G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Committees Active With Preparations for the Great Event.

GRAND MARSHAL'S ORDERS.

The undersigned having been chosen grand marshal upon the occasion of the meeting in this city, June 17th, of the fourteenth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Women's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans, issues the following orders for the parade:

1st. Headquarters will be established on Main street corner of Fifth.

2nd. The following gentlemen having accepted positions as aides to the grand marshal will report mounted at 1:45 P. M.: Captain, Henry Smith chief of staff, J. M. Lawrence, L. B.
 Moore, E. J. McKittrick, Charles Mes-serve, Frank Griffith, Dr. J. W. Norris.

3rd. The column will form on the west side of Main street, right resting on Fifth street at 2 o'clock P. M. and will move promptly at 2:30 P. M.

4th. Leaders of bands taking part in the parade will report to chief of staff, who will assign them positions in column.

5th. First Regiment band O. N. G., will take post on right of column, Co. F, O. N. G. on right of band; visiting comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, followed by Meade Post No. 2 G. A. R.; S. of V., Oregon City Fire Department; Park Place band; Falls City and Electric Lodges, A. O. U. W.; Wacheno Tribe No. 13, Improved Order of Red Men; Willamette Falls Camp No. 148, Woodmen of the World, and other societies; carriages containing Commander-in-Chief Lawler, Department Commander S. M. Ormsby, president W. R. C., mayor and president of the board of trade, followed by Battery A, O. N. G.

6th. The line of march will be up Main street to Second, countermarching will pass down Main to Eleventh street, where the column will again counter-march, going up Main street to the Baptist church, where the column will halt and be dismissed, to take part in the reception given in the Baptist church.

By order of GEORGE A. HARDING, Grand Marshal.

CAPT. HENRY SMITH, Chief of Staff.

Preparations for the decorating of Main street is being actively carried on by the committee having that work in charge. A handsome arch of imposing dimension is being erected to span Main street at the intersection of Sixth. It will be decorated with the emblems of the visiting orders and will carry a suitable motto. It is expected to have Main street fully decorated by Saturday so that it may present an attractive appearance when the visitors arrive Sunday and on the early train Monday morning.

It is asked by the grand marshal that there be as few wagons and other vehicles, not connected with the procession, as possible on the street Monday afternoon during the parade. Horsemen, not in line, is also included in the request. The size of the procession and the immense number of spectators that will be on the street make this request imperative, and it is hoped that from one to three o'clock, the street will be as clear of teams as possible.

It is earnestly desired that the residents of the city will take especial pride in decorating their dwellings and business houses in a way appropriate and befitting to the patriotic occasion.

Battery A of Portland, will arrive Sunday and go into camp at once to be in readiness for their part of the program.
 They will bring their field pieces along with a full complement of men.

The music during the parade will be exceptionally fine, for in addition to our local bands the First Regiment band of Portland will be in line. This band is one of the best on the Coast and their music will be a leading feature of the days exercises.

Commander-in-Chief Lawler, of Illinoise will be in attendance, and arrangements have been made to receive him with proper honors.

Those who can accommodate visitors during the encampment, are requested to be prompt in notifying Mrs. J. G. Pilbury, chairman of the entertainment committee, of that fact.

Children's Day.

Instead of the regular Sunday school and sermon at the Congregational church last Sunday morning, a Sunday school service was held commemorative of the work during the past year. Superintendent C. H. Dye conducted the exercises and service, which were very interesting and impressive. A review of the work during the past year was given, and the standing of the pupils entitled to prizes for attendance, etc., was read. Several neatly bound reference bibles and testaments were distributed to those entitled to receive them, and the pulpit was fairly loaded with baskets of tastily arranged bouquets donated by the ladies of the church, and which were distributed to the one hundred and fifty pupils as they were called up class by class. Visiting children and the church official board were also presented with bouquets. The song service led by a choir of little girls was excellent, and the remarks of the pastor, Dr. J. W. Cowan were appropriate.

In the evening the children rendered a concert that reflected great credit on the pupils and the managers of the affair, and delighted the auditors, who are loud in their praise of the excellent rendition of the program.

AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The program at the Presbyterian church, which began at 10 a. m. was very interesting, consisting of songs and recitations by the pupils, and special music was rendered by the choir. A.
 E. Donaldson, superintendent, presided, and at the close of the exercises a handsome bible was presented, to Miss Rachel Thomas, for repeating without a single fault, the shorter catechism, embracing 107 questions. The children's mite box yielded the sum of $9.91 to be expended for establishing Sunday schools in sparsely and newly settled districts.

At the close of the Sunday school service, Rev. A. J. Montgomery delivered an appropriate address on Sunday school work.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock a meeting of the Junior Endeavor was held, and diplomas were granted in the reading course. The presentation speech was made by Rev. A. J. Montgomery, and those who were honored with diplomas were Nina Caples, Ethel Bixby, Myra Bixby, Mary Gilbert, Minnie Myer, William Shively, Walter Muir, Harry Muir, Jacob Straight. Papers read, recitations rendered, and music completed the program.

