Legal Advertising.

Hereafter no legal advertisement will be inserted in the ENTERPRISE unless payment for the same is made at the time the affidavit of publication is rendered. This rule will be imperative and dead-beat litigants, who make it a practice of working the courts, lawyers and newspapers will have to look to some other paper to get their notices published.

SPRAY OF THE FALLS.

Wood wanted at once this office.
County court meets next Wednesday.
County and city warrants wanted by the Commercial bank.
Ladies' hair dressing at the Queen shaving parlors, opp. Charman drug store.
Freytag's appetizing pickles can be had at the Corner grocery. Best in the market.

How about lounges and couches? Before you buy in Portland just drop in and look at Bellomy & Bush's new stock.

Oysters, wholesale or retail, to families and parties. Also served in any style, fresh and palatable at the Portland restaurant.

Clearance sale at the Eastern Shoe store for the next three days to make ready for spring goods.

Mrs. Annie Read, one of the teachers in the Park Place school, was in Salem last week and was granted a state certificate by the state board of education. Mrs. Read is one of the best teachers in this county and her promotion is a merited compliment.

The family of H. H. Blankinship, who went to Colorado for their daughter's health last fall, have returned to Oregon and are stopping at Ashland. Colorado climate did not effect the desired change but Southern Oregon already has proved beneficial.

Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy. I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." 50-cent bottles for sale by G. A. Harding, Druggist.

Mort Green again broke jail last Sunday by cutting a hole through the ceiling of the jail and into the recorder's office and made his escape. There was no one in the court house at the time, Janitor Nehran and family being away visiting. Green has not yet been apprehended and will probably give Clackamas county a wide berth. He was in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury on a charge of passing confederate money and is a tough case, who should be in the penitentiary on general principles.

On Jan. 10, quite a number of the young friends of Chas. Drew met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Bellomy, in honor of the occasion of Charles' birthday. The fore part of the evening was spent in games, after which a delicious oyster supper was served by his mother, Mrs. Bellomy. Those present were Ruby Spencer, Gertie Powell, Grace Whitlock, Mabel Hanagan, May Case, Orpha and Pearl Casper, Louise Toepelman, Bertha Bather, Cassie Eaton, Daisy Lawrence, Verdi Monroe, Walter Meyer, Frank Martin, Chas. Spencer, Chas. Burns, Fred Humphrey, Frank Richard and Chas. Drew.

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Both House Duly Organized and Down to Business—Dolph for Senator.

Most of the senators and representatives arrived Saturday, and after buzzing and being buzzed until about ten o'clock this morning, they all repaired to the state house, where at 10:30 the senate went into caucus preparatory to a permanent organization. The representatives effected a temporary organization by the election of G. T. Myers chairman. A committee on credentials was appointed after which they adjourned until 2:30. After adjournment they went into caucus before permanent organization. In the meantime the senate elected Senator Steiwer, of Gilliam county, as temporary chairman and W. Sinclair of Coos temporary clerk, after which on motion the chair appointed a committee of five on credentials after which an adjournment was taken till 2 o'clock, to give the committee on credentials time to report. In the caucus Senator Brownell had the honor of placing in nomination Hon. Jos. H. Simon, of Multnomah, for president of the senate, who was, of course, elected. All the caucus nominees were elected. The democrats placed in nomination Senator S. B. Huston, of Washington for president and made no further nominations, and when voting at all for permanent officers voted for the republican nominees.

When Senator Simon was elected, Chairman Steiwer, on motion, appointed Senators Cogswell and Brownell to escort the president elect to the chair. After thanking the Senators for their courtesy, etc., he invited R. S. Bean, chief justice of the state to come forward and administer the oath of office, after which the senate proceeded to finish the permanent organization by electing the following persons to the different offices: Chief clerk, W. Sinclair, of Coos county; assistant clerk, A. W. Severance, of Tillamook county; calendar clerk, J. W. Scott, of Multnomah county; reading clerk, J. B. Huntington, of Harney county; sergeant at arms, C. B. Crosno, of Lincoln county; door keeper, J. D. Ervine, of Linn county; assistant door keeper, J. L. Swafford, of Clackamas county; mailing clerk, L. H. Arneson, of Multnomah county; Pages, T. M. Dunn of Multnomah county, M. Galloway, of Marion county. After passing a few minor resolutions the senate adjourned till Tuesday at 10 A. M.

