

CLACKAMAS COUNTY

THE ENTERPRISE CORRESPONDENTS SWEEP THE FIELD.

A Boy's Terrible Accident and Heroic Conduct—Pipe Foundry Starts Up—Band of Mercy Organized.

Oswego, June 20.—Last Sunday afternoon George Neuman, the fourteen-year old son of Mr. Neuman who lives about one mile north-west of Oswego on Elk Rock hill, met with a very serious accident.

The wife of Alex. Rankin has been quite sick, but is improving slowly under the skillful care of Dr. Saylor.

Henry Yates, of South Oswego, wears a broad smile now, caused by the advent of a little daughter last Sunday morning.

Mr. Livermore delivered an illustrated lecture yesterday evening at the M. E. church, entitled "Our Native Land." The audience was very small.

Mrs. Capt. Tavor, of Portland, was visiting friends in Oswego last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bullock and daughter Amanda are visiting friends and relatives on the Sandy.

John Larson has been busy the past week gathering and shipping cherries.

Mrs. Henry Gans and her little son are visiting in the city this week.

Your correspondent would like to give a word of advice to the boys who sometimes come to Oswego to play base ball.

Miss Katie Thompson is home from school for the summer.

J. K. Miller is out with his engine sawing wood.

Haying is in full blast.

NEEDY NOTES.

Milk for the Creamery—Literary Society Elects Officers—Road Work.

NEEDY, June 25.—The hail storm of the 14th that visited this part of the country did considerable damage, mostly to gardens and hop patches, but the fine weather is bringing everything out again.

The Barlow creamery is doing a good business now, the farmstead of this precinct furnishing about twelve hundred pounds of milk per day.

Wm. Thompson has not yet sold his hops of last season. He has had some hop men to see him, but they only offer him three cents, and he says that would not pay for the picking.

The Monitor Mills base ball club came down to play the Cyclones Sunday. They went home rather blue, as they only played five innings, and the tallies stood 33 to 38 in favor of the Cyclones.

The people of Needy will celebrate the Fourth in several places this year—Woodburn, Hubbard, Wright's Springs and Barlow. Barlow, I think, will get the largest delegation.

George Askins, formerly of the pulp mills of Oregon City, has moved to his farm and is building him a new house which he will soon occupy. They are camping now. We are glad to have them with us again.

Several of our people went Sunday to Aurora and the old Bradie place after cherries.

The Sunday school at Rock Creek is progressing finely with Mrs. Rook as superintendent.

Next Sunday will be rather a dull day with us as several of the young men are going to the mountains for a week's fishing.

There was a pleasant little dance at Ed. Miller's hop house Saturday night.

The Young People's Entertaining Society elected their new officers Monday night, with Asa Thompson, president; Inez Hill, vice president; Myrtle Thompson, secretary; Katie Wolfer, assistant secretary, and Katie Thompson treasurer.

J. Kaufman, wife and sisters, from the East, are off to the Coast for a two week's stay.

The road work of this district is nearly finished with new bridges, culverts and lots of piles of dirt.

County Clerk Horton and family spent Sunday visiting old friends at Needy.

Miss Katie Thompson is home from school for the summer.

J. K. Miller is out with his engine sawing wood.

Haying is in full blast.

STAFFORD NOTES.

Monster Cherry Tree—School Closes—To Celebrate the Fourth.

STAFFORD, June 24.—Rev. Gronde spent Sunday in Highland.

Geo. Sann's, Esq., is having several thousand brick hauled from Charles Thompson's yard with which to build a foundation for his house which he intends to build this season.

"Fourth of July is near at hand. It is to be celebrated here by having a picnic in F. Elligson's grove and a dance in Larson's commodious hall in the evening.

While on the way to town with some chickens last week Mr. Houlsworth's coop broke open, then such a cackling, squawking and screaming ensued that a goodly portion of Oswego was aroused, and rushed to the rescue.

Col. Phillip Baker's son Marcus bought a lost sheep of a drover last week and sheared it, the fleece bringing enough at present prices to nearly repay him the purchase money.

J. P. Gage has the largest cherry tree in this neighborhood. The top measures over 50 feet in diameter, the cherries on it are not measured by the box but by the bushel.

W. G. Beattie's school here will close on Wednesday of this week, he having then completed a term of three months.

Carl Walters and wife of Glencoe, were the guests of Mrs. Walters' parents, the Weisenborns, over Sunday.

Mr. Howard, of Oregon City, was the guest of our genial neighbors, the Gage's, over Sunday.

Farmers are noting the raise in the price of flour and hoping wheat may make a corresponding raise in the near future.

The dance in Larson's hall Saturday night was one of the notable events of the season; a good crowd was in attendance and such a time was had as we often hear the older ones tell about.

Maggie Melcher, who has been in Portland some months, was seen perambulating our highways the other day.

Fred Oldenstadt is around once more but looking rather thin after his long illness.

John DeNeni, John Johnson and John Wilkins are hauling fresh hay to the milk ranches on Palatine Hill, for which they receive $7.50 per wagon.

Mink News.

MINK, June 23.—Everybody is making good use of the fine weather by cutting their hay.

A. C. Strange and Miss Ada Gard have been hired to teach our fall term of school. We wish them success.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ginter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ginter Sunday.

mistake made, as Telephone does not happen to be a Miss; but as the tornado was going so fast, and was making such a noise, and is liable to make mistakes, we will have to overlook them.

Mrs. C. Studeman and Miss Hettie Ginter were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Moehnke.

Miss Eva Moehnke, of Oregon City, came home on a visit last Saturday.

Law suits are getting quite frequent now. Mr. Krohn and Mr. Hanson are having one on account of $300 that Mr. Krohn claims of Mr. Hanson.

