OUT OF SIGHT
and above competition strikes the keynote of our new stock of carpets, rugs, matting and oil cloths. That's the idea; above competition describes our position in the whole carpet trade, and we're never afraid such designs can be found in the whole country round as we have in our stock. Patterns like ours are a go, and for that reason they're going everywhere in Clackamas County. The newest, brightest, and the most attractive designs are always ours. That was our reason for selecting them. It's also a good reason for your selecting whatever you need from our comprehensive exhibit.

SUCCESS ASSURED.

Chautauquans Preparing for Their Great Assembly.

THE GROUNDS IN FINE SHAPE.

The Largest Auditorium in Oregon—Camping Privileges Rapidly Taken Ten Days of Pleasure and Profit.

No effort has been spared to secure the very best talent obtainable for the Chautauqua classes. The Superintendent of Instruction

PRESIDENT CHARLES H. CHAPMAN.
Is well known in Oregon. President Chapman has a brief but brilliant history. Eleven years ago he left his boyhood home in the backwoods of Wisconsin, graduated from the State Normal, went immediately to Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore, took his bachelor's and doctor's degrees, was made a fellow of the University during his second year, an instructor in his third year and associate professor in his fourth year, and the fifth year accepted the presidency of the University of Oregon. President Chapman will give personal attention to all the details of organization and arrangements of classes.

PROF. JOHN IVEY.
of San Francisco, has charge of the art department. Prof. Ivey of Liverpool, for the last seven years of San Francisco, has made the wonderful atmospheric conditions—the rolling mist, the swirling cloud, the ever changing aspects of the sky and the sea, and the marvelous effects of sunrise and sunset—his special study, his pictures of the sunny seas of California, the mist wreathed valleys in Oregon, and the pine-clad mountains of British Columbia being placed among the best representative work of the country, and have been selected for full-page reproductions in the standard illustrated work, "Picturesque California." Nearly all Mr. Ivey's pictures are in water color, although one large work, showing the surpassing glories of the Yosemite valley, is in oil, and has been exhibited in most of the important cities in America. Prof. Ivey gives a course for $2.50 that in his San Francisco studio costs $25.00. Prof. Ivey's works have been frequently engraved and some of his paintings have lately been on exhibition in London and Liverpool, England where the press has spoken highly of their merit. He is also the author of a fascinating "Guide to Landscape Painting and Sketching from Nature" that ought to be in the hands of every student of art. He will have a studio on the grounds. As a geologist,

PROF. THOMAS CONDON.
ranks second to none in the United States. To him belongs the honor of opening up the John Day beds that summoned to Oregon the savants of the world. He discovered the fossil horse, outlined the Willamette sound of a bygone time and has advanced theories that have marked epochs in geologic progress. Professor Condon will bring his bones, 100 to 150 pounds of fossil specimens to illustrate his class work and lectures.

PROF. FRANCIS E. LLOYD
of Pacific University stops off at the assembly with his camping outfit, on his way from Mt. Jefferson to Mt. Hood, where he is investigating the mountain flora. Prof. Lloyd is a young Englishman, twice fellow in biology at Princeton, his alma mater, and botanist on the celebrated Hensholtz expedition to Mexico in 1890-91. He has with him a case of microscopes to be used in analyzing the magnificent flora of Gladstone Park.

G. W. SHAW, A. M.,
Chemist of the Oregon Experiment Station and Professor of Chemistry at the State Agricultural College, delivers a course of lectures on chemical subjects. Prof. Shaw is a graduate of Dartmouth, and for the past eight years has been actively engaged in higher educational work in the Northwest. For the past three years he has also been the chemist to the State Food Commissioner, which has given him an especially good opportunity to become acquainted with the condition of foods in Oregon, which subject he will discuss in the class in chemistry. He has published several bulletins relating to his experimental work, one of which treating of Oregon soils has been quite extensively reprinted. In January, Professor Shaw was admitted to membership in the American Chemical Society which is the recognized organization of American Chemists in this and other countries. He is also a member of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists. As a lecturer on practical chemistry, he has filled a number of successful engagements.

