SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Sixth Annual Convention to be Held at Milwaukee.

The sixth annual convention of the Clackamas County Sunday School association will be held in the Evangelical church at Milwaukee on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, February 21, 22 and 23.

As this is a mass convention, there is no restriction on the number of delegates a Sunday school may send and it is expected that schools will send a strong delegation of their brightest and best workers. The superintendents and secretaries of the various Sunday schools are asked to be prompt in filling out the blank reports that have been sent to them and to return them by mail to the county secretary, B. German revival services are now being held at the Evangelical church, corner of Eighth and Madison streets, by Rev. H. E. Hornschuch, the pastor. The services will continue for several weeks and already considerable interest is being manifested. This church now has some 50 members and is in a healthy growing condition. The Sunday school is doing a good work and is adding new scholars from time to time. Rev. Hornschuch is indefatigable in his labors for his people and the prosperity of his church is largely owing to his efficient work.

Obituary.

Died, at Redland, Oregon, January 30, 1896, after a lingering illness, John Higgins, a native of Cork, Ireland.

Deceased came to the United States in 1846. He enlisted the same year at Buffalo, N. Y. as a marine on the U. S. frigate Independence, Pacific squadron, under Comadore Shubrick and took part in the naval demonstration on the western coast of Mexico and California during the Mexican war. He received his discharge at Norfolk Va. in 1849. He enlisted again during the Civil war and served fifteen months in Co. E. 50th Wisconsin infantry. In 1853 he was married to Miss Sarah A. Warren, who survives him. In 1873 Mr. and Mrs. Higgins emigrated to Oregon where they settled on a farm in this county, on which they have resided up to his death. A year after they settled here, Mr. Higgins met with a terrible accident. While clearing land at ree fell on him, mangle him in a shocking manner. After hovering between life and death for many weary months, through the patient care of his devoted wife, he slowly came back to life, though a cripple and with shattered health. He bore all his sufferings patiently and uncomplainingly. He was a good husband, a kind, unselfish neighbor, a good inoffensive citizen whose integrity was unquestioned. In the 22 years of his residence here, he has made hosts of friends who deeply regret his death. Mr. Higgins was a member of the Catholic communion and the funeral services of that church were conducted by Rev. A. Hillebrand, who delivered a very able and patriotic discourse. The burial service of the Grand Army of the Republic was also read at the grave as requested by him, he being a member of Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R. of Oregon City.

Mrs. Higgins desires to extend her heartfelt thanks to the kind friends who assisted her during the illness and death of her husband. Words cannot express her deep gratitude.
L. D. J.

Religious Discussion.

We learn that arrangements have been made between Bishop W. Dillon of the United Brethren church and Elder W. M. Healey, of the Seventh Day Adventists denomination to hold a public discussion in Oregon City for several days beginning March 10 and debate the Sabbath question, as to which day should be observed, according to the bible, Saturday or Sunday?

They will also discuss the nature of man, and the condition of the soul and spirit after death.

Both these men are disputants of more than local reputation and will doubtless ably represent the views of their respective denominations.

BARLOW NEWS.

Barlow Grows Apace—New Life in the Literary Society—Other Notes.

MORE INTEREST MANIFESTED.—A larger crowd than was expected attended the last meeting of the literary society, and a renewed interest was evinced, as shown by the new members placed upon the roll. President Marks being absent, Mrs. J. C. Adams presided and showed herself to be an ideal president, having as she did perfect control and maintaining perfect order. The program consisting of songs, recitations, etc. was nicely rendered, following which was the debate, "Resolved, that animals reason," which was decided in the negative. Mr. O. W. Quint and others made some well chosen remarks to the younger members of the society, and we hope they will profit by the good advice. The question for the next debate is a light one intended for the younger people, none over twenty years of age being allowed to enter in the debate. It is, Resolved, That the cat is a better pet than the dog, with Miss Myrtle Ramsby on the affirmative and Miss Clara Irvin on the negative.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHE.—The third meeting of the euche club was held at Mrs. M. W. Sheppard's and an enjoyable time was had by those present. Some fine playing was done. The lady's prize for progressions, a violet drape, was won by Mrs. O. W. Quint; gentleman's prize, shaving ball, was won by Mr. J. C. Andrews; the prize for lone hands, a fine deck of cards, was carried away by O. W. Quint, and the booby prize, "A dead beat," was won by Mrs. W. W. Irvin. Fine refreshments were served and about midnight the party dispersed. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. W. W. Irvin's.

POINTS TO BETTER TIMES.—From the activity seen among our real estate men a couple of days last week, it now looks as if real estate will begin to move, as two trades of no little consequence are now in contemplation, and it is looked for in the near future that quite a big transaction will take place.

SCHOOL WILL CLOSE.—This month will be the last of school for this term, owing to having used up all funds appropriated for that purpose. The probability is we will have more money from the county, state and district this year to maintain a longer time of school the coming term.

ANOTHER BUSINESS ESTABLISHED.—Mr. J. Floyd of Hubbard, has opened a butcher shop here on Main street, in the Schmidt building. Mr. Floyd is an experienced butcher who keeps a neat and inviting shop, and will no doubt work up a fine business in the future.
