

Oregon City Enterprise.

FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1895.

OREGON CITY OFFICERS.

Mayor	Hiram Straight
Recorder	T. W. Oats
Chief of Police	Chas. E. Burns
Assessor	E. S. Callif
Treasurer	R. L. Helman
City Attorney	E. F. Driggs
Street Commissioner	C. Babcock, Jr.
Sup't of Water Works	W. H. Howell
City Engineer	E. Kimball
Commissioner—H. C. Stevens	Geo. Broughton
J. I. Cooke, Ben. Jagger, Mack Howell, L. Porter, Henry Meldrum, J. W. Moffatt.

Special meetings first Wednesday of each month in City hall.

SPRAY OF THE FALLS.

Summer Drinks.

Hire's Root Beer,
Wright's Root Beer,
California Lemon Syrup,
Rose's Lime Fruit Juice,
Ely's Wild Cherry Phosphate,
All sold by E. E. Williams, the grocer.

Tin fruit jar fillers at the Racket store.

Wanted, 100 shoates. Address Cliff Farm, Canby, Ore. Imo.

Portland prices in fire works and flags at the Novelty candy store.

Fresh vegetables from Maplewood farm delivered to all parts of the city.

A splendid selection of men's, ladies' and children's tan shoes at Charman & Son's.

W. H. Imas, editor of Rainier's live newspaper, The Review, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

That 10 acre tract on West Side can be now for $500. Owner wants money. C. O. T. Williams.

J. M. Finley and family left for Little Nestuck, on the Tillamook coast, Wednesday, where they will spend the summer.

Golden West baking powder is absolutely pure. Every can is guaranteed to give satisfaction. E. E. Williams, the grocer.

Mrs. and Mrs. G. Lankins of Bolton have a fine girl at their home whose arrival dates since Wednesday of last week.

After teething is finished, Steedman's Soothing Powders will be found useful to correct the minor disorders of children, up to ten years.

Five room cottage convenient to car line and Main street $8 per month Good yard. Inquire of A. W. Schwan, at Schwan & Putrow's hardware store.

Don't fail seeing the famous vegetable hayseed social, at Shively's hall. All the vegetables will be there. The beat along with the dead (beat) can be seen.

Fred and Norwood Charman, sons of F. R. Charman, are spending the week in Portland at the home of his aunt, Mrs. M. E. West.

For a quiet place to hitch your horses away from the motor line and a place to get a first class job of repairing or horse shoeing call on S. F. Scripture's shop on Fifth street.

A bottle of Wright's Root Beer extract makes five gallons for ten cents. A cheap and health-giving drink. E. E. Williams, the grocer.

New line of belt pins just arrived at the Racket store.

Now is your chance to get shoes cheap. The Eastern Shoe Store is closing out. The front door will be locked before long South Electric Hotel, Oregon City.

"The Fair," will open Monday July 1, in the Stevens building on Main street, two doors south of the bridge. Call and see the bargain counters at "The Fair." 5-10-25 & 50 cent counters.

Meat from cheap second grade beef cannot be otherwise than tough and tasteless. Albright buys only the best of stock—three and five-year-old stalled steers furnish his steaks and roasts—juicy and tender enough for a king.

That 20 acre tract, level road, 2 1/2 miles out, plenty of running water, only $650. C. O. T. Williams.

A few of those $100 to $150 lots left, only a few blocks from the opera house. Easy terms. Apply to C. O. T. Williams.

Small boys and their big brothers will find all the material necessary for the proper celebration of the Fourth at Mrs. R. Prior's. Cheapest place in town to get all kinds of fireworks. Candies and nuts for the girls.

Samuel E. Midiam, of Union, Ohio, arrived in Oregon City Tuesday to make an extended visit with his brother, E. W. Midiam. The brothers had not met before for twenty years. Mr. S. E. Midiam may possibly make this state his home.

The annual camp meeting of Oregon Spiritualists will be held at New Era, beginning on July 31 and continuing until July 21st. They will celebrate the Fourth of July in appropriate style, with a grand spread and able speakers will be present.

A pleasant boating party took a ride on the Willamette last Thursday evening and viewed the falls and other scenery by electric and moonlight. The members of the party were Misses Sade Chase, Kate Ward, Faye Swick, of Dayton, Mina and Amy Kelly; Messrs. Laurence Driggs, Clare Campbell, Charles Wilson, Will Lowthwaite and E. B. Singleton of Salem.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

A Successful Session Just Closed in Oregon City.

The forty-seventh annual session of the Willamette Baptist Association convened in the Oregon City church Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. The meeting was opened with devotional service by Evangelist J. C. Appel. D. C. Latourette delivered the address of welcome, and the response was made by Rev. Mark Noble of Newberg, and the annual sermon was delivered by Rev. J. O. Burroughs of Calvary church, Portland, who delivered a most effective sermon on "Christ's Judean Ministry."

