Take in the conductor's excursion to Salem Sunday and see the grand balloon ascension and parachute jump and professional bicycle races. Music by the popular State band of Salem.

Meat from cheap second grade beef cannot be otherwise than tough and tasteless. Albright buys only the best of stock—three and five-year-old stalled steers furnish his steaks and roasts—juicy and tender enough for a king.

It does seem hard for a woman to have to cook on a burned out stove, besides the entire family have to suffer from improperly cooked food. For $18.50 Schwan & Putrow will furnish a first-class cook stove with all the fixtures, ready to set up.

Now that there is no question about the stability and progress of Oregon City, why hesitate to buy a home? C. O. T. Williams can fit you out on easy terms.

Tompkins brothers are supplying the market with the best of fresh vegetables from their farm near town, and they are among the leaders in their line.

Al Close moved out to Gresham the other day, and is said to be conducting a saloon at that place, and each purchaser of wet goods is required to buy one gallon at a time.

Rev. J. L. Parish, of Salem, an old pioneer, died last Thursday night at the age of 89 years. He was one of the early Methodist missionaries to the Coast coming in 1845, and was well known to all Oregon City residents.

The Portland Baptist Young People's union recently held a meeting, at which they planned for a Baptist Union excursion to Oregon City on Tuesday June 25. The occasion is young people's day at the Baptist convention to be held there, commencing on that date.

The G. A. R. and the Jr. O. U. A. M. had a grand picnic at Needy last Saturday. A large number of residents were present from contiguous sections of the country. Address were made by Hon. George O. Rinearson, of Oregon City, Capt. G. W. Dimick, and Ralph Platt, of Portland.

Andrew S. Dingler, a resident of Redland, was examined before County Judge Hayes Tuesday, and was committed to the asylum on a charge of insanity. Dr. J. W. Norris was the examining physician. Mr. Dingler's affliction is a mild species of religious mania.

Another Oregon City manufacturing enterprise has filed articles of incorporation in the secretary of state's office. The Mechanic's Mill Company filed their papers at Salem last Saturday to manufacture sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, etc.; principal office, Oregon City; capital, $2000; incorporators, C. C. Robbins, T. S. Lawrence and H. E. Harris.

At the meeting held last Monday evening, bylaws and constitution were adopted for the organization of the Native Sons and Daughters of Oregon and the dues were placed at 50 cents per annum. All native born males and females over fifteen years of age, one or both of whose parents settled in Oregon prior to February 14, 1859, are entitled to membership and are invited to attend the meeting in the parlors of the Congregational church next Saturday evening, June 8, when permanent officers will be elected.

A complaint has been lodged in Justice Dixon's court against J. A. Louisignout by H. O. Jones, charging him with making threats with intent to kill. He will have a hearing on this charge after his case has been disposed of in the circuit court. His attorney, George C. Brownell succeeded in having him from conviction at the former trial in the circuit court on the ground that a verdict could not be legally sustained when said verdict was brought in for a greater offense than that charged in the indictment.

A dwelling at Ely belonging to I. L. Clark of Highland, and occupied by E. E. May and family was burned to the ground last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The fire was supposed to have started from one of the children playing with matches under the building. It is believed that the building could have been saved had there been a hose and hydrant convenient, but Mr. May managed to save the larger part of his furniture.

There was a double wedding in County Judge Hayes office Tuesday, and both couple registered at the county clerk's office as residents of Clackamas county. Their names were Ella J. Wilder and Charles R. Herrington, and Carrie Barnes and John S. Hudson. The Judge neatly tied the matrimonial knots, and the newly married people started out to battle with life's hardships.

Roy, the 12-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon of Maple Lane, died of malarial fever last Friday. The funeral service took place Saturday at the Maple Lane school house last Saturday, Rev. M. L. Rogg, officiating. The interment took place in the Oregon City cemetery. Roy was a bright boy and the parents have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Chief of Police Burns, armed with warrants, made a raid on the different gamblers last Monday evening and Ed. Fortune, Andronicus Clark and Jim Hackler, were arrested and arraigned before Recorder Fouts. Fortune and Clark plead guilty and were fined $25 each. Hackler's hearing was set for Thursday evening.

Last winter the Oregon City-Shiplew road was almost impassable, but now under the direction of G. W. Prosser, the road foreman of that district, some valuable and permanent improvements are being made on this road, and money is being judiciously spent to make the road passable at all seasons of the year. In the absence of Mr. Prosser, Jack Monk acts as foreman of this improvement.

