In cook stoves they carry a complete line and all of the best makes.

River Notes. The O. F. & N. Co. have leased the steamer Eugene and she made her first trip Wednesday. This will make the company four boats running on the Willamette and will enable it to handle all the business offered.

The steamer Toledo has discontinued her daily trips and now leaves Dayton Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 6 a. m., reaching Oregon City for Portland at about 11:30 a. m. Returning leaves Portland, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 9 a. m., reaching Oregon City for up-river points about 11 a. m. Capt. Geer reports that the Toledo is carrying good loads now of both passengers and freight and that during the late hop season the boat was crowded to its utmost capacity. He states that his Yamhill river trade is rapidly increasing and that so soon as the river rises sufficiently, he will resume his trips to Lafayette and McMinnville.

The daily trip service given by the steamers Altona and Grey Eagle, of the Oregon City Transportation line to Salem, Independence and way landings during the last six weeks, has been a very great convenience to the hop men and other shippers along the Willamette. The boats have been well patronized and on many trips had to refuse freight and passengers, so much being offered during the rush of hop picking. Owing to the unusual low stage of water in the river, great difficulty was experienced at times in getting the boats over the shoal places, but by the perseverance and skill of Capt's. Graham and Spong, the steamers were able to make their regular time and never missed a trip. For some time past the Altona, which leaves Taylor street wharf, Portland, at 6 a. m., has only been going as far as Mission landing, where she connected with the Grey Eagle, returning to Portland the same day. The Grey Eagle continued the trips as far as Salem and when the depth of water would permit, went on to Independence. As soon as the river rises sufficiently, the Altona will extend her run to Salem and Independence and the Grey Eagle will be used on the upper river as a tender connecting with the Altona.

The steamer Ramona since going on her winter time table, making only two round trips a day between this city and Portland, has lost none of her traffic and is crowded with freight each trip and has a good list of passengers. With the coming of the cold rainy days, her passenger business will increase, for traveling by boat is far more comfortable than on the electric cars during such weather, besides, the number of bundles a passenger has is no inconvenience on a boat like it is on the cars. With the free delivery of freight to all parts of the city for their regular customers from the dock, the freight business of the Ramona has, since this was put into effect, greatly increased and the service given to Oregon City is the cheapest and best of any line running into the city. In the many years that the boats of the Oregon City Transportation company have run between this city and Portland, they have made more regular time than even the railroads and have given a service that is a credit to themselves and this city.

"Nevada or the Lost Mine." The Oregon City Glee and Historic Society, will favor the public with one of their most interesting entertainments, under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild, and for the benefit of the St. Paul's Episcopal church of this city, on the evenings of October 11 and 12.

Don't fail to witness the production of this beautiful drama, entitled, "Nevada or the Lost Mine," a three act drama, to be given at Shively's opera house. We can assure the people of Oregon City that this play is one most worthy of the patronage of every theater-loving individual, and should be so considered. It beautifully depicts the frontier life in the gold mining regions of the Sierra Nevada's in the early days. The play will be staged with every modern scenic and mechanic effect. Every person concerned in it is adopted for his or her part or character, and are well up in their lines. In connection with the drama, there will be a very selected musical program. In response to the request of the Ladies' Guild, the following talented musical artists have consented to appear: Mrs. C. U. Barlow, late of Stockton, Cal., Miss Celia Goldsmith, of Eugene, Oregon, Miss Beatrice Barlow and Mr. A. A. Askin, both of this city and a number of others.

Taking the program as a whole, it will be a most enjoyable and interesting entertainment. Look for ad in another column. Reserved seats on sale at Huntley's drug store. Popular prices.

Monday morning a bright, healthy girl came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sheehan. The mother is doing well, the baby growing fine and Billy is too proud to work. This is the second little one to brighten their home, their oldest one being a boy.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

O. E. A. Freytag does not propose to remain in the rear of the procession in the matter of supplying the market with fresh vegetables, and his gardens are kept in first class condition.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

All communications intended for this column should be addressed to Mrs. H. S. Gibson, Oregon City, Oregon.

THE TEACHERS' MEET. The Teachers' Association of Clackamas county met at Redland, September 28, 1895. The hour at which the Oregon City delegation reached the place of meeting was somewhat later than the usual time for opening the meeting.

As the weather was so unusually warm and pleasant the people of Redland had arranged a table and platform in the grove where the meeting was held. 35 teachers were present and a large number of people residing in the vicinity were in attendance.

