U. A. MILLER, SUPT.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1896.

ARTISAN ENTERTAINMENT.—Oregon City Assembly No. 7, United Artisans, held their first grand open meeting at Willamette Hall on Wednesday evening. A splendid program was presented, which was duly appreciated by the large audience that filled the hall, and who had responded to the invitations sent them. First on the program was a piano duet by Misses Celia Goldsmith and Beatrice Barlow, followed with a stirring address by District Deputy J. C. Goldstein, of Portland, who presented the claims of the new order in a convincing way. Mrs. Sadie White and C. A. Miller both favored the audience with popular solos, which were appreciably enjoyed. Miss Betta Fouts very acceptably rendered a violin solo, and responded to an encore. O. B. Whitmore, of Portland, made another earnest appeal for the good of the order, followed with a piano duet by Misses Celia Goldsmith and Beatrice Barlow. After some animal impersonations by Mr. Fritz, the hall was cleared for dancing, and a pleasant time was spent for several hours. An excellent supper was served in the hallway by Miss Host Robinson of the Electric Hotel, and the service would have done credit to a well equipped dining room. The officers of the assembly are: H. J. Martin, master-artisan; Frank T. Rogers, superintendent; A. W. Horne, inspector; Eugene Roberts, senior conductor; Mrs. F. T. Rogers, junior conductor; Mrs. Sadie White, master of ceremonies; J. T. Seanie, warden; Max Bollack, instructor; W. H. Robinson, treasurer, and G. H. Vore, secretary. The assembly meets on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at Willamette hall, and already has a membership of forty-four.

PREPARING FOR THE STATE CONVENTION.—G. H. Bestow, president of the local Christian Endeavor Union, went to Salem Monday evening, and held a conference with the executive committee of the State Y. P. S. C. E. They are arranging a provisional program for the convention, which convenes in this city April 14th. Indications are favorable that this will be the greatest convention ever held by the Endeavorers of this state. The local committees are actively at work planning and making arrangements for the great event, and all are pulling unitedly together to make the convention a grand success. Next Sunday evening at 6:30 the different Endeavor societies in the city will hold union services at the Congregational church, to which all are invited.

NEW LAND OFFICE RECEIVER.—Hon. William Galloway, the newly appointed receiver of the Oregon City land office, was in the city Tuesday accompanied by his son. He expects to take his place as soon as he receives the approval of his bond, which was forwarded to Washington some days ago. At any rate, he will probably enter upon the discharge of his duties within a week. Hon. Peter Paquet, the present incumbent, has his reports all made out and everything in readiness to turn over to his successor. It is believed that Mr. Paquet's condition will improve when the cure of his official position are once out of the way. Mr. Paquet has been an accommodating and painstaking official, but for the past few months has been unable to personally devote much time to his duties on account of illness. Mr. Galloway is a pioneer resident of McMinnville, and has always been prominently connected with public affairs in this state. He was the candidate for governor two years ago, on the democratic ticket. Mr. Galloway has not yet decided as to whether or not he will remove his family here soon.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.—The annual state encampment of the G. A. R. will take place this year at Independence, June 11, 12 and 13 being selected at the special meeting of the council of administration held at Portland, as the time which would best accommodate all concerned. The attendance at this meeting was the largest of any of the council ever held at any called meeting. Department Commander Allyn reported the work of organization in this department as being in a good, healthy condition, notwithstanding the hard times. Assistant Adjutant-General Morse reported a gain of four posts, two by muster and two by reinstatement, since the June report, and a total gain of membership of 120. It is now confidently expected to make a gain of at least 200, before the holding of the next encampment. The live residents of Independence have erected an auditorium of similar plan to the big Chautauqua auditorium at Gladstone Park, only on a smaller scale, where they propose to entertain the visiting comrades in a manner befitting the occasion.

OUR MUSICIANS.—Oregon City has in its midst a number of musical people in whom a pride cannot but be expressed and from time to time the praise, not unmerited, has been bestowed by the ENTERPRISE upon new candidates for honors as well as upon those who are well known to us, yet who are so steadily climbing up through persistent and hard study as to win the ostensible admiration of our citizens. Among those of whom little has been said recently and from whom much may be expected in the future is Miss Blanche Beatrice McCord, who is now preparing a "Song Album," for publication, the principal feature of which is the song "Barbara." While the contents of the album will not prove as difficult as her productions for the violin, yet it is said that it will prove a meritorious composition worthy of the young author.

WHAT A READABLE NEWSPAPER IS.—Concerning magazines or newspapers whose extolment or the opposite, is a leading topic of conversation between people who read, a word in favor of the Argonaut, one of the foremost American newspapers published, is timely. No long, stale arguments are piled up, one column after another, for its readers to nod over, every article being written in a short, concise manner, telling just enough in language that everyone can understand, to keep one up with the movements of the world. Beside its pithy editorial columns, its bright stories by clever authors, its up-to-date stage gossip and its literary notes and criticisms are each notable features of this much read Pacific coast newspaper. The Argonaut is published weekly and can be bought at Huntley's book store.