Following are the new officers of Falls City Lodge, A. O. U. W., No. 59: W. M. Moore, P. M.; M. Schulpus, M. W.; M. Hamilton, F. M.; C. H. Dye, O. S.; Joseph Fromburg, guide; George Calif, recorder; J. P. Stewart, financier; W. B. Wiggins, receiver; M. E. Butler, I. W.; Jessie Markwell, O. W.

Don't fail to take the Southern Pacific Company's conductors excursion to Salem Sunday June 9th. Trains will be run from Portland, Eugene, and intermediate points, from West Side division and Woodburn, and Springfield branch. Tickets on sale at depot L. B. Moore, fare $1.00 round trip.

The Silverton papers speak in high terms of Senator George C. Brownell's oration at that place on Decoration day. The Senator has received and accepted an invitation to deliver a lecture before the Southern Oregon Chautauqua assembly at Ashland, on "Is Oregon Ripe for a New Constitution."

On last Monday morning June 3rd, a pair of twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ushosffer at Willanette Falls, each weighing scant two pounds. One of the diminutive infants is thriving, but the other unfortunately died within six hours after his birth.

County Judge Gordon Hayes and Road Engineer Kinnaird drove over the West side county roads last Friday, and made a thorough examination of the improvements under way, and viewed contemplated changes for the betterment of the roads in that section.

A petition is being circulated to have the postal department re-establish the postoffice at Ely, and appoint G. W. Grace postmaster. A postoffice would be a great convenience to these people, and the prayer of their petition should be granted.

When the roadway at the head of Fifth street was completed no provision was made for proper drainage, and the bank is caving away until the roadway is so narrow that it is absolutely dangerous traveling. The road should be repaired at once.

Wanted, to rent a seven or eight-room dwelling within 10 minutes walk of Main street. Address 294, care ENTERPRISE office.

Circuit Court.

The adjourned term of the circuit court convened Monday June 3, Judge McBride presiding; W. N. Barrett, prosecuting attorney; G. F. Horton, clerk; and E. C. Maddock, sheriff. Court will probably last the greater part of next week, and as yet but few cases have been disposed of. Louismont, convicted of larceny at the regular term has been granted a new trial. The following cases have been disposed of:

W. J. Worthington vs Henry Theissen; on motion of defendant's attorneys, E. Meendenhall and A. S. Dresser a continuance was granted until next term.

J. A. Baker, et al, vs. Rhoda A. Edes, et al; report of referee concerning the partition of property confirmed.

Robbins & Son vs. John Arquist, et al; judgement for plaintiff for the sum of $164.05.

Portland Trust company vs. Robert B. Beatie, verdict for defendant.

J. F. Anderson vs. Portland Flouring Mills; on trial.

H. E. Straight, H. C. Salisbury, Bert Greenman, H. C. Stevens, Jr., Jack Humphrey and F. F. Cowing Jr. took a spin to Portland last Sunday afternoon. They made Portland in two hours, and returning left Portland at 5 p. m. and arrived at Oregon City at 6:30. Saturday Salisbury, Straight, Greenman, Stevens and Wilson will ride their bikes to Salem, and after taking in the exercises will return home Sunday evening. Cowing will go up Sunday morning and return with the other boys in the evening.

Great preparations are being made for the rendition of the cantata of "Queen Esther," which will take place some time during the summer at Shively's opera house. About sixty-five of the best musicians and singers in the city are now rehearsing at the Congregational church under the direction of Signore Cruvelli, of Portland, and the cantata will be one of the most elaborate musical events that has ever taken place in the city.

Company F, O. N. G., ex-members and honorary members, had a company smoke the other evening. Tobacco and pipes were plentifully provided and between speeches wreaths and columns of smoke reached up toward the ceiling, mingling with the words of good cheer spoken. As a social reunion it was a success.

Evan's shingle mill on Milk creek about seven or eight miles from Oregon City, was burned to the ground one night last week. The loss was a heavy one to Mr. Evans, as the mill and machinery was in were nearly new. It is not known how the fire originated. It is stated that Mr. Evans will rebuild.

Owing to the return of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nash from Nehalem, Will Roake and family are obliged to vacate the Nash residence, which they were occupying at Gladstone and are moving into H. Blankstip's house at the corner of Eighth and Monroe streets.