The house was called to order at 2:30 and after the report of the committee on credentials the house proceeded to permanent organization by the election of the following persons to the different offices in the house: Speaker, C. B. Moores, of Marion county; chief clerk, Ralph Moody, of Multnomah county; assistant clerk, A. V. R. Snyder, of Polk county; reading clerk, Geo. R. Hughes, of Washington county; calendar clerk, H. T. McClelland, of Douglas county; sergeant at arms, M. L. Wilmot, of Linn county. Door keeper, assistant door keeper, mailing clerk and pages to be appointed by the speaker. After passing a number of resolutions, governing rules of order, etc., a resolution authorizing the purchase of five daily papers for each member of the house was introduced which brought out quite a discussion, which was, on motion, indefinitely postponed, our C. B. Smith seconding the motion to postpone. The house then adjourned to meet Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Our members from Clackamas county are located as follows: Hon. Geo. C. Brownell is at the right of the president, second row and first seat, and is quartered at the Willamette hotel. Hon. Alonzo Gesner, joint senator from Clackamas and Marion counties, is located farther to the right, and any one from Clackamas county wishing to consult with Senator Gesner will find him a very pleasant man to talk with. Our representatives are seated near each other in the outside row to the right of the speaker, about midway from the front and are quartered as follows: C. B. Smith, at 277 corner of Court and Front streets; F. L. Mintie, corner Trade and Church streets; G. O. Rinearson in postoffice block opposite Willamette hotel up stairs.

TUESDAY.

The senate has got nicely down to work. There were a number of resolutions passed, after which the introduction of bills was in order. Senator McGinn, of Multnomah, introduced the first bill of the session. It had reference to Multnomah county, fixing the compensation of certain of her county officers. During the day there were forty bills introduced in the senate. Senator Brownell's first bill was one having for its object the abolishment of the railroad commission. President Simon announced the standing committees this afternoon, Clackamas being well remembered, Senator Brownell being chairman of railroads, second on judiciary and is placed on federal relations and medicine, etc. The Senator already seems quite at home on the floor of the senate. The house does not start off so rapidly, having spent the entire day in introducing, discussing and passing a lot of resolutions. The trouble seems to be there are a lot of fellows in that body that enjoy hearing themselves talk, and let no opportunity slip to talk on every thing that comes up. They will learn something before the session is over.

Our boys in the house are beginning to feel at home and we will look for some good work from Clackamas county's representatives before the session is over.

WEDNESDAY.

Senate convened at 10 o'clock and after the usual routine work a number of bills were introduced, then a fitting resolution in regard to the life and death of ex-Governor S. F. Chadwick was offered and passed. At 11 o'clock the senate in a body was escorted to the house of representatives, where seats had been provided, to witness the canvassing of the vote for governor and listening to the message of the retiring governor, Pennoyer, and also that of the new governor, Lord. After being seated and the vote counted, on motion a committee of three, two representatives and a senator, was appointed by the president of the joint session, Jos. Simon, to wait on the governor-elect and inform him of his election and escort him into the hall. On motion a like committee was appointed to escort His Excellency, Governor Pennoyer to a seat on the platform, another was appointed to escort the supreme judges of the state to seats on the platform, other state officials including the ex-governor's were provided with seats on the platform. At this time the president introduced Governor Pennoyer, who in a somewhat feeling manner read his farewell message, which was largely made up of a tabulated statement in regard to the financial condition of the state as regards expenditures, etc., during his term of office, and while he made no recommendations, he gave the legislators present some excellent advice. He also enumerated twenty-five recommendations that he had made in previous messages which had not been acted on according to his suggestions. The governor-elect was asked to stand up and take the oath of office. R. S. Bean, administered the oath of office. Immediately after this Governor Lord read his message, which took fifty-five minutes. The hall was packed up stairs and down, one lady fainting, and had to be carried from the room. Governor Lord's message was spoken of as a very able state paper. Further mention will probably be made in this paper next week. Immediately after the reading of the messages, the joint session was dissolved and the senate repaired to their own hall, when an adjournment by both houses was taken till Thursday morning at 10 o'clock out of respect for the memory of the late S. F. Chadwick. The executive office was immediately thronged by the people anxious to shake hands with and offer congratulations to the new governor. Thus ended the day which places the state again entirely under control of republican state officers.

