It always does the work, and does it well." For sale by G. A. Harding, Druggist.

The news has been received that Mrs. Elizabeth Fryer, a former pioneer resident of Oregon City, died at San Jose, California, a few days ago. She is the mother of T. J. Fryer, of Independence, and leaves several other children. Mr. and Mrs. Fryer came to Oregon in 1845, and settled at Oregon City where they kept a hotel, and Mr. Fryer ran a ferry across the river to the town of Linn City, which long ago ceased to exist. Mr. and Mrs. Fryer remained here until 1852 when they removed to Polk county.

A. W. Sefton, of Portland, who some time ago brought suit against the street superintendent of Portland and a firm of contractors for damages, on account of a bank falling and killing his child, is again in the courts with the matter. He obtained judgment for $500, but has been unable to collect this amount, and asks the court to make an order requiring Street Superintendent Gradon to pay the awarded damages out of his monthly salary in installments. Sefton was foreman of the ENTERPRISE office for a brief period about four years ago.

The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian Association held a meeting Monday evening, and considered matters of special importance. It was decided to lease the old Methodist church building for the remainder of the year 1896, which will at once be fitted up with parlor, reading room, baths and athletic apparatus. A place will also be secured for out door exercises. This is the oldest church building in the city, and the home of the Y. M. C. A. will be in a structure of hallowed and historic associations.

G. A. Harding desires us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfield, of Reedley, Fresno Co., Cal., as he handles the remedy referred to and wants his customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very severe cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

Marvelous Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding la grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Charman & Co's. Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

POPULISTS MEET.

THE PLATFORM.

As to the National questions, be it Resolved by the people's party convention of Clackamas county that we endorse the principles of the Omaha platform and believe it is the right and duty of our state convention to make such declaration on National questions as may seem wise and necessary in the light of the experience and study of our people during the past four years, and we respectfully submit that in the opinion of the people's party of Clackamas county our statement of national principles should contain a declaration in favor of an initiative and referendum amendment to the national constitution as well as a pledge for its immediate voluntary application by referring to the voters of the United States for an advisory vote any question of making or repealing any national law that is demanded by 150,000 voters, and also to refer to the voters of the United States the question of whether or not the principles of the Omaha platform shall be enacted into law the ballot for this referendum to be such form that a separate yes and no vote may be counted on each principle.

On the 30th of September, 1895, according to the published semi-annual statement, the indebtedness of the county was $77,103.42, while on the 1st of November 1895, according to the recently published report of expert Hackett it was 126,426.37, an increase on two years of 49,322.95.

Until it is possible to make the initiative and referendum a part of our constitution, we favor its immediate voluntary adoption as follows:

We pledge our candidates for the legislature to do all in their power to cause to be referred to the legal voters of the state, the question of enacting or repealing any state law that is demanded by petition, signed by $300 legal voters. The next session to act in accordance with the majority vote.

As to any new local or special law for a town, city or county, our candidates shall vote for it to be referred to the voters interested before it takes effect.

If 10 per cent of the legal voters of any county, city or town, shall by petition, demand any local law, our candidates will vote for the enactment of such local law, providing that it shall be referred to the voters interested and take effect only when approved by a majority of those voting thereon.

We pledge our candidates to do all in their power to amend our law fixing the salary of county officers in Clackamas county so that the yearly salaries shall be: for sheriff, $1000; county clerk, $800; recorder, $700; treasurer, $600; county judge $800; superintendent of public instruction, $725; county surveyor—this amendment to be referred to the voters of Clackamas county not later than the annual school election in March 1897, to take effect as soon as it is approved by the majority of those voting.

Also to vote for a law to be referred and take effect in like manner, requiring the county court to submit to the voters of the county at the annual school election, a county appropriation bill in such form that there may be a yes and no vote on each item of $300 or more, such vote to be binding on the county court.

