FRIDAY, JANUARY 4, 1895.

JUVENILE DEBATE.—The Philanthropic society met in its room at the Congregational church on last Friday evening. The question debated upon was, "Resolved that Foreign Immigration Should be Prohibited." The judges chosen were Phillips Tatro, Wm. Stover and Ernest Jones. The question was hotly discussed by Jacob Mader, Howard Brownell, Jacob Tompkins, Amos Gard, Chester Roake and Charles Murphy on the affirmative and by Fred Meindel, D. D. Tompkins, Edgar Meresse and Willie Logan on the negative. The question was decided in favor of the negative. The question chosen for the next meeting on this Friday night is "Resolved that Lynching is Sometimes Justifiable." Amos Gard was appointed leader on the affirmative and D. D. Tompkins on the negative. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings. It has been decided to admit the girls to membership in the club and the boys on each to bring their sisters, if not having one are then to bring some other fellow's sister. It is proposed to change the name of the society to the Franklin Debating Society in honor of that poor American boy whom all Americans admire and remember for his early struggles and final triumphs.

HELLO CENTRAL.—Oregon City is soon to enjoy that modern necessity, a telephone system. The Oregon Telephone & Telegraph Co. have a force of men under the direction of their head linesman, Mr. Stewart Creighton, at work putting up the lines and installing the telephones and had the storm not interfered, the system would have been in running order by the last of this week. A fully equipped central station is being fitted up in the rear of Huntley's drug store, where connections will be made with the company's long distance lines. A sound-proof cage for the public 'phone at the central station is to be put in so that perfect privacy may be had by those using this instrument either on the long distance or city. The company now have twenty-five subscribers, but it is expected that the number of instruments will be more than doubled by the end of the first month, when the business men and public realize the great advantage the telephones are to them. Each subscriber will aid in securing additional patrons, for the more telephones in the system the greater the benefit to be derived. The price per month is so low for the telephones that they are within the reach of all and will save both time and money in messenger service and inconvenience that is experienced each day by the business man as well as the family.

DR. COWAN ON THE SALVATION ARMY.—In company with many others on Thursday evening last Dr. Cowan and wife went to Portland to hear the great apostle of the unfortunate, General Booth. In a splendid discourse Sunday morning Dr. Cowan set forth the life and work of General Booth whom he designates as "one of the really great men of our times." He closed with a reference to a class of unfortunate that ought to be reached right here in Oregon City, the tramps. He made the very practical suggestion that the city or the churches assist the Salvation Army in opening up a "shelter," where those men can be sent to earn food and lodging and thus cease to prey upon the public. As it is, our present system encourages pauperism.

DEATH OF AN OLD PIONEER.—Died, at his home in Beaver Creek, Dec. 26, 1894, David Wilson, aged 89 years 2 months and 21 days. David Wilson was born in Strathmole, Fifeshire, Scotland in the year 1805. He left his home when quite young and learned the blacksmith trade, and being of a roving disposition, he spent some time in Wales and from there went to England where he remained for a time then crossed the Atlantic to Canada, where he followed his trade for a while. Later he emigrated to Missouri where he married and lived till the year 1852, when with the westward tide of emigration, he crossed the plains to Oregon and settled on a donation claim six miles east of Oregon City, where he lived till his family were all grown. He then sold out and spent some time in Oregon City and later he bought a farm in Beaver Creek, where he lived until death called him away. His remains were interred in the family burying ground on his old homestead by the side of his wife, who died in 1857, and were followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends. Everyone that knew "Uncle Davey Wilson," as he was familiarly called, knew him to be generous to a fault. The latch string of the door always hung on the outside to those that were in need. He leaves four daughters to mourn his loss.

REFORM SCHOOL CANDIDATES.—Two Park Place boys are in a fair way to reach the penitentiary if a change in their habits is not made soon. Wednesday they stole a number of grain sacks out of a farmer's wagon standing in the rear of Pope's hardware store and sold them. The owner, W. C. Martin, on missing them, made inquiry at the stores, rightly guessing that they had been taken to be sold, and found that the Red Front had bought a lot of sacks of Willie Watson and Willie Lousignault, but a short time previous On Mr. Martin describing the sacks they were returned to him by Hamilton Bros. The Watson boy has been caught in petty thieving before, and is known around Clackamas and Park Place as a very tough boy, while the Lousignault boy has shown himself to be a hoodlum and now a thief. The boys should be sent to the reform school, where they could be restrained and taught a trade with the possibility of their making law-abiding men. If they are allowed to run at large it is but a question of time when they will get into serious trouble, besides they exert a demoralizing influence over the boys with whom they come in contact.

NEEDY NOTES.

Lodge Officers Elected—A Painful Accident—Local Events.

NEEDY, Dec. 31.—A happy New Year to all.

