SPRAY OF THE FALLS.

Partlow's cider, clean and pure.
 E. E. Williams, The Grocer.
 Crochet cotton in all shades at E. E. Martin's.
 Money to loan on good real estate security by A. S. Dresser.
 Best Java and Moca coffee at Staub's rocery three pounds for $1.
 Go to The Fair for Hoyt's spring clothes pins, only 6 cents per dozen.
 All kinds of second hand goods bought by Parker & Howard. We pay cash.
 You miss it if you buy millinery without seeing the prices at E. E. Martin's.
 C. O. T. Williams is now prepared to make loans on good farm property. Write him.
 The millinery department at E. E. Martin's is under the supervision of Mrs. E. E. Martin.
 That 40 acre tract on West Side can be now for $500. Owner wants money. C. O. T. Williams
 Lamps.—New stock of all kinds just received. Fine hanging lamps for $2.25. See Bellomy & Bosch.
 Rupture or breach, permanently cured without the knife. Address, for pamphlet and references, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
 Pale, thin, bloodless people should use Dr. Sawyer's Ukatine. It is the greatest remedy in the world for making the weak strong. Sold by Geo. A. Harding.
 It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform a cure, and are the best. C. C. Huntley.
 Why descend those tiresome steps when you wish pure drugs, chemicals and drug sundries? "Time is money" Save both by getting your prescriptions filled at the Seventh St. Pharmacy.
 Story Bros. have their new blacksmith shop on Seventh street adjoining Noblett's stables completed and removed their shop to it Wednesday. It is 20x70 feet and gives them ample room for the work.
 County Clerk Horton has given permission to wed to Rebecca Helper and Edwin Morris, Katie Klaus and Emil Dalenbach, Della Hagan and Clarence M. Carothers, Loese Dancke and Thomas E. Carrico.
 Acts at once, never fails. One Minute Cough Cure. A remedy for asthma and that feverish condition which accompanies a severe cold. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. C. G. Huntley, druggist.
 Dr. A. P. Sawyer—Dear Sir: I have been suffering with sick headache for a long time. I used your family Cure and now am entirely relieved. I would not do without your medicine.
 Mrs. G. Miller, Mt. Morrel Ills. Sold by G. A. Harding.
 A. G. Bartley of Magic Pa., writes: I feel it a duty of mine to inform you and the public that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of a very bad case of eczema. It also cured my boy of a running sore on his leg.
 C. G. Huntley, druggist.
 A. W. Schwan has leased a piece of ground of Dr. Welsh between the Courier office and the depot on Seventh street upon which he will erect a building 18x70 one story for a tin and plumbing shop. He has the frame work up and expects to be able to remove his shop from the Casfield building to his location by the last of next week.
 The funeral services of the late Frank M. Kruse at Stafford Tuesday was attended by quite a number of persons from this city. Among the number were Mrs. M. Blanchard and daughter, J. W. Noble, Judge G. E. Hayes, Sheriff E. C. Maddock, Capt. J. T. Apperson, C. O. T. Williams, F. R. Charman, Chas. Noblett, ex-J. G. Pillsbury and Chas. Meserve.
 R. Staub has retired from the mercantile business in Oregon City, and has sold his grocery store to Marr & Robertson, the Seventh street grocers, who will probably continue to run in connection with their Seventh street store. Mr. Staub has built up a good trade and has proved himself to be an upright, pushing business man. He has not as yet decided what business he will again engage in.
 Monday night the store of R. L. Russell at Parkplace was broken into and a lot of clothes, pair of shoes, hat, gloves, some underwear, 14 pocket knives, a dollar's worth of stamps and 75 pennies were taken, amounting to about $40. It is evident the thief was a tramp from the way he selected the goods. His entrance was effected by breaking the front show window. No trace of him has as yet been found.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Miss Pearl Meldrum is very ill with typhoid fever.
 Mr. Ned Lawrence left for Astoria last week.
 Miss Adie Lemety, of Gervais, is visiting Mrs. W. L. Suidow, of this city, this week.
 Friday where he expects to remain during the winter.
 S. H. Orr, recently of Illinois, has accepted the position of clerk in County Judge Hayes office.
 Mrs. Joseph Hedges, who is visiting her oldest son, John Hedges at Tacoma, is expected home soon.
 Miss A. Thurlow, of Portland, is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Mrs. J. C. Bradley.
 Col. W. L. White has returned from an extended trip to Seattle, and is considerably improved in health.
