PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT...

We hereby extend our most sincere thanks to our dear friends and to the kind public generally, for their generous patronage during the year 1895. Although times were bad and money scarce, our business was better than the year previous. Our aim was, is, and always shall be, to buy no shoddy goods, because even if you have to pay a little more for a genuine article than you do for an imitation, you know that you get value for your money—but in the other case, you are out your money and have nothing to show for it.

We Have Gained the Confidence of the People and That is the Zenith of Our Ambition.

We beg for a continuance of your patronage and we assure you that you will be well pleased. We wish you all a happy new year and the many blessings of the incoming season, but above all—God's blessing.
Yours to command,

McKittrick, "The Shoe Man,"
Next door to Oregon City Bank, Oregon City.
