An Open Letter. Portland, Or. Dear Sirs! Your communication in last week's "ENTERPRISE" was carefully read. In as far as you refuse to deny any of the specific charges made against you in this paper by me, you relieve me of the duty to publish the proof for those charges just now, I am, however, very well pleased to know that my article of March 20th has brought you to a point, where you are willing to submit to an in' vestigation, as you promise in your answer of last week. I am almost tempted to publish some of the sinful devices of the rest of your party, because it might have as good effect on them, as my recent communication seems to have had Tuesday, May 26.—State Grange for Oregon on you. But then I will leave it to you meets at McMinnville. to bring those men to the point of submitting to an investigation for the first, Monday, June 1.—General election for state especially since I believe that you are and county officers. at the bottom of all this trouble. You have been informed that the "Ministerial Association of Ore- N P German C M Assn to H B gon City" has taken up the matter for investigation, you also know that I am Tuesday, July 7.—Third Annual Assembly of Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association meets at Gladstone park to be in have this matter investigated, why then do you refuse to submit the matter to C D Covey to W O Altimus Mar this body for investigation? Wilt you Wednesday, - July 22 - Populist national dare to assume that this body is not competent to investigate these matters? Why do you refuse to meet me in Oregon City? Where can I find a better place to prove my character than here, where I have labored for the last two and onehalf years? If there is any truth in your assertion, then Oregon City is the place where the proof must be found. But now you deny that you have anything to do with the slanderous attack on my character in the "Exterraise" of the 6th of March, in answer to which my communication appeared. This attack was signed by your president, Rev. S. H. Mollenaur from Spokane, Wash. He also denies that he has anything to do

H. Mollenaur from Spokane, Wash. He also denies that he has anything to do with it. You all know that it was published in various secular papers, and you have denied it. But now since you are called to account before the good people of Clackamas county, you disown this poor child, born out of the immost desires of your heart. Now this little falsifier which appeared in Clackamas county on March 6th, with Rev. S. N. Mollenaurs's name attached to it, boldly proclaiming to the world that I should be "a thoroughly unreliable character" must be disowned. Now this little falsifier must be cut out fatherless, motherless, disowned by its legal parents, whoever they may be, wandering along by the roadside a poor orphan and dying in despair. Is it not cruel to be so heartless? You say you are not willing to prove before an impartial committee of Lutherans, who officially wish to investigate, that the final judgment of your president is correct! Yo refused to ever attempt to do this before the council of my church at Your and Administrator's Notices.
