A NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.—Last Thursday morning, pedestrians observed a peculiar placard pinned to the door of the Baptist church, as follows: "Leave speech behind all ye who enter here. Mum's the word! No talking today." An oppressive silence pervaded the vicinity, broken occasionally by a merry peal of laughter, a burst of joyous song, or did I hear it—a feminine whistle, but never a word spoken. A traveling friend passing, returned to enter, and introducing herself to the bevy of ladies busily engaged around the quilt, seated herself and indulged in a monologue, greatly to the relief and edification of the members of the society. One of the ladies quietly served the tea and set the lunch upon the table and beckoned the others to partake. A jolly though speechless company surrounded the board and the visitor declared the impossible had been realized. A company of ladies who were not talking. The necessary information about the work in hand, was distributed in writing and passed to the patron for approval. The afternoon was spent in the same manner, ladies coming and going, with a bow and smile but sealed lips. Familiar hymns were sung, the favorite being, "How tedious and listless the hours." One of the sisters sang an ancient ballad entitled "My Own Native State" with baritone accompaniment which brought down the house and nearly forfeited the reward. But the long, long, weary day at last came to an end, and 25 ladies thought they never received $2.50 which was harder earned.

SURPRISE PARTY.—Sixteen pupils of the eighth grade of the Eastham school gave a surprise party to their schoolmate, George Swafford, on the evening of the 11th inst., at his home in Elyville. It was in honor of George's birthday, he being fourteen years of age on that day. It was a genuine surprise, he not knowing that any of his young friends knew his age or birthday. The evening was spent in games and music, and a happy time was had by all present. Ice cream and cake were served. The party broke up at 11:30 and returned to the city feeling gay and joyous over the event. George is one of the bright scholars of the school, and felt proud and grateful for the honor conferred on him by his fellow students. Those present at the party were: Mae Case, Allie Gale, Mary Bluhm, Lulu Hankins, Ellen Shaw, Daisy Lawrence, Howard Brownell, Edger Meresse, Willie Logan, Olie Meresse, Thompson Meldrum, Chauncey Ramsby, Carl Church, Chas. Criswell, Hubert Shaw, Carl Caulfield, and George and Nellie Swagard.

NEW SOLDIER'S UNIFORM.—Under direction of the secretary of war a board of officers has designed a new uniform for the officers of the army. In the new uniform the undress blouse is materially changed. The blouse now in use which was designed about two years ago, is objected to on the ground that with its superfluity of braid it looked too much like a band uniform. Accordingly the braid has all been taken off, except that which binds the edge of the coat, goes around the collar and the bottom of the blouse. The blouse is made to look very much similar to that worn in the navy, except that the braid in front is heavier. There are no longer any frogs across the chest, nor is there any braid on the sleeve. The greatest innovation is made in the cap. The chasseur style, which has distinguished the undress uniform of the United States army for years, is discarded. Though extremely artistic, this cap has been seriously objected to because it wore the hair off the officers' heads and was said to be uncomfortable. Those who have worn them do not agree with that. The cap selected is something on the order of the one worn in the navy. It is higher and has a more prominent visor. The cap is flat on top; the top is just the same in circumference as the bottom. The visor is long and projects over the eye in a rakish fashion. On the front is to be placed a silver eagle emblematic of the Union. On the collar of the blouse the number of the regiment and the corps insignia will be affixed. The new uniform will cause much discussion, and it is probable, by an unpopular. Every militia officer must have his uniform changed to meet the regulations. The dress uniform remains unchanged, the ugly hat being retained.

SINNERS TOLD TO HALT.—Postal cards bearing texts from holy scripture, of a hortatory character, have been mailed to many of the prominent business men of the city, during the past week. These missives have evidently been circulated by some person or persons, bent on doing good. The object is commendable, but the result is dubious. Sinners tripping along the rosy path of iniquity are not to be turned from the evil of their ways by a text in which their own name has been interpolated in a manner which is decidedly poor taste, if not downright blasphemous. The recipients as a rule, laugh at them, re-address them to some fellow sinner; others become indignant, and swear at them. No startling reformation can be accomplished in this way. Let the anonymous writer give our erring citizens the example of daily, good, old-fashioned, upright living, and they will find it will produce a happier result than red and black texts or postal cards.

THE SILETZ RESERVATION.—Register R. A. Miller and Receiver P. Paquet, of the United States land office in this city are constantly besieged both by mail and by personal request as to when the Siletz Indian reservation will be thrown open to settlement. The interior department has acted on the matter and the president's proclamation is all that is needed to open the land for entry. The opinion of the land office here is that the president will withhold his proclamation until the weather becomes settled so that intending settlers will not have the inclemencies of the weather to add to their hardships in making their settlement on their claims. The agreement with the Siletz Indians provides for the cession of all their unallotted lands, the total ceded territory covering 178,000 acres. For this land the government is to pay the Indians $100,000.

A SAD DEATH.—The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard died very suddenly Monday morning. The parents arose early in the morning and left the baby asleep in its bed, apparently well, as usual. After a short time Mrs. Howard returned to awake the child for its customary bath, and found it still and cold. Dr. Powell was immediately called, but could render no assistance, as the baby was dead, having probably died from heart failure as it had previously been quite healthy. The funeral occurred Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Myers, of the Evangelical church, officiating.

Two Lives Saved.
 Mrs. Phoebe Thomas of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Charman & Co's. Drug Store, Charman Bros. Block. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds, Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50-cent bottles for sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

Appetite and sleep may be improved, every part of the system strengthened and the animal spirits regain their buoyancy by the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. For sale by C. G. Huntley, druggist.
