The way to build up Oregon City is to give Oregon City people your patronage.

BOARD OF TRADE WORK.

That all parts of Clackamas county may be connected with the county seat by good roads is one of the important duties that the Oregon City board of trade should attend to. Good roads attract business to the towns like railroads do to the cities. Oregon City, with its growth as a manufacturing center, should be the natural market for all the products of Clackamas county. The central location and topography of the country favor the centralization of the trade of the county in this city, but Multnomah being more progressive in her road work has pushed graded highways out to tap our county, and Portland being the larger city has naturally attracted the trade that should have come to Oregon City. This trade can be again turned to this city if the proper effort is made, for to a large part of the people of Clackamas county who now trade in Portland, the distance is much less than to that city, and if they can be given graded roads of easy grade they will seek the nearest market, as the saving of time will more than make up for any difference in price that may exist between the two markets. The board of trade should aid and take the initiative in the work of first getting our highways properly located and then of improving them. Of the roads that the board could well give its attention just now and that need relocating and improving, and which would be of the most benefit to this place, is the Oregon City and New Era road, giving access to the county seat for the people of the south part of the county; the west side road to Tualatin and Pleasant Hill precincts, whose trade almost entirely goes to Portland by reason of there being no road to Oregon City; and the securing of a more direct road with the lowest possible grade to the north part of the county, that we may win back the trade that had roads have lost us. There has been a feeling among the people of the country that Oregon City was inclined to shirk its duty in road matters, and that the city did not care whether there was a mile of passable road in the county or not. This spirit should be allayed and city and county work together that they may be placed in better communication with each other, and each prosper the more.

REDLAND NOTES.

A Popular Minister—Heavy Forest Fires—Some Damage Done and Much Land Cleared.

REDLAND, Oct. 28.—Rev. Mr. Shields, of Portland, has been holding a series of protracted meetings in the Presbyterian church at this place during the past week. Mr. Shields is a fine speaker, and has made numerous friends in this community.

John Higgins is seriously ill and is causing his numerous friends some anxiety as to the outcome of his malady. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Wm. Bonney, of Hubbard, is again visiting Redland. It appears that Redland is not without its attractions.

Ed. Barrett has leased his Morgan farm, while Mr. Gill, of Logan, has rented the La-tourette place formerly occupied by the Barrett brothers.

Will Gaskell, Arthur Barrett, J. Campbell, and others, have returned from Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Funk, Miss Ida Young and others attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Oregon City last Saturday and Sunday.

Fires have been raging and doing some damage in burning fences. At one time there was great alarm lest the Presbyterian church and the school house should take fire from the woods which were ablaze back of them. The citizens turned out early Sunday morning, or rather about midnight, and watched and fought fire for many hours; then again in the afternoon, the wind becoming stronger, the blaze got under headway and the people were obliged to watch again till midnight.

If called for state when advertised.

S. R. GREEN, P. M.

With a freight rate of a dollar a ton from Portland and free cartage of freights to all parts of the city, the merchants of Oregon City should be able to successfully compete with Portland and the surrounding towns for the trade of Clackamas county. No other town in the state is favored with such low rates from the great wholesale houses of Portland. The expenses of carrying on business is so much less in a small town

WILLAMETTE NEWS.

A Village With all the Conveniences of a City—A Big Wood Camp.

WILLAMETTE, Oct. 28.—We can boast of a beautifully located town, supplied with water works, electric lights, electric cars, telephone communication, complete sewer system, and all the improvements of a modern city. But alas! we have no school. Let the fathers awake to the fact. While the little ones should be at their books we can see them idly playing in the streets. Is this Americanism?

Wood chopping has commenced again in earnest. About 85 men are employed in the camp by the Baidoff Bros.

The Capen Shoe Co. finds employment for about twenty hands and has ready sale for the stock turned out.

The Union Sunday school will give a social on November 2, free to all.

The new mail route from Oregon City to Wilsonville seems to be giving satisfaction.

Cherryville Notes.

