A Successful Concert.

The St. Cecilia chorus' grand concert given last Tuesday evening was a most decided success and reflected much credit upon the singers as well as upon the able instruction and successful leadership of Miss Neida Barlow, whose pupils made up the personnel of the chorus. The opera house was comfortably filled with an appreciative and discriminating audience. The hearty applause which greeted each number showing how well pleased everyone was with the entertainment and the encouragement which each appearance were given in a spirit which precluded the refusal of a return. The combination of these voices in chorus work was a happy one, the strong sopranos, the deep contraltos and the lower intermediate voices making perfect harmony and with the excellent time kept, brought their music up to a standard unexcelled before in this city. The appearance of the ladies in pretty evening dresses of delicate shades added interest to the occasion. The criticism of Mrs. Walter Reed, one of the best vocal instructors on the Coast, who was present, was of a generous nature, she predicting a bright future for these singers who with so little practice, made so perfect a success and complimented Miss Barlow highly. The following ladies are members of the chorus and took part in the concert: Sopranos—Miss Florence Morey, Miss Kate Ward, Miss Minnie Kuerten, Miss Vera Pillsbury, Miss Mary Conners, Mrs. W. C. Cheney, Miss May Kelly, Miss Mertie Stevens, Contraltos—Mrs. Charles H. Canfield, Miss Hattie Monroe, Mrs. B. M. Doolittle, Miss Etra Pope, Miss Mattie Draper. Their songs, which were interspersed with the solos, included "In Spring," by Barzani, "Summer Fancies," by O. Metra, "Last Night," by Kjerulf Reed, "Greeting to Spring," by Wilson and the "Cuckoo Song."