We pledge our candidates for the legislature to vote for the abolition of all useless commissions and boards, for the salary system of paying public officers, and for a state appropriation bill providing only for constitutional salaries and the economical support of necessary state institutions. As to other state appropriations shall be made. The next succeeding session to act in accordance with the majority vote of the people.

We denounce the republican party for its entire failure to perform any promise it made to the people of Oregon in 1894, and hold it wholly responsible for the reckless and extravagant waste of the taxpayers money by the legislature assembly of 1895.

We denounce the republican party of Clackamas county for its extravagant use of the county funds and for persistently reducing the assessment on the property of favored officials and corporations, which has resulted in burdening the taxpayers with a county debt of thousands of dollars, contrary to the provisions of the constitution.

We denounce the action of the county court in reducing the wages of day laborers without reducing other salaries in their control.

The platform was adopted with a whoop and shout on a viva voca vote.

The evening session was called to order at 7 o'clock by Chairman Theisson who announced that all the candidates would take the first four rows of seats. This raised a roar, as there would be no seats left for the delegates. Mr. Theisson quickly corrected himself, alleging a slip of the tongue, and asked that the delegates come forward. A collection was then taken to pay expenses, $13.94 being raised.

Nominations for clerk being called for, T. B. Hankins in a highly eulogistic speech placed Elmer Dixon of Oregon City before the convention. E. C. Hamilton made a motion that no nominating speeches be allowed. This raised a loud protest from the delegates, who were loaded with eulogies for their favorite candidates and the motion was promptly voted down. E. H. Cooper was also nominated for clerk, but declined. Dixon was declared the unanimous choice of the convention, and on being called for, thanked the delegates for the honor conferred on him.

The nomination for sheriff brought on a lively contest. G. W. Grace, Oregon City; Geo. Lazelle, Canemah; Henry Theisson, Milwaukee; W. W. Myers, Oregon City; F. J. Ridings, Marquam, and Jerry Johnson, Oswego, being brought into the field. Johnson declining a vote was then ordered taken. A delegate objected to the manner of balloting, fearing a stuffed ballot box alleging as all of the delegates had at one time been either republicans or democrats their old tricks would stay by them. After pledges of honesty and fairness had been given by many of the delegates a motion was made that candidates before the convention step to the front as their name names were called and define their position in the party and what they proposed to do if elected at the June election. After candidates for sheriff had so pledged themselves, the balloting proceeded. The vote standing, Grace 71, Lazelle 7, Theisson 10, Myers 21, Ridings 26, Johnson 3. Grace having received a majority of all the ballots cast was on motion made the unanimous choice of the convention. On being called for, he responded with a few words of thanks for the honor conferred on him.

An equally exciting contest resulted over the recordership, there being placed in nomination, Reuben Wright, Liberal, A. H. Reynolds, Macksburg, Alfred Lewellen, Milwaukee, Lucene Stout, Highland and O. B. Eby, Molalla. After each candidate had publicly proclaimed his fealty to the party and his pledge of honesty if placed in charge of the office of county recorder a vote was taken resulting as follows: Wright 34, Reynolds 12, Lewellen 56, Stout 24, Eby 10, scattering 1. There being no election, Reynolds and Eby's names were withdrawn and a second vote being taken gave Wright 33, Lewellen 71, Stout 30. Lewellen's nomination was declared unanimous.

As the work of the convention proceeded, the excitement over the nominations increased and on the assessorship being called, a lively tussle took place. Those proposed were: W. S. Tull, Barlow, G. N. Sager, Sandy, F. H. King, Eagle Creek, Lucene Stout, Clarkes. The other names proposed were W. H. Wade, Currinsville, Jas. Shaw, Oregon City, George Ogle, Molalla, R. T. Dibble, Molalla, Boone Johnson, Damascus, who each declined, alleging that it was for private reasons and not the fear of having their salary cut down if elected as proposed by the platform previously adopted. A vote being taken resulted in Tull receiving 33 ballots, Sager 21, King 12, Stout 69, scattering 4. No election, Mr. Sager withdrew his name and a new ballot was taken, resulting in Tull getting 25, King 5, Stout 106. By an aye vote Mr. Stout was given the unanimous nomination and responded by thanking the convention for their confidence in him.

