P. S. Noyer was in the city Monday from the mines on Big creek, near Susanville. He is running his placer mine in full blast and is taking out quite a little gold. He is much encouraged, inasmuch as the prospect for a good water season is excellent.—Long Creek Eagle. Mr. Noyer formerly resided at Molalla, and represented Clackamas county in the legislature of 1887.

Under the caption "Great Occasions of 1896," the Review of Reviews for May masses the preliminary announcements of more than sixty great conventions and other noteworthy gatherings of the coming six months at home and abroad. In many features this prospectus offers a remarkable exhibit of the varied activities of modern humankind—intellectual, moral, and physical. The Review's enterprise in gathering, digesting, and presenting this vast range of useful and interesting information to be commended.

An Oregon City business man's watch failed to faithfully record the passing cycles of time, and on Tuesday last, he sent it to a jeweler for repairs. Shortly afterward the jeweler returned with the time piece and stated that a bed bug was inside of the works, and stopped the progress of the wheels and intricate machinery. Several bystanders roared at the discomfiture of the owner of the watch, who indignantly asserted that he had no bedbugs on his person or in his house. He refused to view the bedbug in the works of the watch, or be comforted.

A Chinaman came in from Maple Lane last Saturday evening, with his head covered with blood, and stated that some unknown man had tried to kill him with a club. The row was the result of a dog fight and the Chinaman had got the worst of the rumpus. He swore out a warrant for his unknown assailant, but on Monday morning Charles Gale came into Justice Dixon's office, and said that he was the man who assaulted the Chinaman, but that he did it under extenuating circumstances. He said that he could clear himself of the charge by securing a lawyer to defend him, but he preferred to settle the matter by paying a small fine. Justice Dixon then imposed a fine of $10, which he paid.

McLaughlin Chautauqua circle held another interesting meeting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams last Monday night. A suggestion was made by Miss Mina Kelly, that at the next meeting of the circle the members express their preference by vote for an Oregon state flower. The suggestion was accepted. After the discussion on the lesson topic, the excellent musical program was presented. First was a piano duet by Miss Mertie Stevens and Mrs. E. E. Williams, followed with several vocal and piano solos by Mrs. E. E. Charman and Mrs. Williams. The circle accepted the invitation of Mrs. M. M. Charman to meet at her residence next Monday evening. Rider, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster, who was also present. This wedding-birthday anniversary was the occasion of a family reunion, most of the members of the Foster family being present. The wedding cake from the Ohio niece, was a duly appreciated part of the menu at the dinner table. Four years ago the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Foster was celebrated at the grange hall, and they received some valuable presents.

Insurance that Insures.

For the last three years the people of Oregon have had plenty of experience with local Insurance Companies, and are heartily sick of their failures to keep their contract. At this time it is well to show the way the old line companies settle up their losses.

Most people will remember the fire that destroyed Patrick Duffy's house at Elyville. Mr. Duffy has never ceased to praise the praises of the old, reliable Hartford ever since. He was very much pleased with the adjuster, and when his draft to pay the loss in full arrived, just 10 days after the fire, his heart was full to overflowing. This is insurance that insures. H. T. SLADEN, Agent.

Whooping Cough.

There is no danger from this disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough mucus and aids its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

The Portland.

Re-opened near the corner of Main and Seventh street. Clean, bright, well-furnished dining room and private rooms elegantly fitted up. Have one of the most skillful cooks on the Coast. If your meat order does not please you, just let me know. Best dinner in the city including a glass of wine for 25 cents, 11:30 to 4 p. m. Oysters served in every style. Open day and night. Give The Portland a trial. L. RECONICH, Proprietor.

Worthy of Notice.

The S. B. Medicine company is the only one out of nine proprietary medicine firms incorporated on this coast since 1887 that has not made an assignment. These hard times with new newspaper advertising contracts for two years, it speaks loudly of their merit. For sale by C. G. Huntley, druggist.

An Old Standby.

Clarence Porter is so well-known in Oregon City that he needs no further introduction to those wanting blacksmith work. His work always speaks for itself and his prices are always reasonable. Remember his shop is opposite Pope's hardware store, corner Main and Fourth streets.

Take a dose of DeWitt's Little Early Risers just for the good they will do you. These little pills are good for indigestion, and for headache, good for liver complaint, good for constipation. They are good. C. G. Huntley, Druggist.

James Walton, of Ely, one of the pioneer residents of Clackamas county, whose illness was mentioned some time since in the ENTERPRISE has so far regained his health that on Saturday last Dr. Paine, his physician, ceased his visits, pronouncing Mr. Walton out of danger with good chances for continued health.

J. A. Chase returned last Thursday from an extended stay with his family in California. He reports plenty of rain in that country as well as here, and came back to look after his extensive property interests. In fact, the people of that state have as much cause to complain over the heavy rain-fall, and consequent fruit prospects as have the residents of Webfoot. The financial outlook, too, is no more promising than in Oregon. Oregonians can console themselves that they are not alone in the misery of a continued wet spring, and its attendant inconveniences.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes special pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.
