NEW ROAD TO OREGON CITY.—A movement is on foot to get a more direct road and one of better grade than now exists to connect Clackamas, Damascus and the other places in the northern part of the county with Oregon City. The new route that is proposed will leave the present county road near the late Dr.
 Dedman's place at the railroad crossing and follows on the west side near the S.
 P. track to Gladstone where it will intersect the Oregon City road. By this route an almost level grade can be had and it will cause the traffic from the north part of the county coming to Oregon City to avoid the sharp hill and rough rocky road of the present road about way. There would only be about a mile of new road to open, as the land is all cleared and the soil a gravelly loam, the expense would be very light. To make a passable road by the present route, owing to its being over almost solid rock for much of the way will cost a big sum of money and with all the work done there would yet remain the heavy grade to pull over each way. The opening of this road would place Clackamas within less than four miles of Oregon City and would shorten the distance from all sections north of the Clackamas river very materially, besides it would be the closing section in one of the county's main highways, and would do much to add to the trade of Oregon City. The distance from this part of the county to Oregon City is much less than to Portland and if a good road with as light grades as is now had to Portland can be given, Oregon City will become the leading point for a large number of people who now seldom visit the place. There will be no difficulty in securing the right of way as most of the property owners have signified a willingness to give the necessary land, for they realize that it will place their land a half mile nearer Oregon City and thus enhance its value.
 Several of the leading tax payers of the county are interested in the establishment of this road and they hope to have it legalized this winter and opened for travel next summer.

OLD SOLDIERS TO MEET.—On Wednesday evening of next week Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R., of this city, will entertain at their post in K. of P. hall, Commander E. W. Allen and staff, and a number of other distinguished comrades from Portland. It is expected that every member of the post in good standing will be present and a cordial invitation is extended to all Grand Army men to attend.
 The exercises of the evening promise to be of more than usual interest and pleasant memories of the days that are past will be brought up. After the close of the business of the post the ladies of the Relief Corps will be invited in and a social hour will close the evening's exercises. The members of Meade Post and the Relief Corps propose to make this gathering one to be long remembered and no efforts will be spared to make it pleasant for their guests and visiting comrades.

THE "SHASTA LIMITED."—The Southern Pacific now has one train that does not even recognize Oregon City. She flies past as if there was no great manufacturing city by the falls. This is the Portland and San Francisco "special," or "Shasta Limited." This train leaves Portland every five days for San Francisco, and makes the trip in 34 hours.

Easter time could be made, but the company desire to give passengers an opportunity of viewing some of the grand scenery on the route. At 5:15 Monday morning the north bound train came through Oregon City bound for Portland, and Wednesday evening at 10:45 she passed back on her way to San Francisco. The train is provided with tourist sleepers, pullmans and a baggage car. Only through passengers are carried as no stops are made except to take wood and water and change engines, and the rates are $10 for tourist sleepers and $20 for pullman passage between Portland and San Francisco. It is claimed that this arrangement is injuring the O. R. & N. Co's steamship business between Portland and San Francisco, and it has been rumored that they will inaugurate cut rates at an early date.

OREGON YET LEADS.—It is nothing uncommon for small fruits and apples and pears to produce the second crop the same season in Oregon and often times the fruit is of quite as good quality as the first crop. Owing to this season being an unusual long one with a long dry fall, there is considerable of second crop fruit being harvested now. County Recorder Ramsby left at this office samples of Bartlett pears picked off of his trees in his yard in this city that in flavor equal the regulation Bartlett that is so palatable to all Oregonians. In size though they were hardly equal to the first crop. While this second crop fruit is more in the nature of a freak and is not counted of much value, yet it indicates the mild climate and long growing season that prevails in Oregon, an advantage that no other state in the Union has, except the malaria infected states of the South.

LADY UP.—Capt. J. M. Graham again presides at his furniture store. For some time past he has been officiating as captain of the Altona, which has been running from Portland to Mission Landing, where she made connection with the Gray Eagle for Salem and Independence. The water in the Willamette was getting very low and the Altona started for Portland Saturday afternoon. When the boat reached the upper locks in the canal she struck a rock receiving some slight damage to the bottom of her hull, but not enough to disable her from locomotion.
 She was taken to Portland where she will receive the needed repairs, and will remain tied up until the water raises.
 The Gray Eagle, however, now makes regular trips between Portland and Salem.

A COMFORTABLE HOME.—For rent, two blocks from Barclay school, an eight room dwelling. Has city water and on lighted street. Fruit each season enough for a family and ample garden and yard room. Reasonable terms to the right person. Address "Home," care of ENTERPRISE.

FOR ART STUDENTS.—Carric M. Gilbert, from Detroit, will exhibit her paintings at the residence of Rev. Henry Wall, B. A., Adams st., next Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons from 2 to 4 o'clock. Will also arrange with those desiring lessons.

Disorders in the liver and kidneys are responsible for many of the ailments of humanity, which, when neglected, develop into serious and often fatal maladies. Prudence would suggest the prompt use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm to remove the disorder as soon as possible, and restore the diseased organs to healthy and vigorous action. Price $1 per bottle. For sale

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORER'S MEET.

A Two Days Convention—Good Attendance and Deep Interest.