Miss Hettie Ginter had the honor of receiving a diploma one day last week for best writing in school. Henry Hettman and Fred Moehnke received diplomas for improvement.

Hurrah for Mr. Scantling! It's another wife. TELEPHONE.

Damascus News.

DAMASCUS, June 25.—Miss Birdie Coe, of Hare, Oregon, is visiting relatives and friends at this place.

Miss Tessie Blanchard has returned home from Portland, where she has been attending high school.

Miss Fannie Bohna is at home, having successfully passed the examinations and graduated from the Woodstock grammar school. A number of Damascus people attended the graduating exercises.

Miss Myrtle Briethaupt has returned home from Monmouth, where she graduated with the highest honors from the State Normal school.

Ed. Elliott is laid up with a badly crippled leg. The trouble seems to be in the bone and may prove to be something serious.

Miss Lulu Elliott, of Powells Valley, is the guest this week of Mrs. J. C. Elliott.

Elders Balles and Rich held a series of meetings last week at the M. E. chapel. There was a large attendance on Sunday, a number coming from Logan, Sandy Ridge and other places.

The Damascus base ball club played the Clackamas boys Sunday, the game resulting in favor of Clackamas.

J. H. Boring's have guests from Portland. Mr. and Mrs. McElsander attended the funeral of Mr. Sliker of Eagle Creek at Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Forbes and daughter, of Tremont, are visiting a son and daughter here.

Crescent News.

CRESCENT, June 24.—If industrious people and lively traffic are signs of rallying times, our circumstances financially will surely improve.

Wood and lumber wagons on our roads are now a familiar sight at all hours.

The busy hum of Mr. Jones's saw mill reaches our ears now quite frequently.

Two brick yards in our vicinity will each open a kiln this week, one an old yard with a well established reputation, the other a new one. We truly hope they will be successful.

Mr. Barreth of this place is building a barn 36 by 60 feet.

Charles Livesay has harvested his crop of sweet potatoes this week. They were planted last fall as an experiment.

Mr. Yock's folks are busy taking care of their berry crop.

Our new road, commencing at Mr. Wise's place and connecting with the Abernethy road at Mr. Stock's, is now open for travel.

There is a number of new comers in this neighborhood. Clearing and general improvement are in order with good results.

Mr. Hiddelson's have resided with us almost a year. Mrs. Hiddelson's health being bad when they came. She has improved but little if any we are sorry to say.

Our school closed last Friday. D. F. May taught the term very successfully.

Beaver Creek Notes.

BEAVER CREEK, June 18.—A number of persons from this vicinity went to Oregon City on the 17th to greet the old veterans, and every one came home well pleased.

R. F. Davis is working for Wm. Davis at Creek, putting up an addition to his house.

Wm. Scanlon has erected an addition to his house. It is rumored that Mr. Scanlon will soon take to himself a better half for occupation of the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davies, of Maple Lane, were seen in our midst on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Graham, of New Era, paid a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John Moehnke on Sunday.

Teddie Hughes, one of our best young men, left Monday for Chinook Beach, where he expects to stay over summer.

Children's Day was observed on Monday, June 17, at the Presbyterian church, which was filled to its utmost capacity.

SMYRNA, June 24.—Haymaking is the order of the day.

Joe Schwartz and L. D. Yoder, accompanied by their wives and Mr. Schwartz's daughter Mabel, were visiting friends near Springbrook, Yamhill county, last week.

CLOTHING... Cheaper Than Ever... Boys' and Children's Clothing... STRAW HATS... Carlton & Rosenkrans, Canby, Or.

HABIGHORST & COMPANY, First and Alden. HARDWARE | Portland, Oregon. Northwestern Agents for ATKINS SAWS... Crescent Wedges (warranted.) B & S Proof Chains. Arcade Files. Rope. Crescent Steel Loggers and Wood Choppers Specialties. Oregon City Agent, WILSON & COOK

From Feherville. FEHLEVILLE, June 17.—The cloudy weather of late has damaged some hay, as some of the farmers had commenced haying.

Letter List. The following is the list of letters remaining in the post office at Oregon City, Oregon, 1:30 P. M., June 26, 1895.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says, "Shiloh's Vitalizer 'SAVED MY Life.' I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used."

There is great danger in neglecting colic, cholera and similar complaints. An absolute prompt and safe cure is found in De Witt's Colic and Cholera cure.

Backien's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions.

Farmers Attention. Fisher's flour mill at Logan has been refitted and is now prepared to turn out a grade of flour superior to any even heretofore manufactured by this firm.

An Absolute Cure. The Original Abietine Ointment is only put up in large two-ounce boxes, and is an absolute cure for old sores, burns, wounds, chapped hands and all skin eruptions.

CHICKEN RAISING PAYS... The "ERIE" mechanically the best wheel, prettiest model. We are Pacific Coast Agents. Bicycle catalogue, mailed free, gives full description, prices, etc.

Attention, Water Consumers. The rules and regulations regarding the use of water have been amended in the following particulars: Rate for sprinkling in addition to household or store use shall be $1 for the season.

Notice to Painters. Notice is hereby given that the board of directors of school district No. 62, of Clackamas county will receive sealed bids at the office of Thos. F. Ryan on Main street, Oregon City up to the hour of 2 p. m. on Friday the 5th day of July, 1895.

It Did the Business. Mr. J. H. Cobb, publisher of the Mirror, at Brocton, N. Y., says: "For nearly two years the Mirror was not publishing the advertisements of Chamberlain's Remedies. A few days ago the writer was suffering from a bowel trouble and resorted to an old remedy which did not prove efficacious; finally he tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy and two doses did the business, checking it completely. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

Ladies who experience a sense of weakness, and sometimes lameness of the back, should use Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, it will supply the much needed strength and overcome all weakening irregularities. For sale by C. G. Huntley.