

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.

the mouth of Clear creek. This cause coming on to be heard this 1st day of May, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, A. S. Dresser, and the defendant appearing in person and by L. L. Porter and D. R. Murphy, his attorneys, and a jury being called, witnesses were examined and the matter presented for their consideration. The jury brought in a verdict for $300 damages. The action was for $2000. Until May 8th was given to move for a new trial, or to proceed otherwise.

Homer Fisher vs James Evans; this suit occupied the attention of the court all day Saturday, and the jury brought in a verdict of $8 in favor of the plaintiff, with a special verdict that $79 was owing him, but was not due at the time the action was begun. The suit was brought by the plaintiff against defendant for $104, alleged to be due for cutting wood. This same case was before the court last November, but the jury failed to agree. C. D. and D. C. Latourette were attorneys for plaintiff, and Brownell & Campbell for defendant.

State vs W F Hubbard; indicted for cutting a boom of logs loose on Clear creek. No special time having been set for the hearing of the case, the defendant appeared Monday and plead not guilty.

W J Scott vs William Scott; decree of divorce by default. A. J. Vantine, attorney for plaintiff. The plaintiff and defendant were married at Crookston, Minnesota, on the 21st day of March, 1885, and the former alleges cruel and inhuman treatment on the part of the latter, stating that the defendant has refused to share his bed and board with her, and treated her inhumanly and cruelly when she was undergoing great physical suffering. On petition of the plaintiff, her minor son, John McPiereson Scott, was awarded to the custody of Ferdinand S. Ruttman, of New York.

Miller Bros vs W F Knight, et al; on motion of the plaintiff this suit was dismissed as to the defendants W F Knight and Mrs. W. F. Knight, and there being no objection, it is ordered. At the same time the plaintiff herein asks for a decree against the other defendants named to-wit: J. Inglish, John A. Inglish, Mrs. D. A. Jones and Mrs. Munson, whose default has heretofore been entered in this suit. Judgment was ordered against the defendants last above named, and the following described premises ordered sold: Eighty acres situated in Clackamas county, to satisfy the sum of $52.94, costs and disbursements of this suit taxed at $25, and an attorney fee of $50, which is allowed in this suit.

Anna Gantenbeim vs Rudolph Gantenbeim; decree of divorce on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. Brownell & Campbell, attorneys for plaintiff. The defendant made default in answering the complaint. Mr. and Mrs. Gantenbeim were married at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, about the 9th day of March, 1878, and are the parents of Rudolph, aged 19 years; Albert, aged 18; Herman, aged 16; Anna, aged 14; Adolph, 13; Paul, 12; Sophy, 11, and Emma Gantenbeim, aged 9 years. The plaintiff was awarded the custody of the minor children, and judgment for costs in this action.

F. C. Burk vs John L. Evans, et al; on motion of George L. Stovry, attorney for plaintiff, judgment was rendered for $291.35, interest, costs and attorney fees, and a decree of foreclosure ordered on 10 acres in the John S. Holland donation land claim in Clackamas county, Oregon.

Charles Moehne vs Peter A. Weiss; action for damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of a fire set in the woods near plaintiff's sawmill at Willamette Falls. The plaintiff appeared in person and by V. R. Hyde and J. U. Campbell, his attorneys, and the defendant appearing by G. W. and B. F. Swope and —Fraser, his attorneys. The jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $25. The amount sued for was $3,000.

F A Daly vs L D Eaton and Oscar Eaton; the plaintiff appeared by L. L. Porter, his attorney, and Oscar Eaton, one of the defendants, made default. L. D. Eaton, the other defendant, appeared in person, and consented to the following decree, but filed no pleading herein. Judgment was entered for $329.64, with interest, costs and attorney fees. An injunction was granted the trustees of the German Evangelical Reform congregation, of New Era, against Rev. R. Staub, of Mink, to restrain him from preaching in the church building above mentioned. In accordance with an official request, had tendered his resignation to the governing body of the church, and the resignation had been accepted. It seems, however, that there is a division in the church and a number of the members espoused the cause of Mr. Staub, and opened the doors of the church, and the former pastor held services for two succeeding Sundays. Hence, this action. They also ask for $100 damages for trespassing in the church for two Sundays.

