Mountain View Hose Company Admitted to the Fire Department.

The regular monthly session of the city council was held Wednesday evening, November 6th, Mayor Straight in the chair, and present, T. W. Fouts, recorder; Charles E. Burns, Chief of Police; councilmen, L. L. Porter, H. C. Stevens, J. W. Moffat, J. J. Cooke, Benjamin Jaggar, George Broughton, Mack Howeil; absent, Henry Meldrum

A communication was received from the Mountain View Hose Company, of Ely, signed by J. N. Harrington and others, stating that had adopted a conetitution, held meetings, and that they were some distance from the engine house of Hose Company No. 3, and that that part of the city needed fire protection. In consideration of these facts they asked to be admitted as members a mighty storm of applause from the of the Oregon City fire department.
