A Man Killed.

A man who gave his name as R. W. Moore was found under the trestle just north of New Era Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock by Mr. Burgoyne who lives near and who heard his cries. The man claims that he had been kicked off the freight train the evening previous by the trainmen and had lain there all night as he was too badly injured to help himself. Mr. Burgoyne hailed the morning local from Salem and the man was brought to Oregon City where he was placed in the hospital. A doctor was summoned but nothing could be done for him and he died at 4 o'clock that afternoon. The body was brought to Coroner Holman's undertaking rooms and a jury was empaneled Thursday morning to ascertain the cause of the man's death. Drs. Paine and Sommer made an examination of the body and found that his back and kidneys had been injured and was the cause of his death. The trainmen were brought before the jury and each swore that they had never seen the man, though one of them stated that five tramps were driven off the train at New Era and that possibly this one had jumped on again. The ante-mortum statement of the man to the nurses and doctor at the hospital was brought before the jury, but as it did not show who was responsible for his death the jury was compelled to render a verdict of accidental death.

A Successful Play.

The drama entitled "Nevada," given at Shively's opera house last Friday and Saturday evenings was a very commendable performance. The play, which depicted mining life in Nevada in early days, was carried out in all its details, in very good shape by the actors, who were young people of this city and all amateurs. The troupe are under many obligations to Mr. A. A. Askin, of Tacoma, who trained them and acted as stage manager. A special feature of Friday evening was the music by both home talent and by Signor Crivelli and Miss Abrahams, of Portland, who gave their services and helped very materially toward the success of the entertainment. Financially, the play was not the success hoped for owing to other attractions in the city and the exposition in Portland, the attendance was only fair, though after paying all expenses, some $11 was left as net proceeds.
