

CLACKAMAS COUNTY

THE ENTERPRISE CORRESPONDENTS SWEEP THE FIELD.

Meadow Brook Brilliance.

MEADOW BROOK, Feb. 23.—Born to the wife of Mr. Way of this place, on February 24, a son.

Mr. Woodruff is preparing to move his family on his property recently purchased of F. M. Baker near Anderson's saw mill. Mrs. Mary Wright and daughter Laurie were the guests of Mrs. Wm. Standinger last Tuesday.

The social entertainment under the management of the farmers alliance on the evening of the 14th inst. at the new Canyon Creek hall, was pronounced by those in attendance to be a decided success. The amateurs held the attention of the house to the stage until midnight. Then L. P. Williams sold at auction the lunch baskets. All sold well. Out of some twenty-five baskets @ cents was the least that any were sold for. The basket of Miss Lizzie Jennings brought the highest price, it being knocked down to John Corner for $3.00. The sale of baskets netted the hall $26.35, which will go toward purchasing a new stove and other necessities for the hall.

"Phoenix" had the misfortune to get a button-book in his right eye last Friday, and was for several days badly "under the weather."

Mr. Nault, of Oregon City, moved out on the old Bill White farm last week. His daughter, we understand, will keep house for him.

Charley and Geo. Robeson have finished their original log cutting contract for Dave Anderson, but Dave is receiving so many orders for lumber he has engaged the boys to cut 140,000 feet more.

Miss Grace Corbett, who has been quite ill is slowly improving.

A few farmers will have to re-sow their winter wheat, but several fields that were considered seriously injured are coming out nicely under the influence of the gentle showers and warm days of the last two weeks. Grass is growing rapidly and old-timers say that the back-bone of winter is broken. Well, we hope so, but March may yet prove a lion.

Carr Bros. had a horse that is either "lost, strayed or stolen," as it has been gone some time and the most diligent inquiry fails to bring news of it.

Peter Lafferty has a horse sick with the staggers.

The ENTERPRISE will confer a great favor on its numerous appreciative readers by publishing a synopsis of the general laws passed by our late legislature—whose epitaph should be, "Si monumentum quaeris, circumspice!"

Attention, devotees of the dance! On Friday evening, March 15, there will be a grand ball and oyster supper at the new Canyon Creek alliance hall. PHOENIX.

Mink Mutterings.

MIKE, Feb. 24.—Emil Hornshuh and wife are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hornshuh, today.

E. W. Hornshuh's family who have been on the sick list are gradually improving.

In spite of the hard times, of which so many are complaining, there are a few who will make money in spite of fate. Our worthy justice of the peace, G. A. Schubel, has, within the last few weeks, sold nearly fifty dollars worth of hops.

Peter Bohlander, who has been building a house for Andreas Weidner, has the same completed, and Andreas says he is going to play bachelor for a while, but for how long he didn't say.

The Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical church met at the church last Wednesday evening and had a most enjoyable time. The program, which was quite lengthy had been well prepared and every individual rendered his part well. These meetings are a benefit to the young people, especially those who take part in the program. We meet every two weeks and generally have a crowded house.

The moderate weather we are now enjoying is arousing our farmers from their winter's slumber, and they are putting their farm implements in a proper condition preparatory to the spring campaign.

Born, to the wife of Frank Grossmiller, a girl.

One day last week, as Frank Grossmiller was sawing a log in two the log began to pinch the saw, and he began to saw from the other side. In a short space of time the log gave way and Frank, not being quick enough in lifting the saw out, somehow got his arm underneath it and received an ugly gash in his arm. He went to Dr. Thomas who immediately sewed up the wound. Frank now carries his arm in a sling.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

MIKE, Feb. 25.—Mr. Holman is having quite a streak of bad luck. Last week he lost a valuable horse and then he took ill with inflammatory rheumatism which now confines him to his bed. It requires two men to turn him in bed.

Mrs. Grossmiller is very ill with erysipelas. Fritz Blum who was sick with lung trouble has fully recovered.

Leslie Brooks is visiting friends in the neighborhood.

Rev. Wietoch, pastor of the German Lutheran church, has organized a singing choir. The pastor is an accomplished musician and we anticipate good singing in future.

Mike Moeinke has lost two fine two year old colts with staggers.

Sowing will be the order of the day if this fine weather continues.

Carns Callings.

CARNS, Feb. 25.—St. Valentine's day was celebrated here by sending friend and foe a remembrance.

Father Spangler is badly crippled with rheumatism. H. O. Inskip is busy getting ready to erect a fine residence on his ranch.

Miss Jennie Baker is going to Salem to spend the summer.

Peter Adams lost a horse with the staggers last week.

