The election returns indicate that the people's party carried the day. But what of that? We elected Mattoon and Stone—the only republican candidates we were interested in.

CLACKAMAS NEWS.

CLACKAMAS, May 25.—[Too late for last week.]—We learn that Jacob Johnson, sen., died May 24th, 1896, at a quarter to three in the morning.

His soul was called from the journey of 71 years in this world to the eternal world. Mr. Johnson was always a cheerful man, and his many relatives and friends will miss his pleasant calls which he used to make them.

He was born in Carlisle, England, October 23d, 1824, and after he was married he came to Canada, from thence to Iowa, and in 1868 he started to Oregon across the plains with his family.

He has lived in and around Oregon City ever since. For 41 years he and his wife have journeyed together, but he now leaves his wife, nine children, and twenty-six grand children. For many years Mr. Johnson was troubled with dyspepsia; the last six weeks preceding his death he could take no solid food.

He was brought up in the church of England and always attended its services while living in that country. His last request was to have his funeral services conducted in the Episcopal church in Oregon City and be buried by the side of his daughter. The family thank the friends for their many kindnesses in their bereavement.

We notice Mrs. Heckle and Mrs. Knox have been very busy this spring painting their houses and much improving the looks of their places.

A fine band of sheep was brought here last week by Willis Johnson.

The W. C. T. U. is doing much good work at this writing—missionary work as well as society work.

H. K. Hines, D. D., preached Saturday and Sunday at the M. E. church. Rev. A. E. Mulligan was also present. Communion services were observed Sunday.

DAMASCUS DOINGS.

DAMASCUS, June 1.—Everybody has turned out today to vote for the man of his choice.

During the fine weather of the past week the roads became dusty except in the mud holes.

Potato planting is the order of the day and a very large acreage is being planted.

Grandma Cartwright was buried in the Damascus cemetery last Saturday. She died in a Portland hospital.

Gen. Jas. B. Weaver made a speech in Lentz last Friday night, and Judge Gordon E. Hayes spoke upon the county's finances at the Damascus school house Thursday evening.

Last Sunday several young ladies and gentlemen went on a fishing excursion to Deep Creek.

C. E. Barney visited his brother, S. D. Barney, near Oregon City last Sunday.

D. P. May and T. B. Hankins, populists, spoke here last Saturday night.

Aims Items.

AIMS, June 1.—Miss Allard, of Troutdale, has the school at Bull Run.

the orchard with the hack, but did not go far till they got loose when they seemed to be satisfied and stopped. Slight damage to hack was all.

Currinsville News.

CURRINSVILLE.—The fine weather seems to have come to stay with us a while after such a prolonged rainy season.

Seeding has been much delayed especially on these bottom farms. Most of the farmers, however, are nearly through seeding by this time.

Not a great deal of fruit is expected in this vicinity this year, as it is thought a greater portion of it is killed.

Politics is getting lively around here, and we suppose they will reach the climax today. Saturday A. S. Dresser and T. F. Griffith spoke to a full house at Garfield.

From the attention given, and the responses of the audience to the speeches, we should judge that the speakers gave voice to the sentiments of the people of that vicinity.

Mr. Dresser talked on the money question—flat money—and very aptly illustrated how that anything passing as a medium of exchange must have value. We think that he convinced the majority of the voters that his logic was sound. A few more days will dispel all doubts.

Road work commenced here last week under H. F. Currin as road boss. Some new grades will be made between here and Eagle Creek.

G. J. Currin has moved his stock of goods back to Currinsville and will sell out at cost. Misses Lillie Wilcox and Mollie Smoot are out from Portland visiting friends and relatives. They expect to return in a few days.

Mr. Harrington will close a very successful term of school in the Tracy district this week. We understand that the board wishes to retain him for the fall term.

Mrs. Eli Williams returned from Portland last week where she has been visiting her daughter.

Mr. Outfield and Mr. Patterson returned from their work near Portland in order to be present at the election. ICELIA.

Crescent News.

CRESCENT, May 31.—We have at present beautiful weather, plenty of work, no lay people nor room for any.

The health of this community is very good.

The new brickyard is now ready to commence making brick in earnest. It is hoped it will be a success.

Theodore Krafft has finished laying the brick foundation for Mr. Yach's new house, which gives promise of being a substantial home. Such is the reward of industry and thrift.

Messrs. Waldron, Reath, Rue, Clark and Jones have each from one to five acres of new land in cultivation this spring. That speaks well for the energy of these gentlemen.

Prof. H. T. Griffith, of Portland, delivered a course of four lectures at this place last week, as follows: First—Phrenology, as Related to Human Advancement. Second—How to Read Character. Third—Love, Courtship and Marriage, ending with a phrenological wedding. Fourth—Choice of Pursuits, or One's Right Place in Life, and how to find it, along with suggestions on a higher civilization. The professor's discourses were instructive and elevating—amusing the young, interesting everybody, and giving the thoughtful new food for reflection.

Today a circular has been thrown into our yard announcing that a great circus is coming to Oregon City, June 11th. Less than a year ago there was a similar announcement. What was the result? Let us not forget. Such concerns are managed by shrewd, unprincipled men. Their employees are a low class. They are always attended by a gang of swindlers, and take away large quantities of money, giving in return a few hours amusement, which only demoralizes our people instead of elevating them. It is a grievous fact that our middle aged as well as young people patronize such concerns. The example and influence of such things are of greater importance than the majority of fathers and mothers realize. I want to appeal to them one and all, especially those who have not been thinking. That they must think, and thinking then act, the moral condition of our country demands. Each mother, as well as father, must take a stand for the right if she has the welfare of our people at heart.

The circus comes in with a grand flourish, giving complimentary tickets to our county and city officers to induce them to be deaf, dumb and blind. The officers in turn hand out the tickets to children and people to buy popularity and votes to secure their next election. When the circus visited us last year, men who were fathers and supposed to be gentlemen, stood as cappers at the gaming tables, helping to bring their fellow men down to degradation. Oh! Humanity, where art thou? What blindness? Voters of our country—fathers and mothers—let us think! Think to a purpose; think to better the condition of our people.

SALMON, May 30.—Decoration Day this, and a most lovely day. We have only two graves in our graveyard, and neither of them the grave of a soldier. But we decorate them just the same.

Mrs. Bigelow is out waiting for the snow to go off of the mountains so she can get to the Summit House, where she will cook this summer.

Mr. E. E. Edwards is going to have a good house and large barn built this summer on the place he has bought of J. T. Weckert.

John T. McIntyre returned during the week from another trip to Oregon City. He was quite feeble from a recent illness when he started for the city, but returned feeling much better. Mr. A. Aschoff was with him on the trip. They went as witnesses in a land case.

Several bears have been caught in traps, and some freed by dogs lately. Mr. Steinberg caught one in a trap last week and killed it. Last Monday the Vanderhoof boys came upon an old black bear and two cubs. The old one escaped, but they killed the cubs. Mr. Wakley freed a big black bear lately and shot it. PROGRESS.