 Mrs. A. G. Hall, of Cascade Locks, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Robinson, of the Electric Hotel.
 Miss Marguerita Wall, daughter of Rev. Henry Wall, librarian of the free reading room, is laid up with a sprained ankle.
 J. C. Baird, of Medford, spent Saturday and Sunday with his sisters in this city, Miss Ana Baird and Mrs. A. S. Dresser.
 Miss Grace Whitlock entertained a number of her young friends last Thursday evening. The occasion was a most delightful one.
 F. T. Griffith, of the firm of O'Neill, Hedges, Thompson & Griffith, made a trip to Gervais and Woodburn Monday on legal business.
 Hon. John Myers, of Portland, spent Wednesday in Oregon City viewing the scenes around his old home and looking after business matters.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hodgkin, of Salem, was in the city Saturday. They came down to visit Mrs. Hodgkin's mother, Mrs. Jennings.
 Fred Meyer has accepted a position in the law office of C. D. & D. C. Latourrette, and in addition to his other duties, will take up the study of law.
 J. F. D. Myers, of Marquam, a prominent citizen of that section, was in Oregon City Monday, on business connected with the county judge's office.
 Miss Nellie Younger, the teacher of the Marks Prairie school, came down Saturday morning, and spent a couple of days at home, returning Sunday evening.
 Fred Hedges is reading medicine in the office of Drs. Carl and Sommer. After finishing his studies in this office he will complete his course at some leading medical college.
 F. C. Burke and his nephew, Grant Burke, both of Kalama, Wash., were in the city last Saturday. They are old-time friends of Sheriff Maddock, and were making him a short visit.
 Mrs. J. Goldsmith, of Eugene, who has been visiting the family of J. Bolack for the past two weeks, returned home Wednesday morning. She was accompanied by her infant son.
 Attorney E. E. Wilson returned Tuesday from a brief business trip to Portland. It is said that since his return the Portland-Oregon City motor line has declared a dividend.—Corvallis Gazette.
 J. C. Buchanan, of the Willamette Paper & Pulp Mills, resigned his position and left for the East last Saturday for Boston, Mass. He has filled the position of night superintendent for the past nine months.
 George E. Waggoner, of Prineville, who recently completed a contract of surveying government lands in the Cascade mountains, has been here for several days, and is busy at the county surveyor's office writing up his field notes.
 Mrs. Sarah Bird and daughter, Miss Dickey, of Clatsop Beach, after visiting the family of W. B. Partlow at Mount Pleasant for several days, left for Salem Monday morning where they will visit relatives and friends for a short time.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chris Kocher, of Marks' Prairie, were in the city last Saturday, and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Kocher recently made a sale of his hops at six and a half cents per pound. He was very much gratified to even get this figure, notwithstanding he had a time contract for eight cents per pound.
 Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bradley recently went to Eastern Oregon, and while there the former was taken very ill. He was brought home a couple of weeks ago, and placed in the Oregon City hospital for treatment. He has so far recovered as to be able to walk around town.
 J. B. Robinson came up from Sacramento last Friday, and Saturday evening he returned home accompanied by Mrs. Robinson and children, who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. F. L. Cochran for the past three weeks. Mr. Robinson's visit was necessarily brief by reason of his duties in California, he being a civil engineer in the employ of the S. P. Co., and has charge of the extension works for the company.
 Hon. A. H. Carson, of Grant's Pass, was in the city and county for several days during the past. He is making a horticultural survey of the state for the Oregon agricultural college, and examined a number of orchards in the vicinity of Oregon City, Canby and Milwaukie. Mr. Carson is an orchardist and nurseryman of many years experience, and has a thorough knowledge of fruit pests. Mr. Carson takes special pains to inform the owner of each orchard he visits how to prevent the appearance, how to get rid of and how to detect fruit pests of different kinds. Mr. Carson left for Washington county Monday morning.

 G. W. Morgan, of Gladstone, and B. Noble of this place left Friday for Clatsop county, Wash., where they go to see what kind of homestead land there is yet vacant.
 George A. Steel, superintendent of the East Side Railway Company, has made an order that the cars shall run to the end of the track on Main street, instead of stopping a block this side of the terminus, as has been the practice heretofore. The order was made last Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hoyt, of Forest Grove, are in the city the guests of Mrs. Hoyt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Taber, of Mt. Pleasant. Mrs. Hoyt will spend the winter with her parents while Mr. Hoyt goes East to take a course in the Hortological institute at Peoria, Ill.