The Union Hall Literary and Debating Society met February 20. There was a large turnout. The question for discussion was, Resolved, That history is more beneficial than geography. The leaders were John Burns, affirmative, and E. H. Mack, negative, followed by H. A. Waldron, Shultz Rue, John Yeoman, John Abbott and Geo. McArthur. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative, two to one. The literary exercises were good, after which the paper was read by the editor, and all went away satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

On Thursday evening, February 21st, a mass meeting was held in Union hall to discuss the matter of co-operation. A. H. Wheeler was elected chairman and Ben Officer secretary. Mr. Robb, who is a member of the co-operative society in Portland, addressed the meeting. He explained the principle by which this society is carried on, and thought it would be a great benefit to the farmers if they would get together and co-operate, and by so doing they would get a better price for their products. After his address several questions were asked him in regard to the working of the society and the running expenses, all of which were answered satisfactorily by Mr. Robb.

The Baker school house literary and debating society met on Saturday evening. The attendance was so large that only standing room was afforded. The literary exercises consisted of declamations, dialogues, reading, singing and the reading of the society paper entitled The Buchser Creek Sun, Timothy Flynn, editor. Then followed the question for debate, Resolved, That there is more pleasure in pursuit than in possession. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. The affirmatives thought there were a great many who had possession who wished they were still in pursuit.

JUNIATA.

Springwater Spray.

SPRINGWATER, Feb. 18.—The weather is fine now and plows are going in every direction where horses are able to work. After the long dry spell horses seemed to be in very bad condition for the spring work. Some have died while others are sick. W. J. Lewellen lost a good mare, B. Tucker one and Mr. Gillaska one. J. McGetchie lost one of his valuable work horses.

The valentine party and ball at Lewellen's hall was a very nice affair. A large and jolly crowd attended as usual.

The Junior Endeavor society will give an entertainment at the church March 3d, the proceeds of which will go to the foreign mission board.

G. L. Gray is out for a time from Oregon City. He is going to make some improvements on his ranch.

L. G. West disappeared from here Saturday last with his good clothes on, and it is whispered that he has gone to bring her in. J. Dubois, one of Springwater's best farmers, took one of our best girls, Miss Effie Shibley, to Portland, and was married at the residence of H. Dubois by F. O. Forbes on the 17th inst. They will make their future home in Springwater. They will have the best wishes of their many friends.

J. A. Shibley and wife are on the sick list. C. H. Gutridge and wife have been spending some days with their sick daughter, Mrs. Bell Harrington, of Curryville.

Mrs. W. T. Smith has been suffering for some time with erysipelas in her face.

Uncle Bob Markwood has been laid up this winter with rheumatism.

Redland Rippings.

REDLAND, Feb. 27.—The fire fiend has lately been busy in our neighborhood. Mike Shank's residence was burned down with all its contents one night last week. Mr. Shank was absent and his wife and children retired early. About half past ten o'clock Mrs. Shank was awakened by a sense of suffocation, when she found the room full of smoke and the adjoining room ablaze. She aroused the children and barely got them out before the entire house was enveloped in flames. Everything in the house was lost. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A few days previous to the above a barn belonging to B. F. Linn was burned, and it was with difficulty that other buildings were saved. In this instance the fire started accidentally in a slashing.

Yesterday Julius Campbell lost one of his horses from a mysterious disease which somewhat resembled the "stiffs" or staggers, yet differing from that disease in many respects. Ed. Richardson also lost a horse, apparently from the same disease, a few days ago. Both have other horses sick. Some alarm is felt lest the disease should be contagious.

Ed Morgan and his wife and mother are going to Carbonado, Washington, in a short time. Their farm here has been leased by Chas. Cutting.

G. C. Armstrong and Misses Lizzie Armstrong, Ida Young and Etta Conner were delegates to the Sunday school convention at Clackamas last Friday.

The newly organized Sunday school at Redland hall has made a promising beginning, having over sixty enrolled the second Sabbath.

The next question for debate in the literary society is, Resolved, That gunpowder has been more beneficial to the United States than steam. H. D. Johnson and Wm. Stone leaders.

Spring seems to be here as crocuses and wild strawberries are in blossom.

RUSTIC.

Sunnyside Notes.

SUNNYSIDE, Feb. 22.—School was closed here yesterday. There was speaking and singing, and a very pleasant day was spent. Many of the parents and friends of the pupils were present. Mr. Allen, of Mount Tabor, was the teacher.

Sickness has been visiting this community again. Mrs. Johnson has been very sick. Also Mr. Hubbard's oldest boy has been very ill, and others have been ailing, but all are reported better.

If this should meet the eye of a Mr. Jukes who stayed here by sending friend and foe a remembrance. Mrs. Johnson has been very sick. Also Mr. Hubbard's oldest boy has been very ill, and others have been ailing, but all are reported better.

