A. W. Schwan, of Schwan & Putrow, hardware dealers, has moved his family to Willamette Falls, where he has completed one of the largest and best appointed residences in the place.
John Riecke, of the Chop House restaurant, was brought before Recorder Fouts Monday on a charge of assault against Nellie Newsome, he having slapped her in the face, and was given a fine of $10 as a reminder to hold his temper and his hand.
Sidney Smyth, Oregon City's well-known civil engineer, has been retained to do the engineering work for the new gravity water works to be put in by the town of Newberg. Mr. Smyth is an able civil engineer and the town of Newberg has made no mistake in their selection of an engineer.

J. N. Munsey, who has re-opened the cigar and confectionary store next to H. E. Cross's office, wishes to extend a hearty invitation to all the old patrons of the place, and also to all his friends and acquaintances, to continue their favors. He has a first-class stock of confectionary, cigars and tobacco, and will treat every one well who calls on him.
Lost, on the road between Clackamas Heights and Oregon City or on the streets of Oregon City, an iron snafit belonging to a road grader. On one end is a cog-wheel and on the other a hand wheel similar to a railroad brake. Party finding it will be rewarded by notifying W. S. Rider, Oregon City.

Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy, I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." 50-cent bottles for sale by G. A. Harding, Druggist.
Died, at Clackamas Heights, on Saturday, January 5, 1895, Z. Simmons, aged 82 years, 6 months and 7 days, from a paralytic stroke. The funeral took place Monday and the interment was made in the city cemetery. Mr. Simmons has lived in this city about five years and leaves several grown children and an aged wife to mourn his death.

PERSONAL NOTES.

E. S. Bramhall, a well-known man of Aims, was in this city Tuesday.
Henry Miley, postmaster at Wilsonville, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

C. S. Hamman and Justice Bullock of East Portland were in the city Thursday.
Mrs. Robert Caulfield, of this city, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. E. Hodgkin, in Salem.

Henry Phillips, of Albany, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Charles H. Caulfield, of this city.
S. H. Hardesty and daughter Edith, of Needy, were callers at the ENTERPRISE office Wednesday.

Miss Nellie Lambert, of Portland, was in this city Wednesday, the guest of Miss Mary Charman.
Loren K. Adams, an attorney of Hillsboro, was in town Thursday on business at the court house.

Prof. J. A. Freeman left Monday for Freeport, Wash., where he will make a visit with a brother residing there.
John Dixon, formerly of Maple Lane, but who moved to California some time since, has returned fully satisfied that Oregon City is the best place.

W. W. Austin, one of the rising young teachers of Clackamas county and who now has charge of the Colton school, was in Oregon City last Saturday.
Miss Jean White, Miss Bessie McMillan and Master Wilfred White returned last Monday from Vancouver where they visited the family of E. M. Rands.

Miss Annie M. Merrill, formerly of this city, where she served as deputy postmaster for two years, is seriously ill at the Portland hospital at Sunnyside.
Mrs. H. S. Strange, who is visiting relatives in Corvallis, is expected back the first of next week. In the meantime Mr. Strange makes the best of a bachelor's life.

Nello and Merle Johnson, students at Stanford University, who spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson, in this city, returned to California Saturday.
Miss Mamie Welsh, who is making her home with M. and Mrs. W. L. Snidow while attending school in this city, returned Monday from Oswego, where she had been to spend the holidays with her parents.

Geo. C. Armstrong and daughter Miss Elizabeth, were among the callers at this office Wednesday. Mr. Armstrong is a believer in good roads and expressed his appreciation of the efforts of the ENTERPRISE in arousing a greater interest among the people of the country on this all important question.

Wm. Barlow, one of Oregon's honored pioneers, was in Oregon City Monday and renewed his annual subscription to the ENTERPRISE for the twenty-eighth time, he having been a regular patron of this paper since its founding in 1866. He was also a regular subscriber to the predecessors of the ENTERPRISE, the Argus and the Spectator, the latter being the first newspaper published in Oregon. Mr. Barlow commended the ENTERPRISE for leading in the good roads movement and hoped that the agitation would be kept up until the people of Clackamas county became a unit in their support of the county court in its work of giving good roads to the county. He is one of the neaviest taxpayers in the county, yet strongly favors a five-mill tax for this year.

