

Sink Notes.

Mink, March 9.—(Too late for last issue.)—The entertainment given by the pupils of the school and the young people of the neighborhood the last night of February was a grand success. The house was crowded to overflowing. The program was quite lengthy and was well rendered. Every participant did well.

Ernest Ginter was visiting at Fred Moehke's last Sunday. Mrs. E. W. Hornschuch was visiting at Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ginter's last Sunday. Lawrence Hornschuch has gone to the city with the grim purpose of trying to secure employment.

William Moehke has the contract to build a barn for E. W. Hornschuch.

John Heft has the contract to build a barn for Jake Grossmiller this summer.

Karl Nelson, of Oregon City, was in this vicinity last Sunday visiting friends.

Miss Hettie Ginter, who is teaching school at Union Mills, was home on a visit last Sunday.

It is reported that Mike Moehke has bought the old Inel place, price $1750.

Prof. A. C. Strange, who has taught an excellent term of school this winter, has been hired to teach the spring term, to commence the last Monday in March.

Several of our citizens are on the grip list. At the annual school meeting in our district the first Monday in March, E. W. Hornschuch was re-elected clerk for one year, and C. Hornschuch was elected director for a term of three years, to succeed himself.

Talk about economy! This district believes in that principle and puts it into practice. It is having wood cut for the school at the rate of 40 cts. a tier or cord.

Henry Brandt, of Oregon City, was in our settlement last week visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. Schmidt, one of our progressive farmers, took some hogs to town last week, and it is said to relate, before he could enter the town looking respectable he had to stop this side of town and give his face a bathing—a result of our excellent system of mud roads.

Logan Notes.

Logan, March 16.—It seems as if spring was coming now in earnest, and farmers are busy plowing and preparing to sow grain. The entertainment at the Grange hall given by the school children, was a success. A goodly crowd was present and all report a pleasant time.

Old lady McCubbin was quite sick but is now much better.

Will Han who has been working for W. P. Kirchner, left over a week ago for Kansas.

The populists held their primaries and elected delegates to the convention as follows: J. Bowen, J. Hatton, W. Wain and W. Mumpower.

There was a populist speaking at Tracy's hall on Thursday eve, the 12th, by Mr. Stephens of Coosy, principally on the "money" question, the crowd was quite small, but all listened attentively and seemed to think that either kind of money would be very acceptable these hard times. A number of the Logan Masons attended a meeting in Oregon City on Saturday last.

Mrs. George Clark has been quite sick, also Mrs. Martin Johnson, but are both improving.

Mr. Frakes is able to be out again.

Miss Maggie Rieland took a spin through Coosy yesterday on her favorite horse.

Mr. Baker, who left the hospital, is improving, and Frank Wilson is soon expected home.

Frank Wilson, who has been at the Portland hospital for the past six weeks, is now at home.

Mr. Hubbard and son of Mitchell are visiting Mrs. N. McCubbin his sister and relatives. He has not been in Webfoot for several years but thinks it much better than when he was here before. "RUV."

Milwaukee News.

Milwaukee, March 17.—Our republican club at its meeting on last Saturday evening, was honored by the largest and most appreciative assemblage of ladies and gentlemen it has ever yet had. The people were addressed by A. S. Dresser and C. H. Dye, of Oregon City. They spoke on finance, and in a most logical manner showed the cause of which the present hard times is the effect. For thoughtful, hard common sense addresses, those made by both gentlemen would be hard to beat. The club's quartette sang a piece, "McKibby, the Pride of the Nation," which was composed by one of our local gentlemen, of whom more will be heard in the future. The Strawberry Hill quartette also favored the audience with vocal and instrumental music. Fred Berg sang a solo which called forth prolonged applause.

John M. Stuckey and his brother Henry are devoting their leisure time in a business-like manner clearing the last acre of their twelve-acre tract. They have a small bearing orchard, with a younger and larger one coming on, which, with other improvements they are making, will develop their small farm into a most desirable home in the not distant future.

J. C. Hungerford has plowed his orchard preparatory to sowing it down to oats.

J. E. Wetzel has completed spraying his orchard, which makes the air smell exceedingly sulphuric in that locality.

Rev. Maurer began a series of revival meetings at the Evangelical church on Monday evening, the 16th, which will continue through this week and the next. He will preach through this week in the German language and next week in English. It is hoped his work will not be fruitless.

Juvenile Football Game.

The football craze has not entirely died out in Oregon City, and the kids had a lively game at the grounds on the hill last Saturday. The contest was between the Oregon City's and "The Kid" teams. The game was begun with a kickoff by "The Kids," and the ball went into the other team, but they could not hold it. "The Kids" got the ball and made a touchdown. Next time the Oregon City's got within four feet of "The Kids" goal when the latter got the ball and was within six inches of the Oregon City goal when time was called.

At the next kick-off "The Kids" pushed the Oregon City's through their own goal.

At the next kick-off "The Kids" carried the ball through the opponents.

At what proved the final kick-off "The Kids" pushed the Oregon City's to their 30-yard line, when the latter gave up. The score stood 12 to nothing in favor of "The Kids." The best plays were made by Evelyn Callif.

