Ladies fine shoes at $1.50 to $2, usually feel velvety, being sheep. An Eastern factory makes a good dongola shoe for cash trade. These shoes are good wearers, have patent tip square or opera toe, are neat and stylish and cost only $1.50 at the Red Front. Same in oxfords at $1.

Why is it that the Seventh street photograph gallery has all the business? Because the photographer asks no person to accept pictures unless satisfied and makes a first-class cabinet photo for $1.50 per dozen and gives a life size crayon with every dozen pictures for $2 extra. No extra charge for groups. This offer is good for 20 days.

THE LEGISLATURE.

But Little Done During the Week—The Sentimental Fight Getting Interesting

Special Correspondence.

MONDAY.

The first day of the last week has come and gone and no change in the senatorial contest, the anti-Dolph republicans all voting for Williams again. The house was called to order this morning at 9:30 A. M. there being no quorum present, an adjournment was taken till 10:30 when 41 members answered to roll call and business proceeded.

The bill incorporating Dayton was reported and passed.

No. 159, McGreer, regulating distribution of public lands proceeds among the counties according to the work actually done by road districts passed.

Baker introduced bill No. 379 providing manner of assessment and regulating sale of land for taxes.

Burke introduced a resolution to provide each member with volume 20, 21 and 20, supreme court reports referred to committee on resolutions.

Schibrede introduced bill No. 380 to legalize act of Governor Pennoyer in the remission of the fine and costs imposed on V. L. Arrington, read second time and referred to Douglas delegation.

A resolution was offered to the effect that the legislature remain in session another week, resolution lost.

The senate met promptly at noon and at once repaired to the representative's hall and voted for United States senator after which adjourned to 2:30, at which time the senate took up McGowan's militia bill which embodies to a large extent the New York law governing such bodies and their organization after general discussion the bill passed. Several new bills were introduced during the afternoon.

Mrs. Geo. C. Brownell, wife of Senator Brownell of Oregon City, is in Salem this week visiting friends.

Miss Nora Conyers, of Oregon City visited for several days in Salem last week.

TUESDAY.

The house at a night session yesterday defeated the McGinn Multnomah county salary bill and the Portland charter bill came very near receiving the same treatment but was finally referred to the Multnomah county delegation for amendment and made a special order for Wednesday evening.

The Oregon City charter passed the house last evening.

Hon. F. L. Mintie has before the house bill No. 367, regulating the measurement of logs also No. 370 prohibiting the use of narrow tires on heavy vehicles.

Bill No. 369 by Binearson regulating hours of labor on railroads and car lines and providing penalties for violating same.

The house today defeated Senator Patterson's bill providing for conveying of convicts to the penitentiary and patients to the asylum by the guards.

Both houses spent a large portion of the day in discussing assessment measures but each house was working on different measures, so it is hard at this writing to tell what will be the outcome of the days work.

The senate will hold its first night session this evening.

The overland Monday brought to Salem Meldrum McCow, Oregon City's constable. Also Stonewall Vaughan, both visiting the legislature.

Judge Meldrum is in Salem looking after legislative matters.

W. H. Matison, of Viola, came up on the train this morning and is about the legislative halls.

Hon. J. T. Apperson is attending the legislature this week.

WEDNESDAY.

Dawson's bill repealing the act creating the state board of equalization and Butler's bill repealing the same board and creating a state board of county assessors were considered together. Senator Butler occupying almost the entire morning session in explaining the merits of his bill, which is the one formulated by the senate committee on assessment and taxation, the bill was again up for discussion and amendment during the afternoon, consuming the greater part of the day yesterday and was made a special order for today at 10 A. M. but as your correspondent has been on the sick list today the fate of the bill is not yet known. Dawson's bill abolishing the state board of equalization failed to pass.

McGinn's bank examiner bill failed to pass.

A resolution of condolence was adopted by a rising vote to Senator McGinn on account of the death of his brother, Gilbert J. McGinn. Mr. McGinn made a very feeling farewell address to the senators in regard to its being necessary for him to leave them at this time to perform one of the saddest duties that fall to man. He referred to his having been treated with the utmost kindness by the senators during the two sessions he had been permitted to meet with them, he asked to be excused from further attendance during the session which was granted on account of the funeral of his brother which takes place later in the week at Portland.