Willamette Falls Camp, No. 148, Woodmen of the World, installed the following officers for the ensuing term at their meeting held Tuesday evening: Consul, Otto Olsen; advisor, I. D. Taylor; banker, Wm. Maple, clerk, E. E. Martin; escort, W. J. Kidd; managers, Jas. Gault, and A. R. Doolittle; watchman, Joseph De Lafontaine; sentry, James Brunner; physician, Dr. D. L. Paine. The ceremonies were public and were conducted by C. V. Cooper, head advisor and F. J. McHenry, organizer for the Pacific jurisdiction. The hall was well filled with members and friends of the order and the exercises were well appreciated.
Late Wednesday afternoon Coroner Holman received a telegram from Justice J. E. Jack, of Marquam, saying that J. M. Brown, of that district, had been murdered, and asking the coroner to come there immediately. The coroner, accompanied by Sheriff Maddock and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Campbell, left on the evening train for the scene of the murder Mr. Brown, was a bachelor, and resided near Molalla. He was an old soldier and recently received some back pension money for which it is supposed he was murdered. He was a delegate to the republican county convention two years ago. No further particulars have been obtained at this writing.

Probate Matters.

In probate matters Judge Hayes considered about the usual number of cases this week;
In the estate of Frederick Deem, deceased, the administrator, David Zimmerman, made his final report, and all matters pertaining to the property being settled, an order was made for his discharge.
W. F. Kirk was appointed administrator of the estate of David Wilson, deceased, with bonds fixed at $9000. J. K. Graham, C. F. Vonderahe and W. W. May were appointed to make an appraisal of the estate.
The estate of Catherine Bagley was admitted to probate and John R. Evans appointed administrator with bonds fixed at $14,000.

Money to Loan.

$10,000 in sums from $200 to loan on inside city property. Easy terms. Apply to Arnt Ivanson, with Thomas F. Ryan.
Capt. J. W. Ganong left with his family for Portland Tuesday where he will hereafter make his home, his residence being on Fifth and Belmont streets. Capt. Ganong has for the past three years been superintendent for the Portland Flouring Mills company of their mills in this city and his removal to Portland was occasioned by being promoted by the company to a more responsible position in their Portland office. For nearly the same length of time he has been captain of Company F, and his resignation is deeply regretted by the boys, as he has proved to be a commander of more than ordinary tact and ability and has brought the company up to a proficiency equal to any in the state. Both Capt. and Mrs. Ganong have a host of friends in Oregon City, who, while regretting their removal, wish them prosperity and happiness in their new home.

Sensible Decision.

Wednesday Justice Dixon's court was occupied in hearing a case from Park Place wherein Frank Brown charged Geo. Hamilton with assault. The state was represented by special District Attorney J. U. Campbell and Mr. Hamilton by Mr. Dye. The facts as shown in the evidence were that on last Friday evening Brown, who is a well-grown boy of eighteen, entered the Park Place store of which Mr. Hamilton was a part owner, the firm at the time being engaged in taking an invoice preparatory to a sale of the property and not caring for his presence, as he was known to be light-fingered and having no time to watch him, Hamilton ordered him out of the store. Young Brown refused, when Mr. Hamilton ejected him out on the sidewalk where Brown hit him a couple of blows with his fists. In defense of himself Mr. Hamilton knocked the young man down and drove him off the premises. The case was tried without a jury and the justice after hearing a number of witnesses on each side decided that Mr. Hamilton had a right to defend his store and acquitted him. The verdict meets with the approval of the better class of people at Park Place as the hoodlum element has almost run the town for some time past.

Circuit Court.

The adjourned session of the circuit court convened Monday with T. A. McBride on the bench, with the following officers of the court present: Geo. F. Horton clerk, E. C. Maddock sheriff, W. T. Barrett district attorney, C. E. Runyan court reporter, T. W. Fouts court bailiff, and Thos. Miller jury bailiff.
The greater part of Monday was taken up in setting cases for trial and hearing motions, etc. An order of ejectment was issued in the case of Mary E. Winston vs. Mrs. L. J. Fletcher. An order of sale under attachment was made in the case of J. T. Apperson vs. Thos. M. Miller, Mary E. Barlow and Margaret S. Pillsbury.
The state vs. Powers and Garthorne was continued for the term.
An order of sale under attachment was made in the case of Cole vs. Chas. Stewart et al.

Tuesday morning the case of the State of Oregon vs. Dr. Wm. Wallens, charged with practicing dentistry without a license was called up for trial. The complaint was sworn to by Dr. Welch of Portland. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, but as yet the court has not passed sentence.
Wednesday was taken up in motions and demurrers. The preliminaries being about over with, Judge McBride will crowd the cases along with the expectation of clearing the docket this term.