The organization of the convention was perfected by the election of Rev. L. J. Trumbull of Astoria, moderator, and R. O. Jones of Amity, secretary and treasurer, for the ensuing year. Two new churches applied for admission to the association, the church at Noble, Marion county, and the Park Place church in Portland. They were received into membership, and the representatives welcomed by Rev. Gilman Parker.

The first evening was devoted to the program of the Young People's Baptist Union, and there was a good attendance and an interesting meeting. The greatest feature of the evening, was the address of President H. S. Gale, of the State Union Christian Endeavor Society. Among other things he commented on the meeting of Baptist young people at Toronto last year.

WEDNESDAY.

In the morning Rev. Parker gave a report on the state of religion, which showed an encouraging condition of affairs, in the different localities. Rev. J. H. Hargreaves reported on the Sunday-school work for the past year, and Rev. J. O. Burroughs gave an address on the relation of the Sunday school to the religious state of the church. The relation of foreign missions to the religious state of the churches was presented by Rev. M. N. Lewis of Portland, and Rev. Noble of Newberg, and the discussion of the subject was participated in by President Brownson, of McMinnville; Rev. Fred Ager, of Wheatland, Cal., and Rev. M. L. Rugg, of Oregon City.

The enrollment committee reported 117 delegates present, as follows: Amity—Mr and Mrs M O Jones, Misses Mary Wesslen, Eva Jack, Phena Gianden.

Bethel—Rev H T Cummins, Mrs Charles Cleveland.

Mr and Mrs E A Snyder, Misses Jennie Boise and Carrie Deford.

French Prairie—Rev J H Hargreaves, W H Ringo. Mrs J Jones, Miss Adele Schumard.

Grace (Montavilla, Or.)—Rev. U S Hollerott, Mesdames C H Welch, J Smith, O Burroughs, G Birkett, H Hopper.

Immanuel, Portland—Rev H A Barden, Misses A Kent and C C Castro.

Holton—Mr and Mrs Charles Tarbell.

Mount Tabor—Rev A W Snyder, Mr and Mrs J W Mills J P Baker and Mrs D Lewis.

Newberg—Rev Mark Noble, J Larkin, Howard Williams.

Noble—Mrs S C Matlock, Miss Agnes Matlock, A C Coe, A T Kenworthy.

Oregon City—Rev and Mrs. M L Rugg, Rev. and Mrs Gilman Parker, W Cary and Mrs Johnson, A S and Mrs Dresser, D C and Mrs Latourette, F E and Mrs Donaldson, Mesdames J K Groom, M L Driggs, F E Lawrence.

First Church, Portland—Rev J E Appel, Mr and Mrs J H Teale, William Hahn, Mesdames Ira Russ, Amelia Merrill, E J Mead, J White, E K Howe, C A Woody, Misses Virginia Watson, Sarah J Henderson, and J H Failing.

Second Church, Portland—Rev M N Lewis and wife, W B Hall and wife, T J Kern; Mesdames A T Webb, Arvilla Beckwith, A McGuire, L Aylesworth, B F McCawley, R White, J C Werschul, J S Montgomery, G L Mc Lynn, A Kadderly, H Shogren, H Mc Cormick, N Davis; Misses Clara L Webb, Lena Jardoil, Ada H Hall, Beatta Robinson, Mattie and Mary Webb.

Third Church, Portland—Rev W S Gee and wife, G E Jamieson and wife, Mrs W G Stiles.

Park Place, Portland—J S Rontree, W S Finch, C A Nutley, Mrs J T Hoye.

Salem—Rev J P Farmer, W H Farmer, H T Bruce, W W Brooks, W S Gile, Mesdames Dr Jessup and G C Litchfield.

Schwood, Portland—S J Brown, Mesdames M Burnside, Dr Ingalls, Steven Richards.

Among the many visitors who attended the convention, were C Yoder, Carlton, Rev E B Pace, Rev T G Brownson, McMinnville; Rev R Mc Killip, Centralia, Wash; Rev F Agar, Wheatland, Cal.

During the day the following officers of the Baptist Young People's Union were elected as follows: A. S. Dresser, of Oregon City, president; J W Thomas, of Salem, vice-president; Miss Clara L Webb, of Portland, secretary and treasurer; C A Lewis.

Among the interesting things presented at the Women's Missionary convention held Wednesday, was the report of the work of Miss Skinner, the first graduate of McMinnville college, who is now doing missionary work in China, supported by the Baptist women of Oregon.

In the evening C A Nutley, read a report on religious literature, and a sermon was delivered by Rev. Farmer of Salem.