The fourth annual convention of the Clackamas County Y. P. S. C. E. Union convened at the Presbyterian church in this city October 25th, 1895, T. J.
 Gary, of Milwaukie, president presiding.
 It was the most successful and enthusiastic convention ever held in Clackamas county, and the interest continued until the close of the gathering Monday night. The program for Friday evening began with devotional services led by E. A. Smith. W. G. Beattie delivered a neat address of welcome, which was appropriately responded to by T. J.
 Gary. After an anthem by the choir, Dr. George R. Wallace, pastor of the First Congregational church of Portland, gave one of his characteristic eloquent addresses. After this the committees were appointed and after a hymn and the C. E. benediction the convention adjourned for the evening.

SATURDAY MORNING.

A sunrise prayer meeting was held at 7:00 o'clock, led by Miss Mattie Gray, which was well attended and the services interesting. At 9:30 a praise service was held followed by the president's address. Then came the reports of corresponding secretary, treasurer and committees with roll call and reports of societies. Besides the large attendance from the three local societies, the following was the representation from outside societies in the county:

Milwaukie—Hattie Bonnett, Anna
 Rogers, Anna B. Scott, B. M. Fish, T. J. Gary, S. G. West, J. C. Gibson, F. Birkenmeier.

Needy—Flora Yoder, O. P. Yoder, Springwater—Stella Shibley, Myrtle Cornett, W. L. B. Cornett, Mrs. M. A.
 Charters, Richard Hargreaves.

Beaver Creek—James Shannon, Canby—William Bissell, Mr. and Mrs.
 W. M. Shauk.

Harmony—Ara W. McLaughlin, Mrs.
 J. Wise, John Wise, Harry Gifford.

Redland—Belle Funk, Louis Funk, Albert Conner.

Clackamas—Miss Ruth,
 Wilsonville—Josie Moore.

In addition to the above list there were numerous visitors present from various parts of the county during the convention. At this session the new officers were elected for the ensuing year, and were as follows: President, W. G.
 Beattie, of Ely; vice-presidents, T. J.
 Gary, of Milwaukie, George W. Swope, of Oregon City, and O. P. Yoder, of Needy; recording secretary, Miss Musa Barkley, of Oregon City; corresponding secretary, B. M. Fish, of Milwaukie; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, of Oregon City.

The morning session closed with an excellent paper by Mrs. J. Wise on "Secret Power."

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The prayer and praise service was led by C. H. Dye, and George Swope read a paper entitled, "We Endeavorers as Missionary Factors." Miss Belle Jones presented "Systematic Giving." Then followed a symposium of definite work presided over by Rev. A. J. Montgomery, and it was shown that there was 340 Christian Endeavor members in the county, an increase of three during the past year. Four hundred and fifty-one are reported enrolled as junior workers.
 During the symposium "The President's Place in the Society" was presented by H. C. Wood; Richard Hargreaves, "The Duties of a Chairman toward his Committee"; D. D. Tompkins, "The Corresponding Secretary's Work"; Mrs. Montgomery, "The Business Meeting." After the symposium J. C. Gibson discussed the "The Daily Conduct of Endeavorers." After the question box and the usual closing ceremonies the convention adjourned until 7:30 in the evening.

SATURDAY EVENING.

This was an unusually interesting session the members of the convention generally taking an active part. The feature of the evening was an address by Rev. C. H. Curtis, of Portland.

SUNDAY.

Sunday was the last day of the gathering and the services were very interesting. At seven there was a sunrise prayer service led by Miss Musa Barkley. The subject was "In the Spirit on the Lord's Day."

At 2:30 in the afternoon occurred the junior rally, presided over by Mrs. Gilman Parker. The members of all the Junior Endeavor societies in the city were out in full force and filled the front seats. Mrs. Parker takes a great interest in the juniors and she has the faculty of keeping their undivided attention. Interesting addresses were made to the children by Rev. A. J. Montgomery, Reverend Waller, Richard Hargreaves and J. K. Groom.

At four p. m. Rev. Montgomery made an interesting talk on "The Need of Systematic Bible Study," followed by an open meeting. At 6:45 p. m. a model Endeavor meeting was held led by Dr. J. W. Cowan. The topic was "Obedience to God—What it Involves." Mrs. F. F. White presided at the organ, and the choir furnished excellent music. E. S. Miller, of Portland, delivered an interesting lecture on "Influence of Hope in the Service of Christ." The most interesting feature of the evening was Mrs. George O.
 Brownell's account of her trip and visit to the convention of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, held at Boston in July. Her story was told in such an inimitable way, interspersed with laughable incidents, and at the same time illustrated with facts showing the wonderful growth of the Endeavor movement, which has spread to almost every nation on the face of the globe, that the immense crowd in the church room was held in wrapt attention. Mrs. Brownell exhibited badges and souvenirs of the great convention, and the Endeavorers present were inspired with enthusiasm as she proceeded with her remarks.

The new president, W. G. Beattie makes an excellent presiding officer, and there was not a hitch in the services or ceremonies. The Clackamas county banner was presented to the Beaver Creek society in a neat speech by T. J.
 Gary, for the greatest per cent. of increase during the past year. This banner to be held until the meeting of the state convention in June, when it will be presented to the Clackamas county society, making the largest per cent. of increase in active membership. James Shannon, the Beaver Creek representative, took the banner and responded in an appropriate speech.

After this came the very impressive Y. P. S. C. E. consecration service, after which the convention adjourned.
