Refrigerators

are about the only effective home protection against the weather. Butter, meat and other supplies won't keep without ice when the mercury sizzles in the nineties, and the refrigerator is the perfection of the icebox. The loss from spoiled meats and other supplies in a single season will considerably exceed the cost of one of these household necessities. With a refrigerator everything is easily kept fresh and wholesome, which without one would be quickly tainted and unfit for use. We show them in five different sizes at from $9 to $23.70 each. Save money by getting one immediately.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES.

Eleven handsome young ladies and one young gentleman, of the graduating class of the Oregon City High school, participated in the interesting exercises at Shively's opera house last Saturday evening. There were 13 who passed the examination with high honors, but George Lee Harding was unable to be present at the exercises on account of illness. The entire class acquitted themselves with credit; in fact, they are considered the brightest assemblage of young people that ever completed their course at the Oregon City High school. It was a great occasion, and the crowd that attended the interesting exercises, was so large as to entirely fill the opera house. The seats were all occupied and many of the auditors remained standing. There was a profusion of flowers, and the members of the class were kindly remembered by their friends with beautiful bouquets. The class motto is, "Not Whence, but Whither," the class color, heliotrope and white, and the class flower, a deep red rose.

Miss Mattie Janet Gray, was the salutatrix, and her address was delivered in a clear and distinct voice. Miss Cora Belle Lemon delivered the valedictory, "Life is what we make it," and Miss Meta Blanche Finley was the class prophet.

The other graduates read essays as follows:

Jennie Rachel Noble, "Power of Early Impressions;" Jean Millicent White, "The Red, Red, Rose;" Cassie Merle Eaton, "The Humble Origin of Great Men;" James Arthur Gallogly, "A Smooth Sea Never Made a Skillful Pilot;" Alice Gertrude Powell, "We Know What We Are, but Not What We Can Be;" Rosa Ann Muller, "Education;" Jessie Estella Talbert, "Punctuality;" Grace Ann Whitlock, "Golden Gems of Life;" Alice Henrietta Roberts, "Superstition."

The class did excellent in the rendition of their subjects, and were heartily applauded by the audience. In addition to the excellent addresses and essays, several splendid musical numbers were rendered. Miss Ora Spangler was pianist; Miss Beatrice Barlow gave two piano solos; a vocal solo by Miss Kate Ward; vocal solo by Miss Meta C. Brown; violin solo, by Miss Betta Fouts; vocal solo by Mrs. W. B. Wiggins; vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Dresser; vocal solo by Mrs. C. W. Ganong; a vocal duet by Misses Draper and Kuerten.

Col. R. A. Miller delivered a very interesting address, and presented the diplomas.

Fraternal Notes.

The Woodmen held an increase meeting at Willamette Hall last Thursday evening, which proved a very interesting affair. An excellent program was presented, and Rev. T. P. Boyd, of Portland, made a most interesting lecture on Woodcraft. The musical numbers on the program were, a duet by Misses Draper and Kuerten; a piano solo, by Miss Beatrice Barlow, and a couple of selections by the Crescent Quartette. All responded to encores. Twenty-seven new applications for membership were received at this meeting.

Wacheno Tribe No. 13, Improved Order Redmen, have elected the following new officers for the ensuing six months: J. C. Bradley, sachem; J. W. Cole, senior sagamore; William Maplethorpe, junior sagamore; Charles W. Kelley, prophet; representatives to grand council which meets in Portland on the fourth Tuesday in July, J. H. Howard and W. R. Ream. Alternates, L. A. Nobel and C. W. Kelley. Tuesday evening Wacheno Tribe entertained the visiting tribes from Portland, who were represented to the extent of nearly a hundred delegates from the different illabees. They came up on the steamer Altona, and remained until nearly midnight. C. W. Kelly presided, and songs, speeches, and refreshments enlivened the memorable occasion.

