The Albright Surprise Party.

It is said that when a person reaches a certain milestone in the period of his existence that his age either begins to ge hackward or that apparently he does not have any more birthdays; but Mr. Chas. O. Altaright is an exception to this rule, he not having an opportunity to celebrats only on leap years. As another will not occur for eight years, some one resolved upon a plan to make him happy for at least a part of that time, which resulted in the gathering together of about 45 of his neighbors and old friends to give him a surprise party in honor of his 40th birthday anniversary, which fell on Friday evening of last week. They met at the residence of Mr. George Broughton and went in a body to the Albright nome taking them wholly by surprise. A most delightful evening was passed in conversation, charades and Parties intending to borrow money on other amusements. Mr. Albright was a lunch was served and the guesta departed after singing "Auld Lang Syne."