The two immigrants arrested by acting constable Clarence Fields, on complaint of Vice President Coleman, of the Barlow Wagon Road company, for not paying their toll, will have a hearing before Justice Dixon today, (Friday.)

Mrs. F. R. Andrews, who teaches a class of girls in the Presbyterian Sunday school, entertained the young ladies at her home at Maplewood farm on last Saturday evening. Strawberries and cream were served and the evening was spent most pleasantly.

Attorney J. E. Marks was down from Barlow Wednesday and reports that the creamery is making 50 pounds of butter daily. The citizens of Barlow had a meeting Tuesday night and are making preparations to celebrate the Fourth in grand style.

Children's Day will be properly observed at the Presbyterian church in Springwater, with a splendid program, and the exercises will be profitable and interesting. The services will begin at 10 a. m.

F. R. Andrews, of the Maplewood farm is now prepared to supply vegetables, fresh, to any part of the city, and orders by telephone will receive prompt attention, as he has telephone connection with every part of the city.

There is great danger in neglecting colic, cholera and similar complaints. An absolute prompt and safe cure is found in De Witt's Colic and Cholera cure. C. G. Huntley, Druggist.

Wise is he who buys a home and stops paying rent. C. O. T. Williams can fit you out on easy terms.

Blacksmithing.

Clarence Porter has re-opened the blacksmith shop lately occupied by W. S. Maple, opposite Pope's hardware store and is ready to do all kinds of repairing and horseshoeing. As a shoer Mr. Porter is equal to the best and always gives satisfaction.

Wanted.

All parties owing Hamilton Bros., Red Front Store, to call at once and settle their accounts and thus save further trouble.

Encampment Notes.

The various committees, made up of Meade Post, G. A. R., Women's Relief Corps, the board of trade and appointments made by the city council, are all busy with preparations for the grand encampment which meets in this city one week from next Monday.

Mrs. J. G. Pillsbury, chairman of the committee on entertainment, in view of the fact that there will be a large number of delegates and visitors in the city at the encampment, and it will be necessary for private parties to open their houses for the accommodation of visitors, respectfully asks that all parties who can accommodate lodgers or boarders during the encampment to notify her how many they can keep, and whether they desire male or female guests, or both. The people who attend this gathering are perfectly willing and will pay for all accommodations they receive, and it is asked that the charges be made as reasonable as possible, as it would be in exceeding bad taste to be extortionate with visitors to our city.

The reception committee held a meeting at Dr. Carl's office last Monday evening, for the purpose of formulating plans of showing visitors about the city. Heretofore it has been the custom when there were public gatherings in the city, to take the visitors through the factories in a body, to the annoyance of workmen who are busy with their work. This time individual members of the committee will take the visiting delegation, divided up into small parties, through the various manufacturing establishments, which will certainly prove more satisfactory. Dr. Carl, chairman of the committee, was directed to confer with the management of the Willamette Falls Railway in reference to giving the visiting delegation an excursion over that road to points of interest, and with the East Side Railway for a trip to Gladstone park.

An Interesting Gathering.

A party consisting of Dr. O. W. Nixon, president and literary editor of the Chicago Inter Ocean, Mrs. Nixon and Miss Nixon of Chicago, Mrs. J. K. Wait, Miss Fanny J. Gray, of Portland Mr. Leslie H. Cowing, of Oregon City, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Luelling and daughter Olive, of Milwaukie, spent several hours in Oregon City Friday viewing the falls and other points of interest. Mr. Nixon taught school in Milwaukie forty-four years ago and this is his first visit to Oregon during that time and is made in the interest of a history entitled "How Whitman Saved Oregon" which he is writing by request and for the benefit of Whitman college. Mr. Nixon and family left for Chicago Saturday morning in their special car.

A Laughable Mistake.

Two ladies entered a book-store recently and the younger asked the clerk for a book called "Favorite Prescription." The puzzled attendant was unable to comply with her request and she left the store disappointed. Inquiry elicited the fact that she had overheard a conversation between two literary ladies in which "Favorite Prescription" was mentioned with extravagant praise, and had jumped to the conclusion that it was a book. She now knows that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sovereign cure for the ill and "weaknesses" peculiar to women, for she has been cured by its use. Send for a free pamphlet, or remit 10 cents in stamps for book (168) pages on "Woman and her diseases." Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure permanently constipation, sick headach, biliousness, indigestion and kindred ailments.