In the matter of the estate of Philip Moore, deceased, J A O'Dell, plaintiff and appellant vs C B Smith, administrator. This matter coming on regularly this day for trial, the plaintiff and appellant appearing in person and by Hedges & Griffith, his attorneys, and the defendant appearing in person, and by C. D. Latourette, his attorney, the matter was referred to a jury for a verdict. The jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $85.

Sophia Charman vs Gordon E. Hayes, et al; action to recover $500 for the location of an anchor of the suspension bridge. Plaintiff appeared through her attorneys, C. D. and D. C. Latourette, in reply to defendant's answer, and denies at the time said bridge was built, the plaintiff had full knowledge of said anchor or anchorage being built, or where located, and denies that the excavations necessary for the construction of said anchorage were made with her full knowledge, consent or approval, and denies that the same or any part thereof, have remained for more than six years before she made any demand for damages or their removal.

On Tuesday noon, Judge McBride adjourned court until Thursday morning.

A Home Wedding.

A quiet home wedding was celebrated last Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Barlow, corner of Washington and Twelfth streets, uniting Miss Neita N. Barlow to Mr. Nelson W. Lawrence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. W. Stryker, pastor of the M. E. church and was witnessed by only immediate relatives. Miss Barlow comes of one of the oldest and most respected families of Oregon City and is a young lady of fine accomplishments and a musician of talent. She was the organizer and director of St. Cecilia chorus, an organization that has achieved a leading place in musical circles in this city. Mr. Lawrence is from California and is a quiet, gentlemanly young man. He is general agent for a bicycle company. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends in their journey through life.

CITY FATHERS ASSEMBLE.

Streets Corners to be Labelled—Other Matters.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held Wednesday evening. Mayor Straight was in the chair and all the councilmen and officers present. Liquor licenses were granted to S. J. Baehler and E. Matthias. A communication was received from H. E. Cross, stating that he intended to fence lot 1 in block 20, near the Congregational church, which was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

The recorder's report was read and ordered filed. The treasurer's report was read, showing that there was $460.69 belonging to the Main street assessment fund now in the treasury. This amount was ordered transferred to the general fund. The finance committee also reported that they had examined the treasurer's report for the past three months and found the same correct.

O. P. Miller, who had purchased the Barin property on Main street, and which had been bid in by the city for delinquent Main street assessment, was granted permission to redeem the same by paying 10 per cent interest and penalty.

The finance committee recommended that the city sell lots 1 and 8 in block 160, to George Broughton for $50, also lots 1 and 8 in block 159 at a price not less than $500. After a spirited discussion the whole business was tabled.

The committee on streets and public property was instructed to have names of streets, placed on about 100 blocks in the city.

The fire and water committee reported that they had purchased eight hydrants at $25.50 each, and two ball nozzles.

Ordinances were passed amending the license ordinance, and reducing the fees of the city prosecutor.

The committee on streets and public property were authorized to have the city cemetery placed in proper condition for Decoration day.

On motion Moffett, Porter and Caples were appointed a committee to confer with the board of trade, relative to a proper celebration of the coming Fourth of July.

The matter of fire bells and the new fire bell in particular, which does not make noise enough to awaken the majority of the population from their slumbers, was referred to Councilman Cooke, with power to act in the premises.

On motion the bill of E. F. Driggs, for attorney fees alleged to be due him from the city, was recalled from the table, and Mr. Driggs offered to accept $50 as a compromise in full of all claims against the city. The offer was accepted by a majority vote, and a warrant for that amount ordered drawn. His original claim amounted to something over $400.

The matter of reducing the expense of electric lights, was referred to the street committee. The recorder was authorized to have the records indexed at a cost of $5.

Campaign Notes.

