OUR CARPETS ARE OUT OF SIGHT

OUT OF SIGHT

and above competition strikes the keynote of our new stock of carpets, rugs, matings and oil cloths. That's the idea; above competition describes our position in the whole carpet trade, and we're never afraid such designs can be found in the whole country round as we have in our stock. Patterns like ours are a go, and for that reason they're going everywhere in Clackamas County. The newest, brightest, and the most attractive designs are always ours. That was our reason for selecting them. It's also a good reason for your selecting whatever you need from our comprehensive exhibit.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL TRAINING.

J. R. Wetherbee, Director: The courses offered are open to both ladies and gentlemen, and are designed to meet the wants of public and private school teachers, and all persons seeking their personal improvement either by exercise or in learning how to look after their physical welfare.

The course will consist of theory and practice with special attention to drills suitable for public school work without other apparatus than ordinary school furniture. There will be daily lectures and classes in practical work.

The theoretical work of the course comprises lectures and practical talks on the following subjects: Anatomy—general structure (bones, muscles, viscera.)

Applied Anatomy.—Lectures and demonstrations on the actions of the muscles and best method of developing them.

Physiology.—Lectures on blood, circulation, respiration, digestion, nutrition and excretion.

Personal Hygiene.—Lectures on diet, sleep, exercise, bathing, clothing, and various agents of health.

Physical Training.—Lectures on the history of physical education and adaptation of the different methods to public school and college work.

Growth of Children.—Variations and peculiarities in the growth and development of children of different ages, and the bearing of these changes upon their mental and moral life.

Physical Basis of Mental Life.—Relation of the body and mind in health and disease; dependence of the nervous system upon soundness of structure; building the brain by improving the body.

School Seating and Ventilation.—The effect of improper ventilation and seating. Causes of spinal curvature. Responsibility of parents and teachers.

Gymnastics.—Drills suitable for public and private school work with and without apparatus; home exercise without apparatus.

Athletics.—Out-of-door exercises, bicycling, etc.

The daily practical work of the course consists of the following exercises:

Free Movement.—Introductory exercises without apparatus for stretching the muscles, suppling the joints and setting up the figure. (Swedish.)

Calisthenics.—Light and single rhythmic movement of body and limb for the cultivation of grace and elegance in form and bearing; figure marching and fancy steps.

Light Gymnastics.—Exercises with wooden dumb bells, wans and clubs; progressive exercises for strengthening the muscles of the arms, chest, back and shoulders.

Swedish Gymnastics.—Liny System.—Special attention will be given to drills for school work.

Athletics.—Instruction will be given in field sports and track athletics to all who wish it.

The Chautauqua Idea.

Less than twenty years ago the first Chautauqua Assembly grew out of a camp-meeting on the beautiful banks of Lake Chautauqua, New York. It seemed a classic revival of the old Academic when Plato and Aristotle walked and talked in the groves of Athens. From state to state the example flew until hardly a section of our country remains that has not its seaside assembly or resort in the park or the mountain where scholars go for recreation, where the business man seeks a renewal of college days and housewives live again their girlhood.

Chautauqua is a great university whose students are scattered in homes, on farms, in shops and factories, in towns and mining camps, in cars and ships, wherever a human soul carries the love of learning. Then once a year they flock to the great assembly to study under competent professors, to round up the year's work, to receive diplomas, to form new classes, and to go back to life's duties refreshed and inspired. It is the ideal people's college. The Greeks competed for rank in art, in song, in oratory, in athletics, so do the Chautauquans and added to all this is an almost ideal standard of Christian teaching. As Christ taught by the seaside and on the Mount so do his modern disciples teach and study the scripture lessons. The Hall in the Grove has become a temple of philosophy. Wise instructors discuss economics and social science, the botanist dissects the flowers, the chemist compounds his gases, the class in drawing follows the stroke of a master pencil, the chorus pulses and throbs at the baton-stroke of the great musician. Such an assembly is a boon to any community.

POPULAR LECTURES.

Some Ancient Endeavors, Dr. W. C. Kantaer.

All Around Manhood, Hon. Erie Edward Roeling, Tacoma.

The Formation of the Constitution, Prof. W. C. Hawley.

PRESS COMMENTS ON OUR TALENT.

Of Professor Ivey it is difficult to say whether he is more an artist in words or with the brush.—California Chautauquan.

Miss Brown's spirited and graceful presentation of the "Boat Race," by O. W. Holmes, won her a most enthusiastic recall.—Boston Herald.

Miss Brown's impersonation of "Juliet" recalled pleasant memories of Julia Marlowe, and was appreciated by all lovers of Shakespeare.—Denver Republican.

Gunsaulus' firebrands kindle the dullest to heroic purpose and loyal life.—Assembly Herald, New York Chautauquan.

Plymouth church holds 3000. Every pew was filled. For one hour and thirty minutes the young doctor held every soul to his speaking. It was such an address as nets $1000 to $1500 when ministerial talent applies itself to money making for church or general purposes.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The lecturer who has stirred the Assembly beyond comparison to any other is Rev. F. W. Gunsaulus, of Chicago.—Chautauquan Beacon.

Miss Anna Morris is the author of the best book ever written on physical culture.—Iowa State Register.

Dr. Wallace possesses in a marked degree the graces of the finished orator.—Niles (Mich.) Sun.

In style of oratory and platform presence Dr. Geo. R. Wallace might easily be mistaken for Henry Clay or John G. Ingalls.—Spokane Review.

Dr. Wallace never allows the attention to flag for a moment. His sallies of wit not only amuse his hearers, but never fail to hit the particular mark at which they are aimed.—Chicago Call.