At the Thursday morning session it was decided to apply the interest on the Falling fund for the benefit of the Astoria church.

(Continued next week.)

In the account of the commencement exercises at McMinnville The Yambill Reporter has the following: Hon. W. Carey Johnson spoke for the board of trustees, stating that at their annual meeting, matters were found in hopeful condition. Provision was made for giving the college a place in oratorical contests and providing medals for same, and the subject of physical culture and construction of a gymnasium were considered. The degree of A. M. was conferred upon Hon. J. H. Smith, Prof. Sanders, John T. Clark and Miss Ida Skinner, all graduates of more than three year's standing.

The Park Place band has been engaged to play in the great parade to be held in Portland on the Fourth. The boys have been doing some vigorous practicing of late and will be able to make a very creditable showing as compared with the other bands that will be in line. The band now numbers fourteen pieces, and with their new uniforms present quite a nobby appearance. There will be ten other bands participating in the parade, and it promises to be the greatest procession ever held in Portland.

Miss Mary Berger arrived in Oregon City Monday from Eugene, and is now in Portland where she is undergoing a hearing in the U. S. court, on a charge of sending unlawful letters through the United States mails. About forty witnesses are in attendance from Eugene, and the trial is causing wide spread attention. The court room is crowded every day to hear the proceedings. State Senator George C. Brownell and Mr. Bilyeu of Eugene, are conducting Miss Berger's defense.

The marriage of Leslie H. Cowing of this city to Miss Fannie J. Grey of Portland, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Thursday of this week. The bride is one of Portland's brightest young ladies, and the groom is a member of the law firm of Cowing & Cowing of this city, his father Capt. T. F. Cowing being the senior member. The many friends of the young couple wish them a long and happy life.

Miss Winnie Graham, of Oregon City, and Miss M S. Barlow, of Barlow, have been re-elected to positions in the Portland schools. The names of Miss Kate Porter, of this city, and Prof. Powell, formerly principal of the Oregon City schools, who were teachers there last year, do not appear on the published elective list.

J. M. Hardman, road foreman of the Springwater road district, was in Oregon City Monday, and is now inspecting the bridges in the western part of the county under the direction of the county court. Mr. Hardman was for several years foreman for Hoffman & Bates, the well known bridge builders, and knows a bridge when he sees it.

In accordance with the request of the National Good Citizenship League, next Sunday, the last before Independence Day, will be observed at the Congregational church as "Patriotic Day." The topic in the morning will be, "The Christian State." In the evening, National Problems, and their solution.

Rev. Harmon Bros, state superintendent of home missions for the Congregationalists in Nebraska, is visiting the coast, and Thursday afternoon came out from Portland to see Oregon City and its great manufacturing plants.

Although not required by the rulings of the post office department to receive letters for the south bound overland mail later than six o'clock, Postmaster Green has kindly volunteered to keep the post-office open for the reception of letters and other mail, until seven P. M.

Rev. I. D. Driver had a narrow escape from death Sunday night on, his farm near Eugene, by being gored by a bull. The animal got Mr. Driver against a barb wire fence, goring him frightfully and lacerating his flesh on the bars, but he is not considered dangerously injured.

A band of four hundred head of fine looking cattle passed through Oregon City Wednesday. They were the property of J. B. Hawley of Cottage Grove, and are on their way to Idaho.

The commencement exercises of St. John's school will be held next Monday evening, which will consist of music, songs, recitations, etc., and will end with a grand operetta.

There will be special services in the Baptist church next Sunday evening in the interest of good citizenship. The pastor will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

E. C. Blackford, editor of the Clatskanie Chief, was in Oregon City last Saturday.

Buy your fire works at the Novelty candy store.

Gentlemen's celluloid collars, Racket store.

PERSONAL NOTES.

G. H. Bestow spent Sunday at Canby. Miss Fay Swick of Dayton, spent Friday with her aunt, Mrs. L. C. Driggs.

Elias Mosier, one of Redland's well-known farmers, was in Oregon City Monday.

James Church returned from the Columbia Saturday, where he has been engaged in fishing.

E. B. Singleton of Salem, spent Friday and Saturday in Oregon City the guest of Lawrence Driggs.

M. J. McDonough left Wednesday for an extended trip to the Sound and for a visit with his brother at Seattle.

E. E. Wilson, a Corvallis justice of the peace and lawyer, was in Oregon City Sunday, the guest of Miss Emma Lawrence.

Mrs. E. C. Maddock has been very ill from a severe attack of swelling of the tongue and throat, but her condition is much improved.

Mrs. W. A. White, of this city, attended and took part in the proceedings of the Women's State Missionary convention, at Portland, Wednesday.