Willamette Falls Camp, No. 148, Woodmen of the World, installed the following officers for the ensuing term at their meeting held Tuesday evening: Consul, Otto Olsen; advisor, I. D. Taylor; banker, Wm. Maple, clerk, E. E. Martin; escort, W. J. Kidd; managers, Jas. Gault, and A. R. Doolittle; watchman, Joseph De Lafontaine; sentry, James Brunner; physician, Dr. D. L. Paine. The ceremonies were public and were conducted by C. V. Cooper, head advisor and F. J. McHenry, organizer for the Pacific jurisdiction. The hall was well filled with members and friends of the order and the exercises were well appreciated.

Late Wednesday afternoon Coroner Holman received a telegram from Justice J. E. Jack, of Marquam, saying that J. M. Brown, of that district, had been murdered, and asking the coroner to come there immediately. The coroner, accompanied by Sheriff Maddock and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Campbell, left on the evening train for the scene of the murder Mr. Brown, was a bachelor, and resided near Molalla. He was an old soldier and recently received some back pension money for which it is supposed he was murdered. He was a delegate to the republican county convention two years ago. No further particulars have been obtained at this writing.

School commenced Monday after the holiday vacation. Prof. McAdams, the new principal of the Eastham school, assumed charge and so far has proved himself an able teacher. In the Barclay school the board for some cause decided to dispense with the services of Prof. Freeman, the vice-principal, and have secured Prof. Waddell, now of Pennsylvania, who taught in Oregon City a couple of years ago, for the position, and he is expected here in a few days. In the interim, Miss Monroe has charge of the Seventh grade.

The law card of O'Neil, Hedges & Thompson appears in this edition of the ENTERPRISE. The firm is one of the strongest in Portland and since opening an office in this city have secured a liberal patronage. The Oregon City office is in charge of Mr. J. E. Hedges, whose well-known ability, honesty and integrity is known to our people, he being a native of this city.
Persons who lead a life of exposure are subject to rheumatism, neuralgia and lumbago and will find a valuable remedy in Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment; it will banish pain and subdue inflammation. For sale by C. G. Huntley, druggist.

The installation took place on last Thursday evening of officers for Meade Post No. G. A. R., the ceremonies being conducted by Capt. J. P. Shaw. The officers are as follows: Com., J. T. Apperson, S. V. C., J. Doremus; J. V. C. C. F. Horn; Q. M. Josiah Martin; Adjt., C. A. Williams; Surg., L. M. Andrews; Chap. Wm. Russell; O. D., C. H. Dauchy; O. G., J. G. Confer; S. M., M. L. Moore; Q. M. S., J. A. Stuart; Meetings of the Post will be held hereafter on the 1st Wednesday of each month at A. O. U. W. hall.

The installation of officers of Myrtle Lodge, No. 24, D. of H., took place last Friday evening in A. O. U. W. hall. The following are the officers: Mrs. J. Pierce, chief of honor; Mrs. M. E. Barlow, lady of honor; Mrs. M. Caulfield, chief of ceremonies; Mrs. S. A. Gillett, recorder; Mrs. S. Miller, financier; Mrs. S. Goodfellow, receiver; Mrs. A. Schulpius, lady usher; Mrs. A. Sprague, inside watch; Joseph Fromong, outside watch.

Hon. Geo. J. Curran, of Currinsville, was in Oregon City Wednesday for the purpose of taking home his son Edward who has been at the Oregon City hospital for some time undergoing treatment for a hip disease. The little fellow was greatly benefited and his recovery was so far advanced that it is expected that with care and time he will be fully cured.

An insane man who gave his name as Chas. Sturgis was picked up on the streets Monday evening by Nightwatch Shaw and Tuesday morning was brought before Judge Hayes for examination. He imagined that he was a wealthy man and that parties were trying to kill him. He was adjudged insane and that evening Sheriff Maddock and Deputy Moody took him to the asylum at Salem.

The case of Thos. Smith against Willis Hutson for $21.50, balance claimed due for digging a well on Hutson's place on the West Side, in Justice Dixon's court Thursday, the verdict was for Smith but the jury only allowed him $10.75. Driggs & Griffith represented Mr. Smith and Geo. C. Brownell Mr. Hutson.

The testimony was taken last Friday before C. E. Runyan, referee, in the case of T. R. N. Sellwood against P. J. Henneman, invoking some real estate and to untangle a faulty deed. A. S. Dresser represented Mr. Sellwood, and C. M. Idleman Mr. Henneman.

Owing to an unavoidable delay in making out the grand lodge report, the installation of officers of Falls City Lodge No. 59, A. O. U. W., did not take place last Saturday, but will be held on Saturday of this week.

County court met Wednesday noon and has been engaged in routine business. The making of the road tax levy and appointment of supervisors or engineer will be attended to either Friday or Saturday.