Oregon City was represented at the convention of the grand chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, held in Portland last week. The chapter in this city was represented by Miss Neita McCarver, T. F. Ryan and J. H. Walker, and Mrs. G. M. Strange, who was re-elected grand treasurer. Following are the newly elected and appointed officers: Mrs. F. A. Helm, worthy grand matron; John Vert, worthy grand patron; Mrs. M. Luthie, associate grand matron; C. H. James, associate grand patron; Mrs. M. B. Conkling, grand secretary; Mrs. G. M. Strange, grand treasurer; Mrs. Carrie Wise, grand conductress; Mrs. Jennie Muckle, associate grand conductress; Mrs. A. M. Raley, grand chaplain; William Clemens, grand lecturer; Minnie E. Lee, grand marshal; R. M. Brown, grand Adah; Clara Darling, grand Ruth; Susan J. Heppner, grand Esther; Ora H. Morey, grand Martha; Electa E. Colvin, grand Electa; Barbara Carbill, grand warder; S. L. Stone, grand sentinel; Clara Buskholder, grand organist. The state convocation of the Masonic Chapter, B. A. M., elected the following officers: J. H. Irvine, grand high priest; L. N. Rooney, deputy grand high priest; H. S. Strange, grand king; grand scribe; D. P. Mason, grand treasurer; J. F. Robertson, grand secretary; Seth L. Pope, grand lecturer; J. P. Galbraith, captain of the host; H. B. Thiessen, principal longmen; W. A. Cleland, royal arch captain; J. H. Walker, master of 3rd veil; W. P. Blanchard, master 2nd veil; T. M. Hurlburt, master 1st veil; Gustav Wilson, sentinel; S. M. Moran, chaplain. The grand lodge of Masons chose the following new officers: Grand master, Phil Metschan; deputy grand master, J. B. Cleland; J. M. Hodson, junior grand warden; D. C. McKecher, grand treasurer; James F. Robinson, grand secretary; Jacob Mayer, chairman of educational fund; grand chaplain, Rev. J. R. N. Bell; grand lecturer, G. M. D. Stroud; grand senior deacon, F. H. Allston; grand senior deacon, H. B. Thiessen, grand marshal, E. D. Boyer; grand orator, W. E. Carril; grand stewards, C. H. Vauper, J. M. M. Church; grand standard-bearer, P. O. Berg; grand sword-bearer, J. M. Stark; grand tyler, Gustav Wilson.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The yellow fellows will have charge of the men's meeting on Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Mr. Jas. A. Dummett of Portland, will deliver the address, and all men will be made welcome.

The third number in the series of dime concerts will be given by the young people of the Methodist church, on Saturday night, in the gymnasium, for the benefit of the furnishing fund. All are kindly invited.

The contest between the Yellows and Reds is waxing hotter as the closing time draws near. The tally is 37 to 37 and the membership is 208. Some think it will reach 300, and it certainly ought to as there is no better investment on earth for a young man than a membership in the Young Men's Christian Association.

The boys of the Y. M. C. A. have organized a ball team composed of the best material among their members, and are busily engaged in careful practice. Secretary Johnson of the Association, has arranged for a game with a Y. M. C. A. ball team of Portland, to be played upon the Chautauqua grounds on the ninth of July. The boys practice well and with careful training can play a game that would do credit to the best young men's team in the state.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with LaGrippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at Charman & Co's Drug Store, Charman Bros. block.

Xmas cigars, pipes, cigar cases, knives and razors are fine presents for gentlemen at Charman & Co's.

Help Home Industry.

The true foundation upon which to build up the prosperity of Oregon City is to patronize home industry and thus keep our money at home. In laundry work every dollar paid to Chinamen or to Portland laundries is practically lost to Oregon City especially when just as good work at the same price can be had at the Willamette Steam Laundry. This is a new home institution, employing only white help and is supplied with all the latest improved machinery, and using the purest spring water is able to guarantee first-class work. A trial of our work and prices is asked. Delivery wagon to all parts of the city. Down town office at Wilehart's barber shop.

The People's Favorite.