 Dennis Perry and wife of Sacramento, California, were in the city the first of the week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sleight. Mr. Perry is connected with the electric light company in Sacramento and found much pleasure in visiting the different plants and manufactories here.
 Mr. and Mrs. Greene Olds, pioneers of '47, and former residents of Oregon City, but for years past residents of Middleton, Washington county, were in the city during the fore part of the week visiting Mr. Olds' cousin, David Olds. They also spent a few days with Mr. Olds' brother, J. H. Olds who resides below the city on the Willamette. They find many changes in Oregon City yet much to remind them of their early days that were spent here.
 M. P. Christianson, wife and family, accompanied by Mrs. Christianson's daughters, Miss Minerva Barney and Mrs. Sarah McTimmonds and the latter's two children, arrived overland from their home in Polk county, some time since and are visiting C. E. and S. D. Barney, sons of Mrs. Christianson. They lived in Oregon City from 1882 to '89 when they moved to their present location, and have not been here since so find a number of changes in the town since then. They leave today for their home.
 A Good Man Dies.
 Died, at his home near Wilsonville, on Monday, November 4, of heart failure, FRANK M. KRUSE, aged 40 years, 5 months and 28 days.
 The burial took place Tuesday afternoon in the Tualatin cemetery near Stafford. The services were conducted by the Tualatin grange, of which Mr. Kruse was a charter member, and had filled all of its important offices. The beautiful and impressive rites of the order were finely rendered by the members under the direction of Past Grand Master H. E. Hayes and Chaplain O. Eaton. At the house, before the procession started, an address of wonderful force and pathos was delivered by Dr. Clarke, the noted free thought orator of San Jose, California, who was an old time friend of the family. At the grave also the doctor gave a short address and benediction that was highly appropriate and fitting to the occasion. The concourse of friends was so great that at the time of leaving the house the procession was over three-quarters of a mile long, and on their arrival at the cemetery nearly an equal number of vehicles with their occupants were already present. Many friends from a distance were at the funeral. A large number of the leading citizens of Oregon City, Oswego, Canby, and other places in the county, were present, as well as from Portland and other places outside, to show their appreciation of the worth of their departed friend. After the ceremonies were over the grave was completely covered with a mass of flowers, many bouquets of rare beauty and design being among the offerings of the friends and neighbors of the deceased. The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kruse, pioneers of Oregon, who settled on the land where they now reside in 1852, and where their son was born and lived during his life time. Besides his parents he leaves three brothers, J. Loren Kruse, a prosperous farmer residing near the old home, Albert O. Kruse, purser on one of the steamboats belonging to the Kellogg Transportation Co. on the lower Columbia, and Homer L. Kruse, a music teacher of Portland.
 He was a strong, robust man until two years ago last April when he suffered a slight attack of paralysis. Since then he has been in failing health though able to be about. On the Sunday evening preceding his death he hitched his buggy and drove over to his brother Loren's place about a mile distant and spent the evening. While there he ate a lunch and appeared in better spirits and health than for some time past. He arrived home about nine o'clock in the evening and putting his horse in the barn returned to his room. At ten o'clock he awoke a hired man who slept in an adjoining room and asked him to call his father. Mr. Kruse went immediately to his sons assistance and found him suffering but little, but with a disposition to vomit

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:
 "I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 13 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I haven't lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4 1/2 inches and weigh 220 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."
 Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.50 bottles for $5.00 or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Restores Health
 constantly. This soon subsided and he lapsed into a state of unconsciousness from which he never rallied, he ceasing to breathe without a struggle at two o'clock that night. At the time his father came to him he talked freely and stated that his time was up and that nothing would help him. Assistance was immediately sent for to no avail for Frank was soon beyond earthly help. His mother was in Portland visiting friends and was quickly sent for arriving home the next day. The other members of the family were also summoned as well as notice sent to intimate friends.
 Mr. Kruse held many important positions of honor and trust during his life time, and could have had others would he have accepted. He was a justice of the peace for over ten years, and instead of fostering, he always discouraged trouble between neighbors and did much to maintain that peace and harmony for which Tualatin precinct has been noted for. He was prominent in republican politics and was frequently a member of county and state conventions of the party. No man ever said anything truthfully against Frank Kruse's honor and manhood, for he was one of Nature's nobleman and numbered his friends by the number of his acquaintances. His was a life that the world can ill afford to lose.
 The Chauntauqua circle will meet at C. H. Casfield's next Monday evening with Prof. Holmes as conductor, as Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye will be out of the city.