For school superintendent, H. G. Starkweather, Milwaukee, and Richard Hargreaves, Springwater, were brought before the convention. Mr. Starkweather was eulogized in the nominating speeches as the son of a man, W. A. Starkweather, who had for 22 years, served Clackamas county in the state legislature and not a blemish had been found in the record of his legislative work. On being called for Mr. Starkweather pledged, if elected, his best efforts in the discharge of the duties of his office. The vote taken, gave Starkweather 124 ballots and Hargreaves 10. Mr. Starkweather's nomination was made unanimous.

There appearing to be a dearth of candidates for surveyor, some delay was experienced in getting a suitable man for the position. John Wright of Liberal, was nominated and promptly declined. E. J. Weston, Oregon City, was nominated, but there being some question as to his party faith he was laid aside by the vote of 42 to Wright's 87.

For coroner Dr. R. Goucher, Mulino, O. W. Quint, Barlow, W. M. Godfrey, Oregon City and O. B. Eby, Molalla were presented. Mr. Eby and Mr. Quint declined. There being a question as to Godfrey being a physician, the information was volunteered by a friend that he doubtless knew a dead man when he saw him. Mr. Godfrey was elected by a vote of 90 to 37 for Dr. Goucher.

Jacob Shade of Oregon City, was placed in nomination for treasurer, and after others had been mentioned and declined his nomination, was made unanimous.

For commissioner, J. D. Stevens of Canby presented the name of John Kruse of Wilsonville in a high-flown piece of oratory, dilating on his many good qualities and fitness for the office. S. F. Marks of Needy was presented by Geo. Oglesby in a speech, which was seconded by several others, praising his long service in the party and splendid ability to fill so important a position as commissioner, and demanded his nomination by reason that so far the south part of the county had not been represented on the ticket. He objected to the name of Mr. Kruse being brought before the convention for the reason that the republicans had kept him at the public crib for years and that now they were through with him, he was seeking an office at the hands of the populists. After the ballot had been taken a variation in the program was asked for by assemblage and H. O. Inskip was called for to give a song but announcing that he preferred to save his efforts for future occasions. J. D. Stevens was then called to the platform and recited the "Revolutionary Rising," the story of a fighting person in the revolutionary war, in a manner that greatly pleased the delegates and broke the monotony of the convention work. On the ballots being counted it showed that Kruse had received 48, Marks 84, scattering 3. Marks was given the unanimous vote.

The legislative ticket brought out all the talent of the populist party and each of the candidates placed before the convention were declared by their enthusiastic supporters to be best men in the county. The names proposed were: J. H. Kruse and Jerry Johnson of Oswego, D. W. Smith of Tualatin, W. S. U'Ren of Milwaukee, O. W. Quint of Barlow, Geo. Ogle of Molalla and E. A. B. Howard of Barlow. A discussion arose as to how to properly distribute the candidates in the different parts of the county. It was decided to vote for the candidates by the section of the county they lived in. Under this rule Kruse and Smith of the West Side were first voted on, Johnson having declined, Smith receiving 84 votes and Kruse 90 votes, making the latter the party nominee for that part of the county. On motion of Mr. Smith, Mr. Kruse's nomination was unanimous. After this vote had been taken three-quarters of an hour was spent in wrangling as to how the remaining candidates on the legislative ticket should be chosen, whether to vote for them by sections or for the whole number a majority of votes to elect. At last a motion was got through favoring the latter method.

