The roll was ing, January 18, the school house being called at both meetings and was re- engaged for the evening first announced sponded to in person and otherwise by 187 members, a number of whom had not been heard from for several months. Annual reports were made by the different departments of the work, which showed most encouraging results. About $4,200 was raised, including $325 for the home mission work, which is the largest contribution for this work by any Baptist church in the state. Twentyseyen new members were received during the year, and there are several more to be received soon. The Sunday school, Young People's Society, Ladies' Aid Society, Women's Home and Foreign Mission Societies, and three mission Sunday schools, were all reported to be in a prosperous condition, and the outlook for the year to come is very encouraging