CRESCENT QUARTETTE.—Four youthful singers of extraordinary promise recently organized at the Congregational church under the name of the Crescent quartette. The personnel of the quartette is as follows: Miss Echo Sampson, soprano; Miss Ivy Roake, alto; Master Chester Roake, tenor; Master Abel Meresse, bass. The members of the quartette are all young, none of them being over 16 years of age. They meet twice a week for practice under the direction of Mrs. F. F. White. All have excellent voices, and will no doubt make their mark in musical circles. They are well worth hearing.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING.—A meeting of the board and those immediately connected with the management of the Y. M. C. A. was held Sunday at four o'clock. The traveling secretary, Mr. Dummitt, was present and gave them great encouragement regarding the gymnasium. H. E. Cross, chairman of the financial committee, reported about $1000 in pledges, both by subscription and membership dues. A meeting will be held Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the Methodist church at which time a permanent organization will be effected. All interested in this meeting are requested to attend.

CUT WITH A KNIFE.—In the hands of a skillful cutter, the meats sold by Albright are incomparably the best, tenderest and cheapest in the city.

Notice to Taxpayers.
As the assessor or deputies will not go out through the county this year, you are requested when in Oregon City, to come into the assessor's office and give in a statement of your taxable property, or send in list.
You will be furnished with suitable blanks.
J. C. BRADLEY, Assessor of Clackamas county.

Fitzsimmons vs. Maher.
LANGTRY, Feb. 21.—Peter Maher was knocked out by Bob Fitzsimmons today in the first round after one minute and thirty-five seconds of actual fighting in the big fight which occurred on the Rio Grande river in Mexico. Fitzsimmons played the same old game he has so often played—let on his opponent until he had him where he wanted him and then landed a light right handed stinger on the jaw and it was over. It was the identical blow that knocked on Jim Hall in New Orleans. For the first part of the round Maher had the best of it. He led often and forced the fighting. In his eagerness to get at Fitzsimmons, he committed a probable foul during a clinch, and was warned by Referee Siler that its repetition would cost him the fight.

Maher fought well, but he was no match for his red-headed opponent, who proved himself to be one of the craftiest men who ever stepped in the ring. Fitzsimmons is now, by Corbett's action in presenting the championship to Maher, the champion of the world, and after the fight was over he declared through Julian his willingness to defend the championship against any and all comers.

CORBETT SEEMS ANXIOUS.
CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Corbett had a big house at the Haymarket tonight and he was wildly cheered when he read the following telegram:

"To H. L. Beach, Associated Press correspondent, Langtry, Texas; I am in the office of the Associated Press. Tell Fitzsimmons to come to Chicago as soon as he possibly can and I will make a match with him for any amount to fight him any place on earth. Arrangements can be made in the Associated Press office, Western Union building. I leave tomorrow night and return the 1st of March. Tell Fitzsimmons to name the day he will be here between March 1st and 6th, and we will have no trouble in agreeing upon terms." (Signed) James J. Corbett.

New York Tribune.
Leader of the Republican Party.
1896.

Are You Willing to Listen to a Suggestion?

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE'S broad columns and large print make it the easiest paper in the country to read, either on the cars or at home.
Henry Romecke, proprietor of the largest Newspaper Clipping Agency in the world, testifies in a published card, that his clippings for over 4,000 clients show that THE TRIBUNE contains, "day by day and week by week, far more original matter than any daily newspaper in New York City." He proves the fact by figures. THE WEEKLY ranks the same.
Business men find the market report of THE TRIBUNE absolutely without an equal. THE TRIBUNE is the only newspaper in New York City whose reporters actually visit all the different markets in person.
THE TRIBUNE now prints the best and freshest humorous pictures of the day from the comic press of two continents, and supplies plenty of other entertainment.
By its special telegrams and correspondence, its able editorials and high literary character, THE TRIBUNE maintains a splendid position in the regard of Republicans and lovers of music, art, and good books.
THE TRIBUNE'S society news is known everywhere for excellence. Its fashions have always been of special value, and changes of style are, as a rule, foretold in THE TRIBUNE sooner than in other newspapers.
THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE is recognized, officially, as the leading newspaper of the Republican party.
As for Farming and Labor, THE TRIBUNE has for 50 years demanded, and yet demands, that every possible dollar's worth of food and commodities, consumed by the American people, shall be produced by the American people. For this cause, THE TRIBUNE labors in its various editions 365 days in every year.
A man is judged by the newspaper he takes. He who reads THE TRIBUNE is wide awake, progressive, respectable and capable, worthy of the confidence of business and social friends. If you are a young man you will live in a rat all your life (except by catering to that which is base) if you feed your mind upon newspapers, full of scandal, vulgarity and inanity. Think for a moment of the people who read newspapers of that class. On the other hand, THE TRIBUNE has probably the largest clientele of the very people who can help to improve a young man's position, of any newspaper in the United States. Associate yourself with them.
Mr. Hon continues to write for THE TRIBUNE.