Liberty Council Jr. O. U. A. M. held its regular meeting and elected the following officers: E. Hardesty, P. C.; G. E. Oglesby, C.; Jas. Ole V. C.; N. J. Hardesty, Con.; O. N. Watkins, W.; W. H. H. Bair, A. R. S.; S. J. Kauffman, I. S.; A. Spagle, O. F. Delegates to the state convention, E. Hardesty and A. J. Sherman. The order is increasing very fast under the principals which they teach and should meet with the approbation of all true Americans. They affirm their devotion to the public school system of this country and believe in compulsory education and that all teaching in our schools should be in the English language, to the end, that all future generations may be able to take their place in the ranks of our country's workers educated in the history, the customs and manners of Americans. They also oppose the landing upon our shores of the herds of ignorant, vicious and lawless criminals of the Old World.

Herbert Johnson met with a painful accident while chopping wood by cutting his knee which has disabled him to the extent that he is unable to perform manual labor. We hope that his injuries will not prove serious. Also we hear that Mr. Johnson's oldest child is ill with the fever which is prevalent in this section. We hope that it is not scarlet fever and rather think that it is a malady which is prevalent in the neighborhood South of here which attacks the old as well as the young.

We were informed today that Mrs. Benj. Roof is confined to her bed by sickness.

Mr. Karstetter and family have moved in the unoccupied residence of Mr. Noble's.

Otis Townsend of Oregon City is spending the holidays with his sister Mrs. Ogle.

Several of our young ladies were enjoying themselves on horseback last Sunday afternoon.

SHERWOOD SHOTS.

Wedding Bells—Pleasing School Exercises—Grand Christmas Ball.

SHERWOOD, Dec. 30.—Christmas day dawned bright and clear while Oregon cannot have wild flowers and tropical fruits on Christmas, she can at least boast of having as fine a day as one can ask for.

The dance in Seney's hall on Christmas night was a grand success. A large number of dancers were present lightly tripping to the strains of merry music until the wee sma hours, after which all went to their respective homes with a lighthearted feeling in their hearts and carrying fond recollections of a happy Christmas. Among the guests noticed from a distance were Mrs. M. C. Young, of Wilsonville and Messrs. Rob and Reid Graman, of Graham's Ferry.

Misses Susie Her and Ida Ohler. Mr. H. R. Baker and Ed Constock spent Christmas night at Larson's hall near Stafford and report a good time.

Dame Rumer, in reporting weddings in this vicinity for Christmas was not badly at fault after all. At the home of the bride's parents near Hood View, Miss Alice Moore and Mr. Chas. McKinney. Rev. J. M. Baker officiating. The many friends of the happy couple unite in wishing them a blissful journey through the sea of life.

Those present at the closing exercises of the Hood View school on Saturday evening were well repaid for their trouble the room was filled to overflowing while a good program was enjoyed by all, both old and young. We felt that through the untiring efforts of Miss Brown, the teacher, the school children has acquitted themselves admirably.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Catching of Portland have been visiting friends and relatives near here.

Carus Cuttings.

CARUS, Dec. 31.—A happy New Year, Mr. Editor.

Christmas was celebrated here in the good old-fashioned way—wedding and turkey dinners.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, on Christmas, Mr. John Stidham and Miss Susie Jones, Rev. Henry Hornshuh officiating. They received quite a number of useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayward entertained Mr. and Mrs. Miles Rowen and family, of Beaver Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooper and family, of Carus.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley W. May entertained friends from Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hunter also entertained company on Christmas.

Mr. W. W. May and Mr. J. J. Guyer each had a family Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Jaggar, Miss Minnie Jaggar and Louie spent Christmas afternoon playing ball.

Mr. D. S. Moore has moved to his new home at Carus.

Saturday before Christmas Mrs. Prof. Evans was agreeably surprised by a visit from her father, Mr. Rogers, of Cincinnati, Ohio, accompanied by his son.

Prof. Evans went to Portland to attend the teachers' institute.

Mr. L. Hornshuh and his son Freddy were coming home on a load of bark the other day when the bark slid off in front throwing Mr. Hornshuh down between the horses and wagon, the wheels passing over his body, injuring him in the breast and ankle, but not seriously.

Miss Kitty Guyer has gone to East Portland to stay with Mrs. Maggie Owens Bauman, formerly of Beaver Creek.

Miss Annie E. Jones is also in East Portland for the winter.

Mr. Chas. Kahlfeisch, of Canada, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Kahlfeisch.

Grain is looking well in this vicinity. An extra acreage of winter oats has been sown. Some of the farmers are getting uneasy about the grain if this weather continues.

Directly and indirectly, by people who cannot do their own figuring, write their own letters, or keep their own books; and who do not know when business and legal papers which they must handle every day are made out correctly. All these things, and much more, we teach thoroughly.

Hundreds of our graduates are in good positions, and there will be openings for hundreds more when times improve. Now is the time to prepare for them. Besides, a business education is worth all it costs, for one's own use. Send for our catalogue, to learn what and how we teach. Mailed free to any address.