Viola Voicings.

VIOLA, Feb. 26.—There were quite a number of the Viola people who attended the school entertainment and pie sociable at Redland.

Mrs. J. M. Shultz is still very sick. Mrs. James Sevier made a short visit to friends in Portland.

Miss Emma Closser, who has been working in Oregon City the past year has returned home for the summer.

W. H. Mattoon has returned from Salem where he had been attending to business.

Mrs. J. C. Young, of Logan, was visiting Mrs. B. C. Lewis last Friday.

Mrs. Gasser and son, from Iowa, are visiting her niece, Mrs. J. R. Heater.

Mrs. H. Mattoon was taken very suddenly ill Sunday evening.

Dr. Walling returned to Oregon City today. While here he was kept busy extracting teeth.

Mrs. Aleck Kitterman left here last Monday to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Janney, of Portland.

There arrived here from Nebraska on the 2th, Mrs. Tenny, mother of L. Tenny of Viola, E. Brock, wife and child, Mrs. Brock's mother and Mr. Burnell. The people of Viola welcome them to our midst, and all other good people who may come. We have lots of room for them, and Clackamas county could find room for several hundred more good families. We hear that others are coming out to Oregon this summer.

Mr. Tenny being well pleased with this country is sure to call several of Nebraska's citizens here.

BUYS BBS.

Molalla Nurseries.

MOLALLA, Feb. 22.—Our most excellent February* having but three more days to tarry with us, has been gladly improved by the farmers.

Molalla lodge No. 40, A. O. U. W. at its last meeting voted to pay from its general fund fifty cents for each member in good standing to the Nebraska sufferers. Should the other lodges in Clackamas county do likewise, a nice lot of seed grain or provisions can be sent over to the needy of that unfortunate locality. Why not extend this action throughout the state and see that a proper distribution be made of the $3000.

John Bagby (mountain John) comes in this time with three cougar "pelts, paws and claws," making twenty-nine all told, that have fallen to the deadly aim of his rifle.

Teasel Creek grange No. 255 held an open meeting on the 20th inst. State Master Vorbees and Lecturer Miller, accompanied by a gentleman from Oswego, were present, making many speeches. Dinner being a thing of the past when your scribe arrived, he took in the speeches and the situation. The Oswego gentleman was introduced as one looking for a wife, who carried away the sisters with his poetic swells for a time, but when he began treading on woman's opinion, telling how to grade butter or how not to grade it and comparing such a grading to the merchant who marked his lady's shoes all down a number in order to sell them, then in the Pig Iron brother got into a wasp nest, as there was talk of greasing his shoes with soap grease butter to create a demand for the same. No telling what would of happened had not his friends come to his rescue. This grange is contemplating building a hall in the near future, which will be a valuable addition to the order and the community.

Miss Minnie Austin went to University Park last week to attend that school. She will room with Miss Mattie Leavett, daughter of Dr. Leavett of this place, who is taking a collegiate course at that institution.

Protracted meetings closed last week here and at Teasel Creek. Rev. Gardner, Gray and Thomas are able men. Pastor Thomas, however, spoiled one of his last sermons by advocating the ethereal wave theory of light and sound, which has been proven time and again to be a fallacy, yet in advancing this exploded wave college, the pastor did only what many college professors are advancing for science today from the text books.

Smyrna Smacks us—"Jona," of Smyrna, wherever that place may be, takes issue with my complementary notice of Rinearson's behavior in the legislature, and modestly concludes by admitting the possibility of "being out of place on such matters." If a neighborhood scribbler hasn't any right to scribble who has? But "Jona" does not agree with me—well that is all right also. He says "we know any amount of republicans who voted the entire ticket from governor to coroner without a scratch." Now this "any amount" might include more genuine republicans than really voted; for instance 100,000 is one of any amounts and I venture "Jona" has no certain knowledge of 1000 republicans voting the ticket without a scratch—remember, without a scratch—much less any amount, which is, indeed, more out of place than my assertion "everybody seems." "Jona" may think this quite a fish story, yet he ought not to swallow all of the old whale in its present condition. Rinearson's statements at the recent Barlow anti-Dolph meeting does not seem to please "any amount" of republicans, including "Jona". Now I presume those sentiments were anti-Dolph sentiments, and the young legislator would not be side-tracked by an insignificant Dolph petition of forty names from a city of 5000 inhabitants, when he had in his pocket an anti-Dolph petition of 300 names from the same place. Did not Dolph himself ignore republican platform resolution in his Baltimore speech? Did not Senator Brownell take a stand with the "anti" and the populist too before his election? Did not the Oregonian talk different twelve years ago about the "anti"?

Whose ox is being gored? Oh, consistency, thou art a jewel.

The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's cough remedy which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have a cold he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale by G.