PROF. J. E. WETHERBEE, came to Oregon as physical director of the Y. M. C. A. at Salem in 1892, where he did a great and lasting work. In the midst of rising popularity he was tendered the chair of Physical Culture at the State University, which position he still occupies. Prof. Wetherbee is a Harvard man and brings to his temporary gymnasium at Chautauqua, the latest usages of the great Hemenway gymnasium at Cambridge.

PRESIDENT W. C. HAWLEY, is an Oregon boy, born in the foothills and educated at Salem, where from the bashful student, he became the college president. His great lecture on the Nicaragua canal awoke such enthusiasm last year, that this year all look forward with interest to his development of current history in "England in Egypt," and "The Formation of the Constitution." Professor Hawley is also president of the State Sunday School Association, and has charge as the Chautauqua of the of the Sunday School Normal Work, that meets at 10 a. m. each day. Dr. Hulbut's Normal Outlines, revised, will be used, a compact little volume on sale at the bookstores on the grounds.

MISS SARA S. BROWN, of the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, has captivated both audience and pupils wherever she has read or taught. Willamette University, Salem, counts itself fortunate in having her as a member of its faculty. Miss Brown's class in elocution meets from 9 to 10 each day, and she is listed on the programs for several evening readings from Shakespeare and other dramatic authors. Miss Brown uses, in her classes, a delightful little volume from the Boston school, that can be purchased on the grounds and kept as a souvenir of her work in elocution.

MRS. E. W. ALLEN, of Portland, has charge of the Junior Chautauqua Normal Union. This is a course in Bible Study for children, a work for which Mrs. Allen has had such exceptional aptitude that by unanimous consent at the last State Sunday School convention, she was elected State Primary Superintendent for Oregon. Mrs. Allen proposes to take the little people through a course of study for which they will take an examination and receive a handsome little diploma on Recognition Day.

A. S. DRESSER, ESQ.,
Director of the State Convention of Music, has a unique history. The son of a musician, he spent his boyhood at the piano and in early teens had mastered the technique of most difficult music. But his father had laid out another path for him—he locked the piano and filled the keyhole with wax, that the boy might never more touch the ivory keys. Nevertheless, in the midst of professional studies, he rebelliously continued his musical education under the best instructors of New England. Mr. Dresser is now a rising young lawyer, but ever and anon he returns to his first love, the violin, the piano, and the directorship of a great musical convention, in which he has few equals this side of the Rocky mountains. He is assisted in the musical department by Mrs. F. F. White, organist, and Mrs. E. E. Williams, pianist. The piano, a magnificent Chickering Grand, was loaned for the use of the Chautauqua by Wiley B. Allen, of Portland.

Our Lights.
The arc lights that enable Gladstone at night to rival the day, are loaned for the use of the Assembly by the Portland General Electric Company, and are a magnificent testimonial of their generosity and of their sympathy with the higher educational interests of the Willamette valley and Oregon.

Look out for the weather flags of the U. S. signal service. Observer Pague has sent to Washington for a set of flags and will furnish daily weather forecasts, which will cover a period of from 48 to 72 hours to be displayed from day to day during the assembly at Gladstone Park.

The Corvallis Ladies Band consists of ten beautiful young ladies, who will camp eleven days at Chautauqua, chaperoned by Mrs. President Bloss of Corvallis. Their leader, Mr. Victor Moses accompanies them. They will give daily twilight concerts.

Round Table.
The Round Table meets daily at 5 o'clock at the old auditorium. Brief addresses will be given by prominent visitors. Literature will be distributed and information given concerning the Chautauqua course of study.

Our Candid Advice.

It is seldom that we appear in the roll of spiritual adviser or family physician but there are times when we feel justified in calling the attention of our many subscribers to an article of true merit. We feel justified in saying that Moore's Revealed Remedy contains more actual merit than any medicine it has ever been our good fortune to test. One trial will make you as enthusiastic as the writer.

It does seem hard for a woman to have to cook on a burned out stove, besides the entire family have to suffer from improperly cooked food. For $18.50 Schwan & Patrow will furnish a first-class cook stove with all the fixtures,
