For the ailments in the kidneys and bladder incident to declining years there is no remedy that produces such immediate and satisfactory results as Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm. Its genial and invigorating effect on the liver and kidneys is remarkable. Price $1. For sale by C. G. Huntley, druggist.

The Shakers have made a great hit. Their Digestive Cordial is said to be the most successful remedy for stomach troubles ever introduced. It immediately relieves all pain and distress after eating, builds up the feeble system and makes the weak strong.

The fact is, foods properly digested are better than so-called tonics. The Cordial not only contains food already digested, but is a digester of other foods. Food that is not digested does more harm than good. People who use the Cordial insure the digestion of what food they eat, and in this way get the benefit of it and grow strong.

The little pamphlets which the Shakers have sent druggists for free distribution contain much information on the subject of dyspepsia.

LAXOL is not a mixture of drugs. It is nothing but Castor Oil made palatable.

Edwin Bair, the 18 year-old son of Cornelius Bair, of Needy, was accidentally shot by Thomas Hoover, of the same place, last Friday. They were hunting pheasants and when one was seen to suddenly fly up, both boys shot at once at it, the contents of one barrel of young Hoover's gun striking Mr. Bair in the right shoulder and ranging upward through his chin, shattered his neck and chin badly. In Memoriam.

IN MEMORY OF PEARL M. ELLIOTT MAPLE.

Her of whom we write was the second daughter of John W. and Helen Elliott, of Marquam's precinct, Clackamas county Oregon. Pearl was born April 13, 1872. She early developed into an attractive and lovely child and was admired and loved by all who knew her. Her parents desiring that she should have better opportunities of an education than they could afford her at their home, solicited of her aunt, Mrs. J. T. Apperson, who then lived at Mount Pleasant, that she would take Pearl and give this child the opportunity of attending the school near the Apperson home, and at the age of 8 years this child was committed by her parents to the care of her aunt and uncle, with whom she has ever found a welcome home. Pearl's amiable and sweet temper and ways as a child won for her the love and affection of not only her relatives but all who knew her. Her teachers ever speak of her as an amiable and lovely child and she was the favorite with about all the scholars with whom she attended school.

In after years Pearl as a woman won for herself by her sweet and amiable ways toward those with whom she became acquainted that respect, admiration and love that was to be expected from so attractive and interesting a child. She was unanimously esteemed and loved by all her acquaintances. Her parents and relatives felt proud of her as a woman to be loved and respected.

Pearl M. Elliott was united in marriage to Wm. S. Maple at the residence of her aunt and uncle, with whom she has been making her home for so long a time on September 24, 1894 with her chosen companion they settled in Park-place where they have been making their home and Pearl Maple has taken an active interest in all matters of church and Sunday school at this place and Oregon City and has continued to win new friends. This amiable, useful and loved woman departed this life on November 11, 1895, leaving to the bereaved husband, relatives and friends and infant son.

We will all remember that we who survive can look back and appreciate that we have ever been benefited and made better by reason of our acquaintance with this lamented relative and friend.

A FRIEND.

Musical Society Formed.

A very interesting musical society has been formed for the special study of classical authors and their compositions. The society held its second meeting last Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. E. E. Williams, who has been chosen president of the society. Miss Hattie E. Monroe secretary, and Miss Ora Spangler, Mrs. A. S. Dresser and Miss Myrtle Stevens have been appointed as program committee.

While the main object of the society is to study the works of classical composers, yet some of the more modern music will receive attention. The program for the next meeting is as follows:

"Sketch of the life of Johann Sebastian Bach"—Miss Neita McCarver.

Piano solo—Johann Sebastian Bach—Miss L. Draper.

"Music of the Orient"—Mrs. Chas. Canfield.

Vocal Duette—Misses Neita Barlow and Florence Morey.

The meetings will be held every Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. E. E. Williams

A Chautauqua Worker.

The Willamette Valley Chautauqua association has appointed Mrs. Amelia Q. Mead of Mt Tabor as State organizer of Chautauqua circles. Mrs. Mead is a graduate of the parent Chautauqua in the second class that ever graduated and is a great enthusiast in Chautauqua work. She is a charming talker, has traveled all over Europe and instructs and entertains wherever she speaks. She is now in Eastern Oregon organizing circles and will shortly return and do Chautauqua work in the Willamette valley.

Edward Rinearson has bought the cigar stand in the Commercial Bank block and is having several new features added to the place. He has secured the adjoining room back of Farnsworth's barber shop and has taken the partition out and put in a billiard table as one of the new attractions of his stand.

Miss Spangler will play one of Hensell's folk-songs, "Chanson d'Amour," at the musicale this Friday evening. Few pianists have the sympathetic touch and expressive interpretation of Miss Spangler.

The Snagboat Corvallis is again at the Clackamas rapids taking out rock obstructions. It is hoped that they will succeed in permanently improving this part of the river.

Marriage licenses have been granted by County Clerk Horton to Eva Brookman and Charles Krebs, Julia Tacharnig and Ludwig Hardke.

Fire at Needy.

The ENTERPRISE Barlow correspondent sends the following under date of November 15th: The people of Needy were in great excitement when they were aroused by a fire in the general merchandise store of Ogle & Warnick. The fire was first noticed about 2:30 this morning, and attempts were made to save some of the merchandise, but the fire was too well under headway and the explosion of cartridges and powder made it unsafe to enter, and in consequence nothing was saved, consuming as it did all the merchandise, postoffice supplies and mail together with the household goods of Mr. Wormick, who lived in the rear of the store. The flames leaped into the blacksmith shop some 60 or 80 feet and soon did its work on that building, the tools and contents of which were saved however, save the household goods of Mr. Ogle, who lived over the shop. The store building belonged to J. H. Hardesty, but at this writing are unable to learn whether or not he had it insured. The loss to Ogle & Warnick is quite heavy, having just finished an invoice which showed over $2000 stock, with but $1000 in the Phoenix of Hartford.

From other sources it is learned that F. C. Perry, of Molalla, had purchased the store and intended to take possession soon. There was no insurance on the building. The blacksmith shop was the property of C. Hoffman, and the loss was $500 with no insurance. Over the blacksmith shop was Liberal hall, in which was the lodge paraphernalia belonging to the Junior Order United American Mechanics, which held regular meetings there. The old store building was built by Jaf. G. Vinson in 1858 and afterward enlarged by the Rev. Jesse Moreland, father of Judge Moreland of Portland, who bought it in 1861.

Thousands of both men and women whose daily life is making severe drafts on their vitality, require something that will bring new material to the worn out nerve centers. This is just what Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine does.

"I had been suffering for years from headaches, neuralgia, sleeplessness, and general nervous prostration, unfitting me for social, household and business duties, and, periodically, was completely prostrated with pain. I tried several physicians and a great many remedies, but received no benefits until I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, when I found almost immediate relief, and have become quite my former self and am again able to attend to my business, which is that of a brush manufacturer. I have recommended the Nervine to others who have used it with the same good results."

Milwaukee, Wis. Mrs. ANNA PEREIRA.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.50 bottles for $5, or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
