Child Burned in a Brush Fire-School Crowded-Banner Town For Babies Sidewalk for Main Street.

CANBY, Nov. 4 .- On the 30th of October, during the temporary absence of its parents, a little son of Martin Richter, living about three miles east of here, was playing about a brush fire when its clothing caught fire burning the little one so badly that it died shortly afterward. An older brother, who was working near, in his efforts to extinguish the burning clothes had his bands severely burned. The child was buried in in the Cauby cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community is their sad misfortune

Henry Knight, who had the mistortune to have his right arm so seriously injured while working at Wheeler's saw mill a few days ago, is getting along as well as could reasonably be expected. Dr. Irvine, of Canby, is his physician.

We are glad to note that Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carlton have returned after spending three months visiting in Michigan. Mr. Carlton is emphatic in his declarations that Oregon is THE place.

The Canhy public school is crowded to overflowing and more pupils still to come. Prof. French has been endeavoring to arouse an interest in the study of vocal and instrumental music in Cauby. He gave free entertainments on Friday, Saturday and Monday nights. He succeeded in securing about twenty-five names of those who will join his vocal class. The professor is an accomplished musician and ought to succeed. The class will be given instruction at the Christian church in this city. Rev. Roberts preached in the Christian Quite an excitement was created in the little hamlet of Kelso on a recent Sunday by Max Kirgel and Alva Morris. These two boys had had some trouble before, and Alva on meeting Max at the store ordered him off his horse to fight it out. On Max refus ing they began using bad words towards each other, and young Morris tried to hit Kligel on his horse and pull him off. Morris next took a switch and began whipping Kligel in a lively manner, and Kligel to defend himself took the halter rope. At sight of the rope Morris was enraged the more and picked up a club and struck Kligel on his head knocking him from his horse. He was carried into Yarl's house in an insensible condition and remained so for several A doctor was hastily sent for who relieved the sufferer somewhat from his to attend school pain. SALMON TIPS.

Barlow Road yet Open ank Much Travel Over

Salmon, Nov. 2 .- Everything has been very quiet in this vicinity for sometime. All bave taken advantage of the fine weather to put in fall crops and to clear land. Mr. Welch has had some four acres grubbed, and Mr. McIntyre has grubbed and cleared a large area besides putting about 25 acres into wheat and cuts.

Mrs. M. Wall has had our local carper ter and painter, J. A. Lannenburger, putting rustic on her house and painting it, which adds very much to its neat appearance. Grandma Roberts has been very ill, but is ow mending. She is the mother of Mrs. M. Wall, and is over 84 years old. The past fine weather has kept the travel up over the road very briskly, but it will likely slack up now as the Oregon mist is ow upon us again. School closed last Friday its two months term, Miss Mary Leader teacher. It closed with but three scholars in attendance. Miss Leader is a relative of Mrs. Ware, and they helped to make her stay pleasant while here

Monmouth Normal Notes.

MONMOUTH, Nov. 4 .- A movement has been made to put in water and lights. The town is being canvassed for the purpose.

Prof. McCaustland has been requested to make a report on drainage and elevation. The steroptican entertainment held at the normal chapel, proved a success. The proceeds are to be used to purchase books for the library of the training school. About thirty books on history and thirty books on science have been ordered and will be put into the hands of the pupils. The four literary societies, Vesperline, Ulatus, Normal and Eureka, are doing an active work and contemplate a joint session at the end of the term. By voluntary contribution we have obtained sufficient means to open the library the leading periodicles and magazines. Preparations are being made for a cantata to be given before the holidays. Miss Buckham, daughter of Prof. Buckham, teacher in psychology and methods donated a collection of sixty books to the library of the training department.

An interesting same of foot-ball took place on the campus October 26, between the Moving attended to promptly and Willamette university team, of Salem, and the Normal team. A number of people from sembled to witness the game which was decided in favor of the Willamettes. In the evening a reception was held in the chapel in honor of the Willamette university students. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all. Last week in the chapel President Campbell gave an interesting address to the students describing his summer visit to the G. G. N.