The names of W. S. U'Ren, Milwaukee; Geo. Ogle, Molalla; S. Hutchinson, Highland; O. W. Quint, Barlow; E. A. B. Howard, Barlow and J. B. Zeigler, Oregon City, were placed before the convention and they were called upon to explain as to what they would do if in the legislature. Mr. Quint gave his party history and how he helped to build the republican party and how he should help to build up the populist party. Mr. U'Ren went on the platform and submitted to a running fire of questions as to whether he favored the referendum, the Omaha platform, and kindred points that appeared to exercise the delegates. Mr. Hutchinson defined his position in the party, as well as what he would do, if elected. Mr. Howard stated that he was a populist and pledged to reform. Geo. Ogle, the Molalla financier, appeared to have satisfied, in his brief speech, the convention as to his fitness to go on the legislative ticket. J. B. Zeigler met the ordeal bravely and convinced the delegates that he too was a populist.

On a vote being taken. Quint had 8 ballots, U'Ren, 110; Howard, 10; Bruehaupt, 6; Hutchinson, 20; Ogle, 116. U'Ren and Ogle were declared elected and as it was then past midnight a motion to adjourn was promptly passed.

NOTES. The brains, leadership and tact of W. S. U'Ren was responsible for the unusual quietness and harmony that prevailed in the convention though his work would have been considered that of a boss in any other convention.

A feeling of distrust of themselves and of each other appeared to overcome the delegates, for no matter on what subject they arose to speak, they had to preface their remarks with a pledge that the faith in them was yet strong. No vote was allowed to be taken until the nominees had declared their party fealty, no matter whether they were new converts or old wheel horses.

The celerity and promptness with which the old party workers and perennial candidates were set aside, when their names were proposed for an office was a painful surprise these worthy persons. To add to their discomfort and sorrow, the vote they received was so small and backed by so little enthusiasm that they each felt after the day was past as though something had dropped, and it had fallen on them.

candidate as called of the people, who were constantly seeking a nomination at the hands of the old parties. True, consistency is an element absent in the populist ranks.

An odd feature of the convention was the unusual number of old men it contained, nearly a hundred of the delegates being gray haired. As nearly all of them in their pledges of fealty to the party which they each had to give, told how they had been misled in the old parties, leaving them because of many and sundry causes, they could not but give the impression to the onlookers that it was evident that the old parties had not dealt kindly with them, especially in the matter of passing around the fat of offices.

It was amazing to the on-lookers to see the way the convention was swayed and directed by one man. Especially was it noticeable in a gathering of populists, they always allying as one of the chief reasons for their leaving the old parties, was the bossism that they had to submit to. In Wednesday's convention one man named the presiding officer, made the platform and was largely instrumental in the making up of the ticket, yet while this was apparent to every populist present, not one of them raised a word of protest against a display of bossism, that if perpetrated in a republican or democratic convention would have caused a moan to have gone up from every liberty-loving populist in Clackamas county.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be lost forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM.

of every weary, thin or thin blooded person does its work with constant difficulty and fatigue. They feel "worn," or tired out, "run-down" or nervous. Feeble people who are dyspeptic, find that exercise after a meal is sure to cause lessened power to digest food—because there is so little blood, and what there is, is carried off from the gastric organs to the muscles. What is needed is plenty of blood, and that of the right kind. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and to gain in blood is nearly always to gain in wholesome flesh up to the healthy standard. Every one should have a certain surplus of flesh to meet the emergencies of sickness; to resist the attack of consumption, grip, malaria and fevers. This blooded people are always getting sick, and none of the organs of the body can get along without the food they require for work, which is pure blood. To gain and to keep strength and flesh is the secret of health, usefulness and happiness. With new blood and refreshed nerves a confident feeling of returning health comes also. Nervous manifestations, such as sleeplessness, nervous debility and nervous prostration are in nine cases out of ten "the cry of the starved nerves for food." If you feed the nerves on pure rich blood the nervous symptoms will cease. It is bad practice to put the nerves to sleep with so-called celery mixtures, coca compounds or malt extracts; what is needed is a blood maker. The "Discovery" is composed of vegetable ingredients which have an especial effect upon the stomach, liver, and blood making glands. For the cure of dyspepsia, indigestion, liver complaint, weakened vitality, and for young, pale people, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cannot be equaled. Thousands have testified to its merits.