A caucus was held this evening of the republican members of the legislature to decide who should be the party nominee for United States senator in the senatorial election to be held next Tuesday. Organization was effected by the election of Senator Alley chairman, and Representative Long secretary. The roll-call showed every republican present, except Representative Cole, of Multnomah, who is slightly ill, but who voted by proxy. Considerable time was occupied by preliminary discussion, partly as to the method to be used in voting. It was finally decided to call the names and have each member as called upon drop his ballot in a box. This was done. The count showed: Dolph 49, Fulton 12, Tongue 11, Lowell 4, Lord 2, Hermann 2, Strong 1. Total 72.

Fulton and Tongue, Dolph's chief opponents, expressed themselves as determined to abide by the will of the majority, and would each heartily support Senator Dolph in his candidacy and expected their supporters to give a solid vote to him.

THURSDAY.

The senate was called to order at 10 o'clock. A number of resolutions were passed, among which was one to adjourn till Monday at 2 P. M. This was done on account of the state printer not being able to furnish any printed bills before Monday. Before adjourning, however, bills were introduced swelling the number for the week to seventy-eight. Senator Brownell introduced one today having for its object the creating of a bank inspector with salary assessable from the banks. The duty of this inspector shall be to examine banks and when found to be in a failing condition shall be closed. Adjourned till Monday at 2 P. M.

House consumed almost the entire week in resolving and the introduction of bills began at 11:30 this A. M. Hon. Geo. O. Rinearson introduced his first bill, it having for its object the calling of a constitutional convention. The house will not adjourn for this week till this P. M.

Hon. C. B. Smith ratified the nomination of Hon. J. N. Dolph by furnishing the boys from Oregon City with an oyster supper and otherwise royally entertaining them.

Hon. Geo. C. Brownell, state senator from Clackamas county, has been chosen to present to the joint session, next Tuesday, the name of Hon. J. N. Dolph for United States senator.

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN.

Mrs. F. E. Charman entertained her old schoolmates at an afternoon tea on Wednesday afternoon. Those present were the class of 1876 of the Oregon City schools. Reminiscences of their school days were the chief topic of the guests and many an incident of their girlhood days was recalled that gave added interest to the gathering. An elegant lunch was served in which the hostess was assisted by Misses Nettie Waldron and May Wishart. Some pleasing instrumental pieces of music was rendered by Mrs. Lillie Sheppard. Of Mrs. Charman's school mates there were present Mrs. Maria Caulfield, Mrs. Dona Latour-ette, Mrs. Minnie Charman, Mrs. Lillie Sheppard, Mrs. Jesse Cooke, Mrs. Orpheus Cross, of this city, and Mrs. Annie Beales, of Tacoma, and Mrs. Winnie Waite and Mrs. Clara Dillman, of Portland.

Henry Weinhard, Portland's great brewer, was in Oregon City Wednesday looking after his property interests. He will dismantle the Oregon City brewery, of which he lately became the owner, selling the machinery which will be removed to another part of the state, and in the spring he expects to erect a fine brick block on the grounds now occupied by the old buildings. As yet he has not definitely arranged the plans for the new building, but one thing sure is that it will be a credit to the city in size and appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Shumway accompanied by their daughter, Miss Susie, of Logan, were callers at the ENTERPRISE office Tuesday. They are late of California and have purchased the old Norton claim, well known to all the old settlers of this county, as one of the handsomest located places in that part of the county.