CHERRYVILLE, Oct. 21.—A regular old-fashioned wedding party was held at the residence of Mr. J. Hammer on Saturday last, the occasion being the marriage of Mr. Albert Hammer to Miss Dillah Davis. The knot was tied in Justice W. G. Curran's most pleasing style. At the close of the ceremonies a sumptuous dinner was served to those present. In addition to a fine wedding cake and fruits and other delicacies, some of the finest bear steak ever set before a hungry man was served. The table was loaded to its limit with good things and the dinner was a credit to the culinary skill of Mrs. Hammer. The bride is the eldest daughter of F. H. Davis, of Leon, and is a very bright young lady, while the groom is one of Cherryville's best known young men. In addition to the relatives of the contracting parties there were present Mr. and Mrs. Emersley, Mr. and Mrs. Crone, of Cherryville; Mrs. J. A. Talbert and daughter, Mrs. P. T. Davis and son and daughter of Clackamas. There were other guests but your correspondent did not learn their names. In addition to its being his wedding day Mr. Hammer celebrated his 21st birthday, thus giving the festivities a double meaning.

Clarkes News.

CLARKES, Oct. 27.—And still the dry weather continues. A few foggy mornings of the past week caused the farmers to make preparations for plowing when the down-pour comes. Just wait a little longer neighbors.

Mrs. C. KleinSmith, who has been sick all summer, is slowly recovering under the advice of Dr. Paine, of Oregon City.

Rev. Gnyzer has rented the house occupied by H. W. Gard and family, and will take possession in about a month.

Mrs. F. M. Manning and daughters Mary and Calla made a very pleasant visit at Mr. Jewell's last Thursday.

Mr. H. KleinSmith has ordered and received the bars and expects to have his chopper in running order this week.

David Miller is progressing nicely with his school.

P. Paenkritz has the contract to build H. W. Gard's house, and expects to have it finished in about a week.

The protracted meeting at Timber Grove resulted in one convert—all we heard of.

Mr. Dean has gone up the valley hunting pheasants.

Mrs. Schubel was in Oregon City Tuesday and Wednesday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chris Hartman.

Molalla News.

MOLALLA, Oct. 28.—Now, as it sprinkled some this morning we are hopeful for a rain before Christmas, although the mists have cleared away and it is as smoky and dusty as ever.

Surely he must be a slothful farmer who fails to get his potato crop dug this fall.

Our community was shadowed with sadness by the death of Mrs. J. A. Stubbs. Another pioneer has gone.

D. S. Jordan, of Indianapolis, is still visiting his brother John D. on the farm. He expects to return to Indiana next month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Porter, of Ilwaco county, are visiting friends west of town.

Cass Austin has the credit of saving the Teasel Creek school house from burning recently. The house caught fire from a slabbing set out on the Albright place.

School is in progress here in both departments. Messrs. Eby and Young are the teachers.

Smyrna News.

SMYRNA, Oct. 25.—Miss Flora and Perry Yoder were delegates from here to the Endeavor convention at Oregon City last week.

Rev. R. M. Jones, of Oswego, exchanged pulpits yesterday with Rev. Hughes.

B. F. Halliday and wife, and Grandpa Hacock, of Springbrook, Yamhill county, are visiting friends and acquaintances here.

Sam Laniz has rented the farm of Mrs. R. L. Yoder for the coming year. Sam says he intends to keep bachelor's hall, but knowing ones say that a certain young lady up the valley will help keep the house in order.

Mrs. E. L. Yoder and her daughters Hattie and Rebecca went to Ilwaco, Washington, last Thursday for the benefit of the latter's health.

Now that the teachers are to meet at Molalla November 9, let us all turn out and hear what our pedagogues know. Jona.

Patterns cut to order by Thompson's Universal Garment Cutter and lessons given in cutting. Afternoons from 1 o'clock till 5 o'clock. Please give me a call and see the work it will do. Mrs. M. A. Plummer, one door north of Cliff House, Oregon City.

W. A. Putrow has added to all lines of goods kept in stock in his hardware store and has marked everything as low as is consistent with the quality of goods.

Wise is he who buys a home and stops paying rent. C. O. T. Williams can fit you out on easy terms.
