TEACHERS MEET ON MT. HOOD.

At the July meeting of the Clackamas County Teacher's association held at Harmony, in school district No. 49, it was decided to hold the August meeting on the top of Mt. Hood. Over 20 teachers promised to go but as the time drew near, one and another decided the trip was too great to undertake and decided to stay at home. When the day arrived on which we were to begin the trip 12 members of the association reported for duty: Supt. H. S. Gibson, Fannie G. Porter, Hattie E. Monroe, Bertha M. Gibson, Mollie Talbert, Nellie Younger, Jennie B. Wise, T. J. Gary, L. T. Anderson, W. G. Beattie, John Wise, George L. Story and G. W. Boylan.

At nightfall, the first camp was pitched near the village of "Firwood." We were not troubled by wild animals on this trip, but several times we felt that swine were entirely too tame.

Each member of the crowd had received a name for the occasion, which was more or less flattering to the victim.

The morning of the second day after leaving Oregon City, Mrs. Gibson met with a very painful accident, being thrown from a high seat, striking her head, and the wheel of the heavily loaded wagon running over her ankle, almost crushing the bone. On reaching Salmon river it was decided to remain there until next morning. Several of the gentlemen spent the entire afternoon trying to catch a fish for the invalid, but the fish refused to be caught. We bought some delicious huckleberries, and made a small feast.

August 24th we reached Government Camp and pitched our tent for a day's rest. Next evening, following the direction of our guide we moved our camp to the timber line to save time next day. At 6:15 a. m. Monday August 26, under the guidance of W. G. Steel and Mr. Shoule, all but Mrs. Gibson started for the summit of Mt. Hood. At the snow fields the crowd became separated, five of the party hastening on, and seven remaining with the guides to explore the glaciers. Supt. Gibson, Mr. Boylan, Mr. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Wise soon concluded they had seen enough of ice caves and started for the top, reaching the summit at 1:30 p. m., having spent seven hours and 15 minutes in making the ascent. At this time the atmosphere was perfectly clear and the view was simply grand. Mt. Rainier, Mt. Adams, Mt. Jefferson and the Three Sisters shone dazzlingly white in the sunshine. The party waited an hour and thirty minutes for the others to appear, when feeling the cold severely the teacher's meeting was called to order, and then adjourned to Salmon river. The descent occupied one hour and thirty minutes.

While the rest of the party were exploring the White River glacier, the ice gave way and Mr. Beattie suddenly found himself 15 ft. lower in the world with a badly bruised knee. However Mr. Beattie's motto is "Excelesior" and he reached the summit with the others at 3:55 p. m. Three hours later the weary party reached the camp. It was too late to drive to government camp with safety so, unluckily, we decided to remain where we were until morning dawned. For 10 of these many years we had heard tales of the sand storms on Mt. Hood yet realized nothing what one could be. We will never again doubt the yarns the old settlers tell us. If we are told that whole tents are completely buried from sight we will not smile.

As soon as morning dawned we piled everything on the wagons, and started for Government Camp, four miles away without breakfast. We reached Salmon river that evening and decided to spend the next day in camp. The gentlemen again tried to catch fish for supper and this time success smiled upon them. Mr. Story caught 42 speckled beauties. August 28 Supt. Gibson called the teacher's association to order.

Miss Porter read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved. An invitation had been received from the directors at Redland asking the association to meet at that place in September. The invitation was accepted and Mrs. Jennie Wise, Miss Mollie Talbert and W. G. Beattie were asked to prepare a suitable program.

W. Gilbert Beattie recited a humorous selection. Miss Monroe, Miss Younger and Mr. Beattie sang "We'll Have to Mortgage the Farm."

Miss Fannie Porter read a very able paper on "Teachers Work." At the request of the teachers present Miss Porter promised to read the paper again, as we feel that it is too good to be forgotten.

Miss Monroe spoke of the "Beauty of Mt. Hood," and as usual her remarks were well chosen.

Mr. Gary related the "Legends of Mt. Hood" which were very amusing.

Mrs. Gibson read an original poem on Mt. Hood. At the request of the association the poem will be published.

Mr. Anderson spoke at some length on the inspiration this trip to Mt. Hood will afford the teachers who started for the top and got there. He thought the motto of the teacher should be to "get there." He believed we should make up our minds to be something or do something, and keep going until we reached the summit. Every time we achieve success through our own efforts we are strengthened, every time we fail through our own negligence, we are weakened. Let us all try to get there.

On motion association adjourned to meet at Redland, the last Saturday in September, 1895.

MT. HOOD.

From out the dimly floating mists, Mt. Hood looks down, and far away, Where faintly in the distance shine, The smit waters of the bay.

Withstanding all the storms of years, Unmoved she looks on all below And folds across her burning heart, A mantle of eternal snow.

Uptowering like a lofty soul That knows no fear of tide or time, Straight upward from the vales below, She looks to God with gaze sublime, Crowned by the rays of golden light, (That shine in morning solitude, Or bid the west a late good night) With pride we gaze on old Mt. Hood.

The record of the lives we lead, Should be a tale of victories won, Of virtues honored and believed, Of truths made plain, of good deeds done, Believing that a cause is just, Be brave enough to voice the thought, Since time at last makes all things clear, When help, not needed, comes unthought, As thro' unyielding toil today.

We gained the mountain's topmost height The dangers that beset the way, May fade to shadows, in the light Of steadfast faith, and firm resolve To do a noble work on earth— To rouse young souls to energy For mental growth, and moral worth.

We each have work in life to do And strength to dare is granted him Who daily strives with purpose true, Whose love and trust have not grown dim Who does the nearest duty first— Whose faith in God shines clear and bright Who wills to make the dear old earth A better footstool in His sight.

'Tis said that in the years gone by 'Twas written in the Book of Fate That all things will be granted one, Who learns to work and pray, and wait, I know the time will surely come, In spite of all that may transpire, When, in this life or in the next, I shall attain my heart's desire.

—BERTHA MARTIN GIBSON, August 26, 1895.

Mr. Cooper, of this place, had been troubled with diarrhoea for three or four weeks and failed to get anything that would check it effectually, until he used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, two doses of which effected a complete cure. He says it is the best medicine he ever saw for such cases. Also that he had given it to several families and they always praised it.

In Nov. and Dec., 1895, The inmates had the 'La Grippe,' and I was one of the first. Resuming duty too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not regain my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever.