Sunday schools in other churches will observe Children's Day later; at the Baptist church it has been announced that it will be observed one week from next Sunday.

Board of Trade.

The regular meeting for June of the Oregon City board of trade was held Monday evening. The officers were all present and a fair attendance of the members.

A communication was read from the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association asking the co-operation of the board of trade in properly receiving and entertaining the many distinguished guests that will be present during the meeting of the association and to render such assistance as will insure to Oregon City the permanence of this great annual educational gathering. On motion the committee on entertainment was ordered to aid the Chautauquans in any manner that may be possible.

A motion was carried asking the city council to enforce such ordinances as will insure the streets and alleys of Oregon City being kept clean and in a presentable manner.

The proposition of the Portland-Real Estate Dealers' Association, to take special to the amount of $10 in the forthcoming edition of their paper descriptive of the resources of Oregon, was accepted.

The bill of Peaslee Bros., Portland, for $5 for a cut of the falls was ordered paid, also one of $2 to J. M. Lawrence for stationery.

Street Cleaning.

Oregon City now has a full-fledged street cleaning department, and is putting on metropolitan airs. Tuesday a man arrived from Pendleton with a cart and horse, and made a bargain with the business people along Main street to keep the brick pavement cleaned for a week at a pro-rata charge of 25 cents for each business house. He began work Wednesday morning, and the street already presents a much improved appearance. His plan is to go over the street every day and sweep up the accumulated dirt and cart it away and if his work proves satisfactory he will probably hold down the job for some time to come. It is now hoped the problem has been solved as to how Main street will be kept clean, as it is a matter that has puzzled the astute brains of the city solons for several weeks. First the experiment was tried by having the work done under the direction of the street commissioner, but the council feared the disapproval of taxpaying constituents for the sum that would have to be appropriated monthly for this purpose.
 Then the city authorities offered to cart the dirt away on Friday noon of each week if the people doing business along Main street would have the dirt swept up, but this plan proved a failure.

Ladies Attention.

At Mrs. Sladen's Millinery Parlors.
 As the season is advanced I will make great reductions in all high priced goods.
 I have a fine assortment of millinery on hand, including flowers, fancy ribbon, high and low crown leg'horn and sailors, which for the quality can't be found cheaper. A large assortment of trimmed hats to choose from. Lace hats, latest styles, from $2.50 to $5. $7 hats reduced to $5. Will be sure to give satisfaction if you will give us a trial. Main street, next door to Methodist church.

Secular Lecture.

A free lecture will be given at Pope's hall on Saturday and Sunday evenings June 15 and 16. The popular dramatic orator and able exponent of secularism, C. B. Reynolds, secretary of the Oregon State Secular Union will speak. His subject for Saturday evening will be "What is Right? A Search for the True Religion" For Sunday evening his subject will be "What Secularism Offers in the Place of Religion." Admission free.

Lodge Notes.

A number of Oregon City citizens have been attending the grand lodges of the Masonic organizations of Oregon, in session at Portland this week. The grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons held its 30th annual session Monday.

The delegates from Oregon City were Dr. Carl H. P.; D. W. Kinnaird, klog, and A. W. France; also in attendance, H. S. Strange, grand captain of the host, and J. H. Walker, grand master of the 1st veil. Those attending the O. E. S. were Miss Mollie Holmes, worthy matron; T. F. Ryan, worthy patron; Mrs.
 G. M. Strange, grand Esther; visitors, Captain J. T. Apperson and Mrs. P. Paquet and Mrs. G. L. Gray. H. S.
 Strange was elected treasurer of the Order of Eastern Star. Judge T. A. McBride was elected grand marshal of the grand lodge of Masons. G. L. Gray represented Multnomah lodge of this city at the grand lodge.

Multnomah Lodge, A. F. and A. M.
 A stated communication will be held on Saturday evening, June 15th, and also on Monday evening, June 24th, (St. John's Day), at 7:30 o'clock sharp.
 At the latter meeting our Reverend Brother, Dr. Block, of Portland, will deliver an address. All members are requested and visiting brethren cordially invited to be present and listen to the address of our eloquent brother. G. L.
 GRAY, W. M.

As a result of Head Consul Falkenburg's visit to this city the Woodmen are having a boom in membership. At a special meeting last Thursday evening thirty-one applications were accepted and at the regular meeting Tuesday evening seven more names were added to the list. This gives the lodge a membership of over one hundred. The lodge will be out in full with their axes and other paraphernalia in the parade next Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Sarah J. Butts, wife of William M. Butts of this city, died Sunday, June 9th. She was aged 35 years, one month and three days. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church Monday, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. M. L.
 Rugg, officiating. The burial services were conducted under the auspices of the Workmen. Mrs. Butts had been very ill for several weeks.

Mrs. T. E. Gault and children accompanied by Mrs. Grant Olds, left last Sunday for the Gault farm near Albany.
 Mrs. Olds will make but a short visit, while Mrs. Gault will remain until after harvest. Mr. Gault, who is engineer in Broughton's sawmill, will remain in the city.
