A NEW COMMANDER.

Lieutenant General Schofield Retired.
HAS REACHED THE AGE LIMIT.

General Nelson A. Miles the Noted Indian Fighter is Given Commander of the Army.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The president's order retiring Lieutenant-General Schofield was issued today. It is as follows:
"Lieutenant-General John M. Schofield having reached the age fitting him for relief from active military service, he is, in accordance with the provisions of the law, hereby placed upon the retired list of army, to date from September 29 1895, with all pay and allowances belonging to his rank upon retirement."
"It is with much regret the president makes the announcement that the country is thus to lose from the command of the army this distinguished general, who has done so much for its honor and efficiency. His gallantry in war challenges the admiration of all his countrymen, while they will not fail to gratefully remember and appreciate how faithfully he served his country in times of peace by his splendid and successful performance of civil as well as military duty. Lieutenant-General Schofield's career, exhibiting an unvarying love for his profession, a zealous care for honor and good name, a just apprehension of the subordination it exacts, and a constant manifestation of the best traits of true Americanism, furnishes to the army an example of inestimable value, and should teach all our people that the highest soldierly qualities are built upon the keenest sense of the obligations belonging to good citizenship."
GROVER CLEVELAND.

(John M. Schofield, commander of the United States army, was born in New York in 1831. He graduated at the military academy at West Point in 1853, and remained there for five years as instructor of natural philosophy. Soon after the outbreak of the civil war he was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers and served with credit in Missouri and Kansas. In 1864 he joined the army of General Sherman and bore a prominent part of all the operations till the close of the war. In 1864 he was made a brigadier-general and in 1868 major-general in the regular army. In 1868 he was appointed secretary of war, but resigned in 1869. From 1876 to 1881 he was superintendent of the military academy at West Point. In 1888 he succeeded Gen. W. T. Sherman as commander of the United States army.)

General Miles to Command.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Secretary Lamont issued an order this afternoon, detailing General Miles to duty in Washington, as general of the army, and General Ruger, now on special duty at Washington, to the command of the department of the East, with headquarters at New York.

THE NORTHWEST GETS IT.
Moran Brothers of Seattle will Build a Torpedo Boat.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The report of Chief Engineer Wilson, sent from San Francisco to Seattle to investigate the plant of Moran Brothers, was entirely satisfactory and Secretary Herbert this afternoon awarded that firm the contract for the construction of one of the three torpedo boats to be built for the navy.

The price to be paid is $160,000, which is $3500 less than the original bid of the firm, which consented to the reduction in order that the department might have a sufficient margin left from the appropriation of $175,000 to supply torpedoes and guns for the boat. The senior member of the firm was at the navy department today closing up the business and he announces that it is his intention to build a boat that will compare in every respect with the best in the world and spare no proper expense.

A Chinese Puzzle.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—The question as to whether a Chinese born on American soil is a citizen of the United States is to be tested in the courts. Wong Kim Ark came here recently from China, demanding a landing on the ground that he is a native of California. The collector of the port, while admitting his nativity, refused him a landing, claiming he is not an American citizen, as, according to the contention of the government, to be an American by birth, one must be born in America and of American parents.

JUDGE FEE HAS RESIGNED.

Stephen A. Lowell, of Umatilla, Appointed to Succeed Him.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 1.—The announcement that the resignation of Circuit Court Judge James A. Fee, of this district, has been tendered to Governor Lord, is made. The resignation created great surprise here, even to the judge's intimate friends, who had been given no intimation of his intention of leaving the bench.

Judge Fee served one full six-year term and one year on the second. He was elected first in 1888 as a republican over Judge Ramsey, now a resident of the Willamette valley. His occupancy of the bench brought him the highest respect of the people of Eastern Oregon and he leaves the office with a splendid record. He gives business reasons for his resignation.

Stephen A. Lowell has received a dispatch from Governor Lord appointing him to the vacant judgeship. The appointment gives universal satisfaction. Judge Lowell's commission will be forwarded by mail, and he will take the oath as soon as the commission arrives, and preside at the October term of the circuit court.

(Stephen A. Lowell, appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Fee, resides in Pendleton, and has lived in Oregon about four years. He first came prominently before the people during the last senatorial campaign which resulted in the election of George W. McBride. Judge Lowell being one of the candidates. Judge Lowell is a young man, a lawyer of more than usual attainments, and in politics a stalwart and aggressive republican. His appointment was urged by the members of the bar and citizens of Umatilla county. Pendleton is also the home of Judge Fee, and the fact that the associate judge of the sixth district, M. D. Clifford, residing in Grant county and Judge Eakin, of Union, having been appointed to fill the bench for the newly constituted eighth district left the choice practically between Umatilla and Baker counties. The appointment of Judge Lowell will doubtless give general satisfaction to the members of the bar in the sixth district.)

Pine Needle Factory.

GRANT'S PASS, Or., Oct. 1.—Arrangements were completed here this afternoon by which Grant's Pass will have in operation the only pine-needle factory in America. For some time past, negotiations have been pending with a company of California men, represented by F. W. Ludovici and Simon Dovan, for the erection of a factory by which the long pine needles, or foliage of the Norman pine tree, would be converted into various commercial products, such as soap, extracts and oils, as has been done in certain places in Europe for years. A bonus of $1200 for the plant has been raised without difficulty, the company has leased the Rogue River Lumber Company's old mill for its headquarters, and the machinery is promised to be on the grounds in less than two weeks. The gentlemen composing the company have signed a contract by which they agree to run the plant one year.

The daily capacity of the mill will be about eight tons of needles per day, for which the company pay 25 cents per hundred pounds. Pickers can, at this rate make about $1.50 per day, if properly equipped. The matter is regarded here as of great importance to this place, as the supply of pine needles is practically inexhaustible.

An association of business men in the city was also formed to work in conjunction with the company, and signed an agreement to furnish the necessary needles, to the extent of eight tons a day. This will give a large number of people a chance to earn a good living from this industry alone.

An Interesting Book.

We have received a unique publication called H. M. Greene & Co.'s "History of Grain and the Grain Trade of the World." It is printed in colors and is illustrated with a picture some 6000 years old, from the tomb of Thebes, representing the ancient Egyptians elevating their wheat into granaries. There is also a threshing song in hieroglyphics, with the translation of each character. The book covers the prehistoric chapters of the subject. Egyptian, Chaldean, Assyrian, Babylonian, Persian, Indian, Chinese, Phoenician, and Carthaginian historians are quoted. There is a very rare description of land caravans and sea caravans. The history of wheat in Greece, Rome, Antioch, and among the Scythians, Celts, Gauls, Germans, Goths, Scots, Britons, Irish, Africans, Mound Builders, Persians, and American Indians, finish the first part, or Ancient History of Grain. The part called Modern History deals with Venice, the Arabs, carrying of wheat to the New World, the Philippians the Dutch, Antwerp, and the great modern European and American cities. There is an index covering all the matters contained in the book. It is the publishers desire to present a copy of the work to every miller, grain dealer and interested party in the United States and all such wishing a free copy should address H. M. Greene & Co., Rialto Building, Chicago, Ill. The Liverpool Corn Trade News has spoken of this book with admiration, and it has received abundant testimonies to its merits from such crop experts as S. T. H. Prims and the secretary of agriculture. It reflects great credit on the intelligence of its authors, and the grain trade in general will feel no uncertain pride in receiving from its own ranks a work which is at once commercially brief, and not the less notable for its erudition.
