

THEY ARE DEAD.

There was a man who never told a lie— But he's dead— Never said it was wet when the weather was dry— Never said he'd caught fish when he hadn't caught one— Never scolded his wife, and never got mad— And wouldn't believe that the world was so bad— Never scolded his wife, and never got mad— And wouldn't believe that the world was so bad— A respecter of men, a defender of women, Who believed the divine, and in that which was human. Meek as Moses—he never was understood, And the poor man, tired of being too good. And he's dead. There was a woman who never had gossiped a bit— She's dead, too— Who hated all scandal, nor listened to it. She believed in mankind, took care of her cat, Always turned a deaf ear to this story or that. Never scolded her husband—she never had one. No slurred was she, but rose with the sun. Never whispered in meeting, didn't care for a bonnet. Or all of the feathers that one could put on its Never sat with the choir nor sang the wrong note. Expressed no desire to lecture or vote. For the poor soul was deaf as a post—also dumb. You might have called forever, and she wouldn't have come. And she's dead. —Jeanette la Flamboy in Outlook.

THE OLD GENERAL'S SCHEME.

Effective as an Indian exterminator, but too merciless to try.

"A good many years ago the Comanche Indians used to harry and annoy the people of Texas by predatory incursions, pretty much, I fancy, as the Scottish highlanders did their brethren who dwelt in less mountainous regions," said Colonel Alf Mason of the Lone Star State. "The Comanches, too, had exactly the same purpose in view that animated the adherents of Rob Roy—the lifting of cattle—and it would be hard to say which made the greatest success of the business, the sturdy freebooters of Scotia or the copper hued denizens of the American plains. The Texans of course resented to the utmost this conduct of the redskins, and many a brave paid the death penalty for trying to get away with horses or cows that did not belong to him.

"Many a poor settler, too, in trying to save his little homestead, fell a victim to the barbarous foe. Some unusually cruel raids, in which a number of white women and little children were butchered, about the year 1859, in Williamson county, not far from the state capital, caused the resentment of the people to rise to a boiling pitch, and vengeance was sworn against the whole tribe of marauding red demons. The affair was so ruthless in its atrocity that it came very near being the cause of a wholesale slaughter of the Indians, which could have scarcely been justified.

"The proposition came from one of the noted frontiersmen and Indian fighters of that day, who has long since crossed over the river, General Henderson. The old man advanced it coolly and could with difficulty be persuaded to abandon it. It was to invite, under the guise of pretended friendship and reconciliation, all the Comanches that could be assembled in a great scope of surrounding country to a big barbecue, where there was to be eating and drinking galore and a general smoking of the pipe of peace. It was to be a grand feast, especially in the roast beef part of the menu, said beef to be artistically dressed with poison enough to kill every son of a gun of an Indian that partook of it. Well, they wouldn't let the old general carry out his scheme, and he got very hot over it and to the day of his death cursed the sentimental fools that interfered with his plans for reducing the Comanche census."—Washington Post.

Coal Tar in Masonry.

The announcement is made in The National Builder that what was at first considered a doubtful experiment—viz, the use of coal tar as a means of rendering masonry impervious to water, especially in positions exposed to direct contact with the latter—has proved a practically valuable resort. Used as a coating for masonry built up of very porous stone, tar renders it quite impervious, even at a depth of some 50 feet of water, and, according to the experience of those who have had much to do with it, the article should be utilized in all public buildings, particularly those designed for the preservation of works of art, the dissolving action of water, even upon mortar of superior quality, being well known; also the unfavorable effect of the exudation of water charged with lime salts from the mortar. Two methods of using the tar are named—viz, in a boiling state in one or several layers, this being suitable for surfaces exposed to the air, or it may be made to flame up before using, this being appropriate to surfaces which have to be covered up.

Kept the Crown.

Orleans House, Twickenham, where Louis Philippe lived when duke of Orleans, is in the property market. In later days, staying as an exiled king at the Star and Garter, Richmond, he walked one day to Twickenham for the purpose, as he said, of seeing some of the old tradesmen who had served him when he resided there. The first person to recognize him was an old man, who doffed his hat and hoped his royal highness was well. The recognition, however, was not mutual. "Perhaps," said the old man, "your royal highness will remember me when I tell you that I kept the Crown"—an allusion close to the entrance of Orleans House. "Do you?" said Louis Philippe. "Let me congratulate you. You are able to do what I am not."—London News.

