

OREGON CITY OFFICERS
Mayor, Recorder, Chief of Police, Assessor, Treasurer, City Engineer, City Attorney, Street Commissioner, Supt. of Water Works, City Engineer, Councilmen.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Jas. Graham, of Carus, was in Oregon City Tuesday.
Assessor John Bradley made a flying trip to Salem Monday.
J. Beale, of Colfax, is in this city visiting Mrs. R. D. Wilson.

Thos. Gault, engineer in Broughton's saw mill, left Friday for a two weeks trip to his ranch near Albany.
Mrs. Gault having already preceded him and will return home with him.
He took up with him twenty fine swarms of bees to add to the diversified industries carried on his farm.

Abstracters Work.
Owing to the many donation land claims in Clackamas county with their too often times carelessly made surveys and indefinite descriptions, it is no small undertaking to make an abstract of title to a piece of land.

Marvelous Results.
From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderson, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitancy in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife."

Solid Silver for Christmas.

Mrs. J. A. Chase, accompanied by her daughter, left Wednesday for California, where she will remain during the winter for the benefit of her daughter's health.
Mrs. W. L. Williams, whose husband is employed in the Racket store, left last week, accompanied by her child, for a visit of a couple of weeks with relatives at Powell's Valley.
Mr. and Mrs. John Green and child formerly of this city, but now residing at Pleasant Home, Linn county, are in this city visiting relatives and expect to remain until Christmas.

Dr. and Mrs. Norris had a narrow escape from a severe accident Wednesday evening caused by the runaway of their horse and buggy. The horse took fright at the headlight of an approaching street car and suddenly shying threw the doctor and his wife on the brick pavement near the new Barclay block. Dr. Norris escaped unhurt but Mrs. Norris was badly shaken up. The horse was caught near Albright's meat market to where it had run without injuring the buggy.

Prof. W. H. Powell, who has had charge of the Eastham school in this city for the past year, has been offered and has accepted the principalship of the Clinton Kelly school in Portland. His resignation which takes effect this week has been handed in to the school board of this city. Prof. Powell is one of the highest young educators in the state and is fully qualified for the position he has accepted. As to who will succeed Prof. Powell to the principalship of the Eastham school has not as yet been decided by the school board.

Keep your feet dry—buy shoes at McKittrick's.
Some of the prominent Congregationalists of this city went to Portland Monday to attend the celebration of Forefathers day. The Congregational club and the New England club jointly gave a banquet, after which C. O. Brown, of San Francisco, and Gen. O. O. Howard delivered addresses. Among those present from this city were Dr. J. W. Cowan and wife, C. H. Dye and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Andrews, Mrs. Leonard Charman and sister, Miss Bennett, W. A. White, Deacon J. H. Andrews, Dr. L. M. Andrews, Mrs. Forest Andrews and Herbert Bestow.

Molalla now boasts of a drug store, as will be seen by an advertisement in another column, and is a much needed thing for that part of the county. F. C. Perry, of that place, having put in a complete stock, proposes to supply the wants of his customers at prices to meet competition. The prescription department will be in charge of Dr. C. W. Belt, who is an experienced pharmacist. Mr. Perry will also carry a stock of paints, glass and such notions and toilet articles as the trade will demand.

R. Staub has rented the corner room in the Commercial bank block and is having it fitted up preparatory to removing the Star Grocery into it. Mr. Staub proposes to be one of the leaders in the grocery line in Oregon City and will have a store that will be a credit to the city. He is no novice in the business, having had long experience in the East and in Portland and knows how to buy that he may sell to the advantage of himself and patrons.

W. T. Shurtliff, late of McMinnville, late of Portland, late of Vancouver and late of Oregon City, has left, leaving numerous bills unpaid. He is supposed to have gone to Portland to try for pastures new. He attempted to do a real estate business while here, but a lack of confidence seemed to possess his would be patrons to the serious detriment of his business.

The singing school lately organized in this city and which meets each Thursday evening in the Presbyterian church is a success in every way. The school now numbers nearly fifty members. Prof. Werschke, the teacher, is one of the best instructors in the state and the young people of this class are making marked improvement in the art of singing.
Col. Chas. F. Bebee, accompanied by a part of his staff, will be in Oregon City on Thursday evening, December 27, for the purpose of inspecting Co. F. The boys have been giving close attention to their drills of late and hope to meet the expectations of Col. Bebee in their evolutions.

J. Konkle has purchased a piece of land on the Tompkins tract on the west side of the Willamette and is having a large butchering establishment put up on it. He will hereafter supply his meat market in this city with meat of his own selection so that he can always guarantee a first class healthy article.