Last Monday a joint debate was held at Oswego between Mr. A. S. Dresser and Mr. W. S. U'Ren. Kellogg's opera house was filled to its utmost capacity with an attentive audience and each speaker was cheered when he made a point. For the republicans Mr. Dresser made a fine, logical speech, handling the money and tariff questions, the two great questions before the people, in splendid shape. Mr. U'Ren made a good speech for the populists, but tried to cover too much ground and did not make much of a showing on any one point.

Next Monday evening another joint debate will be held at Milwaukee, Mr. U'Ren meeting Mr. Cleeton, the republican nominee for district attorney. Mr. Cleeton is one of the best speakers in the state and is a hard hitter and in a joint debate is just in his element for as a linguist duelist he has few superiors.

Friday evening Mr. Cleeton will speak at Clackamas, and Saturday afternoon at Eagle Creek. He will be quite sure of a full house at each place, for Mr. Cleeton is a very pleasing and interesting speaker.

Monday the regular meetings of the campaign will commence with a rally at Sunnyside in the afternoon and at Damascus on the evening of the same day. Tuesday a rally will be held at Sandy in the afternoon, and Wednesday afternoon a rally will be held at Eagle Creek, and at Garfield the following afternoon. The republican candidates will speak at these meetings. At Damascus and Sandy Hon. George C. Brownell will also be present to deliver an address at each place in response to invitation from republicans of those places.

A Laboring Man's Home.

For a person, who desires to stop paying rent and to raise their own vegetables and fruit, I have a splendid piece of land, one acre on Abernathy road mostly improved, house, chicken-yard, good well and some fruit. One mile and half from Oregon City. School house and church 1/2 of a mile from place, three brick yards and saw mill near by. Price $250, part down, balance on time. Trade or work in part pay. Inquire at place or address G. W. WALDRON, Oregon City.

To Represent Oregon City.

The well-known real estate dealer, Chas. Allen, left last week for Cleveland, Ohio, where he will make his headquarters for some time while he is handling Oregon real estate. Mr. Allen represents a number of the principal property owners of Oregon City, and has on his list choice city, suburban and country property about this city. Mr. Allen is a live, rustling fellow, and a man of strict integrity, and has the perfect confidence of the business men of Oregon City, many of whom have placed property in his hands for disposal. He should be able to do a good business on his eastern trip, for with the reputation Oregon City has as a solid town, and the future manufacturing center of the Pacific Coast, he should have no difficulty in proving to intending purchasers the value of the property he is handling. He was supplied with a large amount of Oregon City literature by the board of trade for free distribution.

Oregon City vs Portland.

Line by line Oregon City is coming to successfully compete with Portland. Now it is harness and shoes that have met with a reduction. I am selling a complete set of single harness, my own make, hand-sewed for $8. A heavy breaking team harness, hand-made, $25. Fine silver plated harness at proportionately low prices. All kinds of horse goods, saddles, whips and robes.

In shoes I have the best goods in Oregon City at the lowest prices. A good men's every day shoe for $1.65 that is a bargain. Ladies' fine pebble, $1.50. genuine mens' kangaroo, $5, glove calf, $2.50. Repairing a specialty in harness, shoes, etc.

F. ROGERS.

Miles Rowen, of Beaver Creek, was brought in Wednesday and placed in the Oregon City hospital for treatment. He is an old veteran of the late war, and carries a rebel bullet in his thigh received in the battle of Prairie Grove, Arkansas. In addition to general debility his old wound is troubling him again, and his family hope that with the excellent care he will receive at the hospital, with the medical attendance he will have, that he may recover and enjoy life for many years yet.

Mrs. J. W. McNulty, residing at Clackamas Heights, was surprised at her home on Wednesday of last week by a number of her friends who came in to spend the afternoon with her, the occasion being her birthday. An elegant lunch was served, and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent. Those present were Mrs. W. H. Godfrey, Mrs. Herbert Hanifan, Mrs. J. Brunner, Mrs. S. H. Godfrey, Mrs. Wm. Poyser, Mrs. W. Van. berger, Mrs. Henry Pickover, Mrs. W. N. Godfrey, Mrs. George Shaffer, Mrs. A. S. Brown.
