SCHOOL CENSUS.-T. F. Ryan, clerk of the Oregon City school district, completed the enumeration of the children of school age within the city Wednesday He finds that there are 1128 children intitled to draw school money in Oregon City, being a gain of ninety-five over last year. To assist him Mr. Ryan employed J. H. Black, and unusual care has been taken to have the census accurate. By the usual ratio figured on this enumeration it gives Oregon City a population of over 000.