McGinn introduced a new bill No. 244 authorizing the county court of Lane county to operate ferries. Under suspension of the rules the bill was read first, second and third times and passed. Stelwar's bill abolishing private seals was read three times and passed. King's bill relating to the sale of lands by guardians was read a third time and passed.

Raley's bill for the establishment of justice of peace and constable districts in incorporated towns passed.

Calbreath's bill for punishment for the circulating of obscene pictures or literature was read a third time and failed to pass.

Smith of Clatsop, regulating construction of dams in streams so as not to prevent the immigration of fish read third time and passed.

A large part of the time in the house was occupied in discussion of assessment laws. The bill of Burke was taken up which contains 56 printed pages and took three hours to read. An amendment was offered to the effect that any manse or parsonage or the buildings used exclusively for educational matters with not more than ten acres of ground be exempt from taxation, the bill was amended and then passed with only three dissenting votes.

Smith of Josephine, amending state equalization law so as to divide real estate into five classes, city and town lots, agricultural and improved lands, unimproved lands, railroad tracks etc. passed.

THURSDAY.

The senatorial vote aroused great interest today and the hall was packed with spectators. It was expected that an important change would take place and an election would be made. Two ballots were taken, the second not differing from the first, though it created a big surprise as Speaker Moores, of the house, changed his vote from Dolph to Williams and Senator Hobson, of Marion county, changed from Dolph to Judge Waldo. The vote was as follows: Dolph, 39; Williams, 29, Hare 10; Raley, 6; Waldo, 2; Smith, of Sherman, 1. A vote will be taken again tomorrow noon. Tomorrow at midnight the members pay ceases by constitutional limitation, but the legislature will probably continue in session until Saturday evening. If no election is had by midnight tomorrow, Oregon will have to go with but one senator, unless the governor calls a special session. It is expected though that a compromise candidate will be agreed upon who can be elected.

Died.

At his home in Marion county, February 11, 1895, Noble N. Matlock, aged about 64 years. Mr. Matlock was the eldest son of Hon. W. T. Matlock, for many years before his death very prominent and active in Clackamas county affairs. The deceased subject of this notice, moved with his family to Marion county some seventeen years since, where he died. He was an earnest Christian, and a strong Baptist, with bright religious experiences in his later years. Many of his friends remaining remember his sturdy manhood and cheerful demeanor and part with him with tearful regret. W. C. JOHNSON.

KENT.—At the home of his parents on Elliott Prairie, Clackamas county, Oregon, February 11, 1895, Robert Lee Kent, aged 25 years, 7 months and 8 days.

He was born in Solano county, California, July 11, 1869 and at the age of 9 years he moved with his parents to Oregon, where he lived till death called him from earthly labor to everlasting reward. He leaves a father, mother, three sisters and three brothers and a host of friends to mourn the loss of a dutiful son, a kind and loving brother and a faithful friend. The remains were followed to their last resting place at the Rock Creek cemetery by a large concourse of relatives and friends. Rev. Edmunds, of Woodburn, conducted the funeral services.

The community joins in tendering its sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Removed.

The dental office of L. L. Pickens D. D. has been removed to the Barclay block, Main street, suspension bridge corner where he can be found at hours to meet his patrons.

The Children's Dancing club gave a Valentine ball at the armory last week which was a very charming affair. The young maidens were particularly attractive, being attired in pretty white gowns tastily ornamented with flowers made of paper. The whole effect was beautiful and will long be remembered by the little folks.

By an oversight, mention was not made in the ENTERPRISE of last week of the removal of G. C. Fields to the Barkley block, where he has his loan and collection agency located, he having desk room with O'Neill, Hedges, Thompson & Griffith.

Dr. L. L. Pickens has removed his dental parlors to the Barkley block where he has fitted up a suite of elegant rooms and has as fully supplied and well arranged dental office as there is in the state.