Some one is said to have invented a substance that can be seen through more clearly than glass. We don't know what it can be unless it is a man's excuse to his wife for not returning home before 2 a. m.

New York Tribune, 1895

FOREMOST OF THE AMERICAN WEEKLIES.

Circulation 168,000 Copies a Week.

First to rally from the overwhelming defeat of 1892, The New York Tribune patiently labored for two years to awaken the sleeping judgment of the nation. Possessing an enormous circulation, equipped with a staff of competent and honest students of public questions and itself having no object to serve except the welfare of the masses upon the farms and in the shops, scorning lies and sensational appeals, and satisfied merely to place the truth before its readers, The Tribune has sent half a million earnest and reflecting people, weekly, a budget of honest facts, sensible arguments and friendly suggestions, which have at last borne fruit in the elections of 1894. The work of the people is, however, only half done. It is necessary in 1896 to place in the chair which Grover Cleveland has not adorned, a constructive statesman of Republican faith. To this the Tribune now addresses itself, and invites the support of every American citizen who desires a return of the "good old times"

Roswell G. Horr, ex-Congressman from Michigan, but now of New York City will continue to discuss Tariff, Currency, Coinage and Labor questions in The Tribune. By all odds the most witty, earnest and well-informed speaker upon the stump, he is every year sent by the Tribune to aid the local campaigns in every part of the country. He keeps in constant touch with the people, knows their wants and addresses himself in The Tribune directly to the thoughts which are in their minds, and make himself understood. He will gladly answer questions, asked in good faith, by readers.

All the regular features of the Tribune will be continued. For Western readers, a special array of Western news is supplied. For Eastern readers an Eastern edition is printed.

It is the intention to make the paper especially helpful to farmers and mechanics. Each class has its separate department in The Tribune; and the new invention of mechanics, who lack the means to exploit the product of their brains, are advertised free of charge in the hope of adding them to find a purchaser or a partner.

The market reports of The Tribune, long acknowledged to be the best in the country, will maintain their old standard; and usual variety of foreign news letters, essays upon home topics book reviews, articles on chess and checkers, and miscellany will be presented every week. The editorial pages of the paper sum up the most important news of the day, with comments.

The Tribune also prints for the ladies, the very latest fashions from Paris and London, and there is a department of "Answers to Questions," conducted by a capable writer, in which all the questions of the people on miscellaneous topics are carefully answered.

The Semi-Weekly Tribune is an incomparable paper for residents who live beyond the range of The Daily Tribune, but find it necessary to keep in touch with the best thoughts and higher interests of the world at large.

A few premiums are offered to readers and club agents.

Any friend of The Tribune is cordially invited to send for sample copies and terms, and make up a club of subscribers. We would be especially pleased to see a large circle of readers in every workshop.

The Weekly, $1; The Semi-Weekly, $2; The Daily Tribune, $10 a year, The Tribune Almanac for 1895, ready in January, 25 cents a copy.

Sheriff's Notice of Sale on Execution.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah. M. C. Graham, plaintiff, vs. J. W. Graham, defendant. State of Oregon, County of Clackamas, ss.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah, bearing date the 6th day of October, 1894, in a suit wherein M. C. Graham was plaintiff, and J. W. Graham was defendant, that out of the real estate hereinafter described, to realize a sum sufficient to satisfy the demands of said decree, to wit: $100 together with interest on the same since said decree was entered, and also the costs of and attending this sale.

Now, therefore, in obedience to such decree, I did, on the 26th day of November, 1894, July levy upon and will, on Saturday, the 17th day of December, 1894, at the hour of 1 o'clock P. M. of said day, at the front door of the court house in said county, offer for sale at public auction, and sell to the highest and best bidder, for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest the said defendant, on the 17th day of July, 1894, had in and to the following described real property, to wit:

Being a part of Donation Land Claim No. 90, in Township 3 South of Range 1 West of Willamette Meridian, and more particularly described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the southwest corner of said claim No. 90, thence north 15 degrees 45 minutes to the northwest corner of section 15, thence east 18 degrees 30 minutes to the northeast corner of section 15, thence south 18 degrees 30 minutes to
