OUR CARPETS
win on sight. The merit of a carpet is a matter of material and pattern. Whatever the material of any carpet we offer may be, it is emphatically a good value. Anything purchased from us has the quality of wear in it. That comes from the superiority of the material. In patterns we select the cream of the season's productions and show many exclusive designs. For that reason our carpet exhibit is better worth examination than any other in town. You see so much that you can't see elsewhere that you at once see the advantage of purchasing from us. We are now selling Ingrain Carpet for 25 cents a yard, and upwards.

FRIGID WEATHER.

Blizzards, Frosts and Snow in the East.

HOPEFUL FOR YAUQUINA BAY.

Talk Free Coinage at Lebanon—A Woman's Bible to be Translated.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The weather bureau furnishes the following crop bulletin: The usual warm weather that prevailed last week throughout Missouri and the Upper Mississippi valleys and the lower lake region, the middle Atlantic states and New England, has been followed by a wave of extremely low temperature, exceeding in many cases the record of any previous years for the first half of May. The warm wave began Wednesday, the 8th, in the Missouri valley, with a maximum temperature ranging from 90 degrees to 100 degrees, and moved gradually eastward, reaching the middle Atlantic states and New England Friday. The cool wave set in in the Northwest Friday night. Frosts were reported Saturday morning as far south as Kansas and Missouri, and they extended to the Atlantic coast by this morning, producing light frosts as far south as Chattanooga and Lynchburg. Killing frosts occurred Sunday morning in Nebraska, Iowa and Michigan, and this morning in Michigan, Ohio and West Virginia. Warnings of these frosts were sent out by the weather bureau the day preceding their occurrence to all districts affected. Snows occurred along Lake Michigan and in Wisconsin. The storm, which has developed suddenly during the last 14 hours is now central in the Ohio valley. It will probably cause a still further fall in the temperature as it moves eastward, producing freezing weather in the lower lake region and the northern portions of New York and New England.

Two Silvery Orators.

ALBANY, Or., May 13.—A big silver demonstration was held in Lebanon today. Congressman J. C. Sibley of Pennsylvania, and General A. J. Warner of Ohio, president of the national bi-metallic league, addressed an assemblage of 2,000 people there this afternoon. This is probably the only place the silver orator will speak in Oregon. They arrived on the overland train from San Francisco and took the first train for Lebanon. The distinguished speakers were met on the arrival of the train there by Mayor M. A. Miller and a committee of citizens and escorted to the hotel, where an informal reception was held. Afterwards a procession was formed and the throng, accompanied by brass bands, marched through the streets to the grounds of the Santiam academy, where an open air meeting was held. They were introduced with an appropriate speech by Mayor Miller. Both speakers made strong pleas for the unlimited coinage of silver on a ratio of 16 to 1. They urged voters to support for president the man who stands upon the platform, irrespective of party affiliations. After the speeches a rising vote was called for, which showed an almost unanimous sentiment for the white metal.

Both gentlemen are loud in their praise of the Willamette valley. After speaking the distinguished orators returned to Albany and will go to Portland and at once take the train to meet their appointments in the state of Washington.

Hopeful for Yauquina Bay.

SALEM, Or., May 13.—Senator George W. McBride returned from Yauquina Bay yesterday afternoon, where he had been to meet with boards of trade to investigate and confer with the government engineers who are surveying Yauquina harbor. In an interview with a reporter today the senator expressed himself as greatly pleased and hopeful of a favorable report to the government, in which case he thinks there will be no doubt about securing an appropriation for the harbor's improvement. The senator is in excellent health, and will visit Portland and St. Helens some day this week.

Thieving Apaches Again.

DENVER, May 14.—Colonel Ward, acting commander of the department of Colorado, received a dispatch this afternoon saying that the cavalry troops sent out from Fort Bowie are close on the Indians who were reported yesterday to have fired upon miners near Fort Bayard Arizona, killing several, and who have been rounding up cattle and horses and committing other depredations. Apache Kid is said to be the leader of the band of renegades.

Death of a Mining Man.

BAKER CITY, Or., May 13.—Dr. Jay Guy Lewis, the well-known mining man, died at his home at Sparta last night, after a brief illness, of erysipelas. Dr. Lewis was superintendent of Oregon's exhibit at the world's fair.

(Dr. Lewis came into public view in Portland through his connection with the Oregon exhibit at the world's fair. He never lived in this city, but he has been here often. He secured his position through political influence; and his work in Chicago for Oregon was not done satisfactorily. He got into difficulties on various occasions, but managed to hold his place throughout the time of the fair. Though he carries the title of doctor, he never practiced medicine in this state. He brought his title with him from Arkansas. On coming to Oregon six years ago he went to the town of Sparta, where he has resided every since. He did not practice medicine. He was a mining broker; he bought and sold mines and mineral lands in a small way. Sparta is a small town in Union county, 50 miles from Baker City, made up wholly of miners. There are several good gold placer mines around the camp, owned by companies and worked principally by Chinese.

THAT WOMAN'S BIBLE.

The Task Elizabeth Cady Stanton Has Set Out for Herself.

CHICAGO, May 13.—A local paper says: "A woman, in the person of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, has laid her hand upon Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, the Psalms of David and the Songs of Solomon, the Script of Matthew and the Word of the Acts, and is about to bring from them and their companion pieces a new Bible. The revision or new translation is to be 'The Woman's Bible.' The version of the Bible addressed to 'The Most High and Mighty Prince James' and the revision of the same, completed but a few years ago, leaves woman's position in the Scriptures as per Mrs. Stanton, far inferior to man.

"Mrs. Stanton's co-laborers or apostles in the preparation of the new work include Lady Henry Somerset, Miss Francis Lord, Mrs. Stanton Black, who is Mrs. Stanton's daughter, and Mrs. Alice Cliff Scratcher, of England and the following of America: Frances E. Willard, Rev. Phoebe Hanford, Rev. Olympia Brown, Mrs. Robert Ingersoll, Ellen B. Dietrick, Frances E. Barr, Matilda Joelyn Gage, Sarah Underwood, Mary A. Livermore, Lillie D. Blake, Mrs. L. B. Chandler, Carrie Chapman-Catt, Josephine K. Henry, C. A. F. Stebbins, Helen M. Gardner, Clara Dewick Colby and Mrs. E. B. Grannis.

"In the cause of the new woman, Mrs. Stanton has felt that the worst foe to her advancement was the misconception of the present Bible, as regards women. Some advanced women felt as Mrs. Stanton, and joined her in preparation of a new version of the book of books. Mrs. Stanton said to the women gathered about her when she first broached the question of a Bible for women alone: 'Sufficient attention has not been given the position of woman in the divine book. The various revisions have treated with scant consideration those portions relating to women. In the agitation to secure equal rights and privileges for women, the Bible is constantly referred to show the inferiority of the sex. This being so, it is necessary that the misconceptions as to the attitude of the Bible toward women, arising from wrong translations and interpretations, should be corrected.'

"It is supposed the book will be completed this year."

Catholic Knights in Session.

OMAHA, May 14.—The National convention of the Catholic Knights of America convened at Chamber's hall this afternoon with 200 delegates in attendance, representing every state in the Union. This forenoon the delegates together with visiting members of the Uniformed Rank, proceeded to St. Philomena's cathedral where pontifical high mass was celebrated by Archbishop Gross of Oregon.

The Catholic Knights were in convention tonight discussing routine business. President Shinnelas, when asked what the chief question before the convention would be, admitted that a movement for the consolidation of the Catholic Knights and the Young Men's Institute would be one of them.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr of 1235 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.
