns, flower girls and many men and maidens whose merriment was not hidden by their masks. The dance lasted from 7 P. M. to 7 A. M.

A few Loganites went to the dance at Springfield where the crowd was small, but the enjoyment great.

The debating society held one of its most interesting meetings Saturday night. O. D. Robins was elected president, Fred Gerber vice president, M. L. Hampton secretary and Minnie Shumway treasurer. Resolutions were passed changing the meeting from once a week to once in two weeks.

The subject for December 15th is "Resolved that Columbus deserves more credit for discovering America than Washington does for defending it." The question last night was debated from the teacher's standpoint and was decided in favor of the negative. The Logan Leader was very ably edited by Miron Babler.

Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Richey are again able to attend to their wonted duties.

Lewis Hampton has gone to attend school at Willsburg. He intends to fit himself for teaching.

The students at the Logan night school are earnest and deserve success in their pursuit of knowledge.

Work has commenced on the new bridge near Frank Fisk's. Ed. Hilton is superintending it.

Emanuel Garber, who has been in the neighborhood for several weeks, left for his home near Golden City, Missouri, yesterday morning. If we are not mistaken it was not the mild climate and the Evergreen blackberries alone that caused Mr. Garber to prolong his stay amongst us. However, we wish him a pleasant homeward journey, and hope that when he concludes to cease roving he may not settle in the drouth stricken Middle West.

Peter Jullom, G. Fordel, et al., came up from Portland last week and went to work cleaning up their slashing opposite the saw-mill.

Commissioner Jaggar was up today inspecting the bridge near Marion Samson's.