Mrs. S. Mills and daughter, Miss Mina, of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. E. Mosier of Texas, were guests at the home of H. L. Kelly last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Dr. J. W. Cowan acted as presiding officer at the Wednesday afternoon session of the State Congregational Women's Missionary convention, held at Portland.

Miss Ednetta Chase has been re-elected as teacher of the Mount Pleasant school. She closed a very successful term of school at that place on Friday of last week.

Miss Edna Rugg, one of the students at the Willamette University at Salem, arrived in the city Friday, and is spending the vacation with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Rugg.

Capt. J. T. Apperson left for Corvallis Monday, where he will attend the commencement exercises of the State Agricultural college, and a meeting of the board of regents, of which he is president.

Mrs. Mary Jewell of San Francisco, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Eudy. She will be joined in a short time by her husband, who is a freight clerk for the Southern Pacific, at San Francisco.

Sidney Smyth leaves this week on a trip through Eastern Washington to look after some contracts his company are interested, one of which is an iron bridge, of 300 foot span to be built across the Wenatchee river. He will be gone several days.

George A. McKinlay, a former resident of Oregon City, and who is now trainer for the Portland Amateur Athletic Association, was in Oregon City Sunday. He states that a number of athletes in this city have made application for membership.

Ed. Fields, the jolly little railroad man who has been at Oregon City for some years, is at the Salem depot to take Earl Hoopengartner's place for a few days while Earl is attending to very important personal matters at Corvallis.—Salem Statesman.

Max Kesselring, a weaver in the woolen mills, left on Monday for Ventura county, California, where he will try his hand at fruit raising. Mr. Kesselring was a member of Co. F, and the boys regret his departure, as he was well liked by his comrades.

Judge John Meldrum, and Judge W. S. Moore, of Klamath Falls, president of the Mt Hood & Barlow Wagon Road company, left Tuesday morning for a trip of inspection over the line of the road. They intended to spend a week on the trip.

Mrs. E. C. Bray, of Corvallis, is in the city attending the Baptist convention. Her son-in-law, E. W. Hadley, formerly receiver of the Oregon Pacific railroad, has moved away from that place and she and Mr. Bray contemplate purchasing property and locating here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Pillsbury will leave on Thursday of next week for Salt Lake City, where they will spend the summer, at the close of which they will go to Denver for the winter. Mrs. Pillsbury's health is poor and she finds the climate of the West a great benefit to her. They have greatly enjoyed their stay in Oregon City while visiting with the family of J. G. Pillsbury, a brother of Mr. E. F. Pillsbury.

Highest Quality is our aim...

No matter what you buy at our store it is the very best of its kind. Everything is new and fresh. We would ask you to call and see our stock. We have the best brands of all goods, and can in some lines show you something very fine.

We make a specialty of fine Tea, Coffee and Spices

Staub's Cash Grocery.

Commercial Bank Block.

"BREAKING IN."

Many a man has "Broken Out" in a passion, and felt all "Broken Up" Trying to get a new pair of shoes

He has had to "Break Off" Many an engagement on account of crippled feet, and has gone "Broke" Many a time trying to get relief for his corns—the direct cause of ill fitting shoes.

You will find this all obviated by purchasing your footwear at the store of

SHOES

Krausse Bros., Oregon City.

FOURTH OF JULY

3 DAYS CELEBRATION 3

IN PORTLAND.

Grand Illuminated Bicycle Parade on the Evening of the Third.

July 4, at 10:30 A. M. July 4

Grand parade of Military and Civic societies, The Plug Uglies, appropriate and Unique Hoots.

Speed Associations, Races of the Parade, (They begin June 20 and continue till July 6.)

Grand Pyrotechnic Display in the Evening of the Fourth.

During the day baseball, horse racing, bicycle racing and sports of all kinds which continue on the 5th.

TIME WANTS FOR NO MAN,

and those who watch and wait for time will only discover its flight. You can discover an elegant collection of time-pieces in our stock of ladies' and gentlemen's gold and silver watches, which in all cases are models of accuracy, keeping time so well that they don't lose it. We can confidently recommend our watches and clocks, too, as entirely trustworthy, and meeting the needs of the hour to a second. Our assortment of fashionable jewelry and silverware is very complete

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN.

C. P. LOONEY,

... Dealer in ...

CHOICE HAY, STRAW AND FEED,

General Expressing, Job work and Moving.

Corner of Bridge, Oregon City, Or.

SCHWAN & PUTROW.

HANDLE

HOSE ...

... PUMPS

Cotton and Rubber Hose of best grades

A great variety of Force Pumps Ordinary Well Pumps Spray Pumps.

Prices will suit you call and examine. No trouble to show goods.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Most Perfect Made. 40 Years the Standard.