Mr. Buzbee, Mr. Durette, Misses Mayfield, Harrington and Clark and Mrs. Karton were elected to membership in the association.

The minutes of the previous meeting as prepared by the secretary, Miss Fannie G. Porter, were read and approved.

The audience were delighted with some very fine instrumental music furnished by Prof. Ogle.

"Our Schools as Factors of Our Government" was the subject assigned Prof. Alex Thomson.

"The Child is Father to the Man." The public school is the Nation's benefactor in furnishing good citizens. When we begin to be educated, we begin to become good citizens. It is the legitimate object of the school to develop good citizenship. You cannot teach patriotism without teaching politics, but do not teach partisanship. Teach the history of facts, in relation to other facts. Prof. Thomson's paper will be published in the Enterprise at a later date.

On motion the roll call was omitted. "Five books the teacher should own and read" was the subject assigned Mr. T. J. Gary. Mr. Gary thought no one rule for needed books could be given for different people. He referred to Mr. Hackett's paper at Rowan's school house near New Era in May, in which he recommended the Bible, Shakespeare and the dictionary. He thought "The Evolution of Dodd" should be read and re-read by every teacher. He read the 5th chapter of the book to the association.

H. S. Strange endorsed all that had been said by Mr. Gary. He thought Longfellow should be included in the list of books that every teacher should read. He quoted a saying "that if one heard a quotation that appealed to the reason, he might know it was taken from Shakespeare, but if one appealed to the soul, he might know it was written by Longfellow."

Prof. Durette spoke at some length on the same subject. He would not particularly desire every teacher to own a copy of Shakespeare, as a great many would find Shakespeare about as hard to understand as the fifth reader would be to a second grade pupil. He advocates the study of psychology.

Miss Fannie G. Porter read a composition on Mt. Hood, describing the trip to, and ascent of the mountain by members of the association. Miss Porter's paper was well written and well read, closing with a short poem as follows: The future is ours, with hopes up'old New fields of labor before us rise, New beauties in nature we'll behold— Bright the prospect before our eyes. Time will bring some sorrow too, Care we will find on our way; To our friends and work will e'er be true If God's holy word we obey.

But we must work for a life like this For our efforts are watched by the Lord, And this motto Hew'll surely, not miss As the labor, so the reward.

Miss Georgia Ruth sang a beautiful son, which was much appreciated.

Mr. Stone, Mr. Funk and Mr. Karton spoke kind words of encouragement to the association.

A most delicious dinner had been prepared by the good people of Redland to which the teachers did ample justice.

"Resolved that we the teachers of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association in session assembled, heartily thank the people of Redland school district for the excellent manner in which they have entertained us on this occasion and for the interest which they have manifested in the cause of education."

The above resolution was unanimously adopted by the association.

On motion the meeting adjourned to meet at Viola the third Saturday in October. The program for that date is as follows:

A Talk on Reed's Word Lesson by Prof. C. W. Durette.

"How to get the Patrons Interested" —Miss Maggie Guttridge.

Discussion, "Resolved that City Schools do more to Make Good Citizens than Country Schools" E. M. Ward aff., A. C. Strange neg.

Address—Geo. L. Story.

Roll call—Old Bible.

"How I Teach Geography"—Miss Helen Taylor and Miss M. Mayfield.

"How I Teach Measurements"—Ara McLoughlin.

School will commence in district No. 18 near Canby on Monday next with Miss Helena Bark of this city in charge. Miss Bark is a graduate of the Monmouth normal school and is a teacher of ability.

BANKRUPTCY

—of the physical being is the result of drawing incessantly upon the reserve capital of nerve force. The wear, tear and strain of modern life are concentrated upon the nervous system. The young men of our day become sufferers from nervous debility or exhaustion, nervous prostration or weakness. This may be the result of too much mental worry and excitement, or the result of bad practices and excesses, or perverted habits, contracted in youth, through ignorance. They feel irritable, weak and nervous with such distressing symptoms as backache, dizziness, shooting pains in head or chest, sometimes indigestion. The middle-aged men, as well, suffer from exhaustion, loss of manly power, low spirits, impaired memory, and many derangements of mind and body. The ill-used brain is morbidly wide awake when the overworked business man attempts to find rest in bed.

The physicians and specialists of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute devote their best energies to reclaiming and restoring such unfortunates to health and happiness. They have written a book of 168 pages, treating of these maladies and setting forth a rational means of home-treatment for their cure. It is sent securely sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of 10 cents for postage.
