Whatever a stove ought to do, it ought to do well. To bother with a stove that is difficult to manage, that is liable to get clogged up, or that as an unfortunate habit of doing exactly what your neithe expect nor want, is a mistake. Our Charter Oak Stove is a model of what a stove ought to be. It calls for no extravagant consumption of wood; it can be kept in perfect order without the least difficulty; it is an ornament to the apartment which it cheers and warms, and its durability is remarkable. What is perhaps to the point as much as anything else is that it costs comparatively little. A bad stove is a nuisance; a good one is a luxury. We warrant fire-backs for 10 years in Charter Oak Stoves. We sell a cheaper grade, No. 8, for only $8.00.

BARLOW NEWS.

Young Ladies Have a Leap Year Ball—Great Prize Drawing.

THE B. W. M. CO.'S PRIZES.—As was arranged, at exactly eleven o'clock a m., Saturday, a committee was selected to count the beans in the jar, by the crowd of people who had gathered in the store to learn their fate in regard to the prizes. The following were selected: Messrs. J. H. Daly, D. J. Parmenter, Chris. Zeigler, P. L. Coleman, P. H. Mulloy, Andy Koerber, Ed Miller, George Schiell and George Boebert, and they immediately repaired to the hall above and counted the beans three times to avoid mistake, finding the jar to contain exactly 6589 beans. The gentlemen were aided in their count by nuts, candy and cigars which were furnished by the ever popular Barlow-Will Merchantile company. The nearest guess was 6590 by William Krause of Aurora, who won the handsome clock which was first prize; the second prize, a beautiful Rochester lamp, was won by Mrs. William Barlow, whose guess was 6599; third prize, silver plated castor, H. Choat of Hubbard, guess 6600; fourth a silver plated fruit basket, John Moeburger of Macksburg, guess 6600; fifth, one handsome dress pattern, French novelty goods, Louis Grazer of Barlow, guess 6573; sixth, ladies' coat, late pattern, Fred Moeburger, Molalla, guess 6564; seventh, boy's suit, Andy Koerber, Mark's Prairie, guess 6555; eighth, gents' Fedora hat, Miss Viva Tull of Barlow, guess 6560; ninth, one pair C. LITERARY MEETS.—Last Friday evening, Columbia hall was fairly crowded with our townspeople and visitors from the surrounding country. There were fifteen or twenty couples from Canby. What was the attraction? Why the Columbia Literary and Debating society met. The program rendered was the "Old People's" and was a very creditable one. The following named participated: Violin Solo, Prof. W. S. Tull; Song, Mrs. W. Barlow; Reading, Mrs. J. C. Adams; Song, Mrs. Thomas Pursey; Reminiscences of Early Oregon Life, Mr. William Barlow; Music, Mrs. M. W. Sheppard; Stories of North Carolina Life, Mr. Thomas Pusey. By request, Miss Mable Hollenbeck, who was visiting here, recited "Harry Conquest's Wife," which was well received and showed the young lady to be quite an elocutionist, also by request, Cass U. Barlow told his "stuttering story" in such a way that he fairly brought down the house. Judge W. W. Jesse of East Portland, was the guest of honor and he was given a seat near the president. He, it was, who acted as the first president of the society when it was organized some three or four years ago, and the society is always glad to welcome him. The following are now serving as officers: president, Miss Bessie Sheppard; vice president, Carey M. Ramsby; secretary, J. E. Marks; treasurer, Miss Effie Adams; janitor, William B. Tull; sergeant-at-arms, Chris. Zeigler. Being the first meeting of the year, it was decided to omit the debate and allow the young people to engage in the "light fantastic" which they did until a late hour. Music was furnished by Prof. W. S. Tull and C. M. Ramsby.

TURKEY SHOOTING.—A great crowd assembled to take part in the turkey shooting and raffling last Saturday, and a thoroughly enjoyable time was had. There were seventeen fine, fat turkeys put up and there being some fine shots in the crowd, the target was hit very often, and consequently some were fortunate to carry home two or three birds.

LEAF YEAR DANCE.—The ladies of the grange will, on the 18th, give a sheet and pillow slip ghost dance, with admission—ladies 25c, gentlemen free, all spectators five cents. Everyone should attend as a fine time is anticipated.

Commendable Resolution for the New Year.

Good resolutions are in order at all times, but especially so at New Years; and one of the best resolutions, that will, if adhered to, be the source of incalculable pleasure throughout the year, is to subscribe forthwith to Demorest's Family Magazine, the January number of which is just received, and of which we cannot speak too highly. It is a veritable New Year treat. From the first page to the last every one is bright and interesting, and most of the articles are profusely illustrated. Special space is given to "Woman's Industries at the Atlanta Exposition" and "Some Recent International Marriages"; there are stories by Joseph Hatton, Carlyle Smyth, and Mrs. McCulloch-Williams; poems by William H. Hayne, Lee C. Harby, and John O. Coit; and brilliant farce, "Betty's Pappa," by Fanny Aymar Mathews. The Care of the Skin will interest every woman, also "Milady's Tea-Table" and "Flowers for Weddings and Dinners"; and mothers with bright children will find "Suggestions for Children's Parties" useful at this season. The fashions are, as usual, varied and modish and yet practical withal; and the pattern order given in this department entitles the holder to exceptional privileges regarding patterns of the models illustrated.

Every one who will take the trouble to cut out this notice and forward it, with ten cents, to the address below, will receive a sample copy of Demorest's Magazine, containing a pattern order which entitles the holder to any pattern illustrated in any number of the Magazine published during the last twelve months, at the uniform price of four cents each; and frequently over thirty patterns are illustrated in one number, thus affording an almost unlimited variety to select from. Demorest's is published for $2.00 a year by the Demorest Publishing Co., 110 Fifth Avenue, New York, and special inducements are offered for Clubs. For sale at Huntley's book store.

The January Harper's Magazine.

The oldest is not always necessarily the best, but in the case of Harper's magazine, one would have to look a long time to find as good and then we doubt if they could find it. The January number is unusually good and below will be found the contents contributed by its well-known writers and which will be found very interesting:
"In Washington's Day," by Woodrow Wilson; "The Story of Miss Pi," by Julian Ralph; "Diverse," a poem, by Anna C. Brackett; "The United States Naval Academy," by T. R. Lounsbury; "On Snow-Shoes to the Barren Grounds" by Casper W. Whitney; "Brisels," a novel, by William Black; "The German Struggle for Liberty," by Poultnier Bigelow; "Twenty-four: Four," a story by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps; "London's Underground Railways" by Elizabeth Robins Pennell; "Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc," by Louis De Conte; "The Courtship of Colonel Bill," a story by J. J. Eakins; "Editor's Study" by Charles Dudley Warner; "Monthly Record of Current Events"; Editor's Drawer, with introductory story by Ruth McEnery Stuart; Literary Notes by Laurence Hatton.
