Sandy Has a Great Republican Rally-Barlow Road Still Closed by Deep Snow in the Mountains.

SANDY, May 16 .- Last Tuesday an immense crowd of people from all over the country gathered at Meinig's hall to hear the republican candidates speak on the issues of the day. Hon, George C. Brownell was the first speaker introduced. He spoke eloquently and logically, introducing a great many facts on the tariff and money questions. The other speakers were L. L. Porter. Eli C. Maddock, and Charles Holman, who made brief and stirring speeches and were frequently applauded.

The weather continues bad and some farmers who haven't sown all their grain have given up all hope of getting it sown. Mr. Mularier is preparing to build a barn on his place.

Will Stansberry who lately got married, has moved out and rented a place of Mr. Foster, where he will reside at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Heins, of San Francisco, were visiting Mrs. Heins's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bacon.

Annie Cooper left for South Bend, Washington, Wednesday.

Will Calvin has moved into Mr. Crisle's vacant house and will live there as long as he runs the mail wagon.
