Mrs. Matilda Charman left last Saturday for Portland where she will make her home during the winter with Mrs. T. A. McBride, on 14th street, between Clay and Market.

Henry Meldrum has completed his Southeastern Oregon surveying contract, and arrived home last Friday evening. Stony Vaughn and Wm. Helix, who assisted him in the work, also returned at the same time.

Mrs. Fred H. Fuller and her two children returned last Sunday morning from a six month's visit to California. She spent most of the time with her parents at Stockton, and also visited friends at Woodland. They have moved into the new dwelling at Gladstone, erected by Mr. Fuller while family were away.

The brick pavement on Main street is just now in a very nasty, muddy condition. Peter Nehren, the efficient janitor of the court house, has set an example that should be followed by other people residing along the street. It is not very creditable to the city to allow the principal paved thoroughfare to remain covered with a couple of inches of mud.

A Remarkable Announcement.

A brief paragraph can hardly do justice to the interesting announcements which the Youth's Companion makes the coming year. Not only will some of the most delightful story-writers contribute to the paper, but many of the most eminent statesmen, jurists and scientists of the world. No fewer than three cabinet ministers are announced, among them being the Secretary of Agriculture, who chooses for a subject "Arbor Day," the celebration of which he originated; Secretary Herbert writes on "What the President of the United States Does," and Secretary Hoke Smith on "Our Indians."

In a fascinating group of articles under the head of "How I Served My Apprenticeship," Frank R. Stockton tells how he became an author, General Nelson A. Miles gives reminiscences of his army days, and Andrew Carnegie recalls his earliest struggles in getting a business footing.

The publishers of the Youth's Companion make the following liberal offer: New subscribers who will send at once their name and address and $1.75, will receive free a handsome four-page calendar for 1896 (7x10 in), lithographed in nine colors, the retail price of which is 50 cents, The Companion free every week until January 1, 1896, the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's double numbers free, and the Youth's Companion fifty-two week, a full year to 1897. Address,

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
195, Columbus Ave., Boston.

The Thespian club met at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Chase Wednesday evening, and rehearsed several parts of the new play, which will be presented to the public in a few weeks. The play is entitled "Strife," and is full of live dramatic incidents. It is a new production and represents a contest between labor and capital. There are 13 characters, although it can be played with 11. The cast of characters is now being made up from different members of the club.

"Maharah's Original Colored Minstrels," was side-tracked at this point, and shortly thereafter we were treated to some fine music by the colored band on parade. The sale of seats became brisk and at the hour of the opening of the evening performance Battery Hall was packed to the doors. To say that the entertainment came up to expectations but mildly expresses the feelings of the audience, for, from start to finish they were kept in a state of hearty good humor, and accorded the colored artists rounds of applause.—Kearney, Neb., News.

This troupe will appear at Shively's on Friday evening of this week.

Eggs are an exceedingly scarce article in the Oregon City market, and they sell for the remunerative price of thirty-five cents per dozen. The poultry business is one of the neglected industries of Clackamas county, especially when eggs are a good price.

Rev. S. W. Stryker received ten new members into the M. E. church last Sunday. This makes 19 additions to the church since the new pastor took charge of the work. Mr. Stryker has more than met the expectations of his friends, and has proven himself to be a very valuable acquisition to the ministerial talent of Oregon City. Wednesday Mr. Stryker received a handsome carved oak revolving chair for his study from the congregation of the Clarke M. E. church, Portland, whose pastor Mr. Stryker was before coming to Oregon City. It was accompanied by a letter expressive of their gratitude for the work done with them, and well wishes for his labors in this city.

The trial of D. S. M. Fretwell, of the Shores Medicine Company, on a charge of practicing medicine without a license, occupied the attention of Justice Dixon's court all day Friday. By stipulation of the attorneys the matter was left to four jurymen, Robert Wilson, Clark Fuge, Daniel Williams and William Quinn. The jury could not agree and two stood for conviction and two for acquittal. Further hearing of the case was postponed until day (Friday), when a new jury will be empaneled. The penalty for practicing medicine without a license is from $50 to $100.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by G. A. Harding, Druggist.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer—Sir: After suffering for four years with female weakness I was persuaded by a friend to try your Pastilles, and after using them one year, I can say I am entirely well. I can not recommend them too highly.

YEARS OF INTENSE PAIN.

Dr. J. H. Watts, druggist and physician, Humboldt, Neb., who suffered with heart disease for four years, trying every remedy and all treatments known to himself and fellow-practitioners; believes that heart disease is curable. He writes: "I wish to tell what your valuable medicine has done for me. For four years I had heart disease of the very worst kind. Several physicians I consulted, said it was

Rheumatism of the Heart.
It was almost undurable; with shortness of breath, palpitations, severe pains, unable to sleep, especially on the left side. No pen can describe my sufferings, particularly during the last months of those four weary years. I finally tried

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and was surprised at the result. It put new life into and made a new man of me. I have not had a symptom of trouble since and I am satisfied your medicine has cured me for I have now enjoyed, since taking it

Three Years of Splendid Health.
I might add that I am a druggist and have sold and recommended your Heart Cure, for I know what it has done for me and only wish I could state more clearly my suffering then and the good health I now enjoy. Your Nervine and other remedies also give excellent satisfaction." J. H. WATTS, Humboldt, Neb., May 9, '94.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1, 6 bottles for $5, or it will be sent prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