When you are hungry and want an appetizing meal—one that is well cooked to your taste and well served—try the Nickel Lunch Counter. This is no second-class restaurant, we feed the best people in Oregon City and they always go where they get full value for their money. Give us a trial.

GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT.

Oregon City is Headquarters for the Women's Relief Corps for the Next Year.

The last of the Oregon City delegates returned from the G. A. R. encampment at Independence, last Sunday. They report a grand meeting of the veterans. The G. A. R. of Independence, assisted by the citizens, had made great preparations for the encampment, and a large auditorium costing $1,200 stands a monument to their enterprise. Mrs. S. M. McCown of Oregon City, delivered the responsive address on behalf of the Women's Relief Corps.

The new officers of the G. A. R. for the ensuing year are: Department commander, D. C. Sherman of Salem; senior vice-commander, J. L. Stockton of Independence; junior vice-commander, J. W. Maxwell of Tillamook; medical director, Dr. E. H. Bradshaw of Salem; chaplain, Henry A. Barden of Portland; delegates to the national encampment at St. Paul, Minn., in September, J. A. Borlingame of Eugene, H. S. Allen of Portland and A. B. Cody of Beaverton.

The Sons of Veterans elected the following new officers: commander, D. M. Dyer of Silverton; senior vice-commander, O. L. Clark, Corvallis; junior vice-commander, G. G. Miles of Woods, Tillamook county. The new officers were installed by the retiring commander, H. L. Wells. About 100 ladies of the Women's Relief Corps and many of the comrades of the Grand Army being present.

The representatives of the Women's Relief Corps from Oregon City are to be congratulated in securing the principal offices, and consequently the headquarters of the department will be here for the next year. The new officers of the ensuing year are: Mrs. S. M. McCown of Oregon City, president; Mrs. Alice Connoway of Independence, senior vice-president; Mrs. Anna M. Baker of LaGrande, junior vice-president; Mrs. Fannie L. Cochran of Oregon City, treasurer; Mrs. Jennie B. Harding of Oregon City, secretary; Mrs. Josephine Crocker, Ashland, chaplain. Mrs. William Galloway was elected delegate at large to the national encampment, which meets at St. Paul. Mrs. Mary Scott Myers of The Dalles, the retiring department president, in her report showed 38 corps in good standing, with a membership of nearly 1,000. During the year, 297 families have been assisted, and the sum expended amounts to $1,312.89. The new officers of the department brought down the banners and paraphernalia belonging to the department of the Women's Relief Corps, and the elegant banner, that cost about $300, will be exhibited here for the first time on Patriotic Day at the Chautauqua assembly.

At the camp-fire, held in the auditorium on the last evening, Oscar Eaton of Oswego, responded to "The Men Who Captured Independence in 1896." M. E. Wiltoughby's name was unintentionally omitted from the names of delegates, who went from Oregon City, printed last week. It was voted to hold the next encampment in Independence.

Our Delegates.

One June 15, the Oregon delegates to the national republican convention at St. Louis, made the following committee selections:

National committeeman, George A. Steele; vice-president of the convention, J. H. Galbreath; resolutions, C. S. Moore; credentials, Wallace McCamant, permanent organization, J. W. Meldrum, notification, Charles Hilton; chairman of the delegation, Chas. Parrish; secretary, R. A. Booth.

The Oregon delegation adopted the following resolution, and will submit it to the national committee on resolutions: "The republican party has always been an advocate of honest money; it points with pride to its financial record during the greenback movement then. It was opposed to the greenback inflation then, it is opposed to silver inflation now. It believes that every dollar issued by the government should have the same purchasing power as every other dollar. We are, therefore, in favor of the maintenance of the present gold standard, and except through international agreement, we are opposed to the free or unlimited coinage of silver."

In addition to the above declaration the delegation also adopted a resolution endorsing Senator McBride for his action in opposing free silver in the United States senate.

Whooping Cough.

There is no danger from this disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough mucus and aids its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.