Following were the positions of the players:

Oregon City's Position. "The Kids." Percy Canfield Center Rush. M. Parks Howard Latourette. q. Lester Ackerman Leo Chamberlain. r. Evelyn Callif Jack Latourette. c. Clarence Porter Grover Foster. t. Trauton Dye Guy Kellogg. e. Carl Simmons Don Shaw. p. John Noble Willie Howell. k. Emery Dye Walter Benier. l. John Parks Leonard Confer. n. Ropard Parks James Gray. h. Carl Callif Charlie Burns was umpire, Silas Gadke, time-keeper, and Carl Church was referee.

Big Rally at Independence.

Last Monday Hon. Geo. C. Brownell went to Independence on invitation of the republican club at that place and addressed a big rally in the evening. The following account of the meeting is given in the Oregonian of Tuesday:

"One of the most enthusiastic audiences ever assembled in Independence gathered in G. A. R. auditorium this evening to hear Hon. Geo. C. Brownell, of Oregon City, who, under the auspices of the republican club, spoke on the political issues. The auditorium is said to hold 1200 people and it was packed. The motor train from Monmouth came in loaded. The Independence brass band and the Novello glee club furnished music. Mr. Brownell spoke for nearly two hours, and at the conclusion of his address three rousing cheers were given by the audience. Mr. Brownell cannot but feel flattered at the enthusiasm manifested. There were visitors from Dallas, Buena Vista, McCoy and other parts of Polk county."

Those Sweated Coins.

There has been considerable comment in various circles concerning various pieces of sweated gold coins, that were passed at different houses by Mrs. Read, previous to Rev. Read's commitment to the asylum last Friday. The matter was kept as mum as possible, but after a few days the facts began to leak out, and most of the sweated coins that were passed have been redeemed by good money. It is reported that Mrs. Read not long ago purchased a small pair of apothecary scales and some muriatic acid. Mrs. Read states, however, that she purchased the scales for Mr. Read, as he wanted to weigh out some medicine that he desired to use. Mrs. Read disclaims all knowledge of the sweated coins, and states that they drew $200 from the bank, which Mr. Read suggested could be more easily kept in the house if they were of smaller denominations.

The Coming Forensic Contest.

A joint session will be held at Willamette Falls between the Hesperian society and the Literary club of said place. The main feature of the evening will be the joint debate, also a selected literary and musical program. Batdorf's hall has been engaged for this meeting, which is to be held Saturday evening. Reduced fares are expected to be secured from the West Side Railway company.

The Hesperian Charivari Band will lead the Hesperian gladiators to the arena. The best oratorical talent of each society has been secured for the occasion, and everyone is invited. This is expected to be one of the grandest literary rallies ever held in Clackamas County.

The Williams' Surprised.

Last Thursday was Mrs. E. E. Williams' birthday and remembering this Mrs. R. D. Wilson planned a party for her. The guests arrived at an appointed hour and went to the Williams home where they most thoroughly surprised them. Charades and cards were the main features of enjoyment for the evening. A lunch had been prepared by the visitors and this was served at a convenient time. The guests were, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Broughton, Mr. and G. A. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McAdam, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pillsbury, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Albright, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Fouts, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Charman, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Latourrette, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stevens, Mrs. M. M. Charman, and H. L. Kelly.

Just Issued.

Very few of our business men know that the postoffice department at Washington issues in January of each year, a complete Postal Guide containing 1,000 pages, and complete lists of postoffices in the United States, arranged alphabetically, all rules and regulations, money order offices and rulings of the department on postal matters, time of arrival and departure of foreign mails, and much valuable information on postal matters.

The book is exceedingly valuable to those using the mails. It is the guide for every postmaster in the country and is sold to business men by the publisher, Geo. F. Lasher, 147 north 10th street, Philadelphia, Pa., in cloth cover, $2.50 or paper cover, $2.00. Can be ordered through our postmaster and every business man should secure a copy.

A North Side Request.

We feel it our duty to call attention to the fact that the people north of the Clackamas river heretofore have not had an impartial deal in the matter of distribution of county offices. These honors have been extended to the southern and eastern portions of the county when outside of Oregon City, and now we feel that this year some of the honors ought to come our way. One of the most popular young men whose name will be presented to the republican county convention, is John H. Gibson, who has lived in this community for a number of years and earned a reputation for honesty and integrity enjoyed by few. He is a candidate for assessor, and if nominated and elected would make a conscientious and capable officer.

More Football.

Oregon City is to be treated to another game of football, the opposing teams being Oregon City Juniors and the apprentices from the British ships now in Portland. The game will take place at Gladstone Park on Saturday of this week at 3 o'clock p. m. The game will be played under the new association rules which prevent the carrying of the ball, and especially the slugging and dangerous part of the play allowed under the inter-collegiate rules. It will be a game of genuine football and will be exciting enough for the most ardent lover of this sport, for the sailor lads will give the Oregon City boys a lively tussle. There will be no admission charges to the grounds.

Perfectly lovely center pieces in linen and swiss just arrived at the Racket store.

We all know that any tired muscle can be restored by rest. Your stomach is a muscle. Dyspepsia is its manner of saying "I am tired. Give me rest." To rest the stomach you must do the work outside of the body.

This is the Shaker's method of curing indigestion, and its success is best attested by the fact that these people are practically free from what is without doubt the most prevalent of all diseases, The Shaker Digestive Cordial not only contains digested food which is promptly absorbed without taxing the tired digestive organs, but it is likewise an aid to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10 cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit, and these you can obtain through all druggists.
