G. Huntley, druggist.

Frank P. Welch, dentist, graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, will be in Oregon City office Thursday of each week; remainder of each week in Portland office, room 77 Dekum building.

Persons who have a coughing spell every night, on account of a tickling sensation in the throat, may overcome it at once by a dose of One Minute Cough Cure. C. G. Huntley, druggist.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive on pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds. C. G. Huntley, Druggist.

For a quiet place to hitch your horses

Fifth street.
Charman & Son have a splendid line of suits of clothing of the latest styles, and those desiring new suits for Decoration Day, will be allowed a 10 per cent discount off the regular price for cash.

In the program of the concert given at the Y. M. C. A. rooms by the Presbyterian young people, the name of Miss Mina Caples should have appeared in a duet with Miss Echo Samson, instead of Mina Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Myers, of Maple Lane, had their home made glad by the arrival of a fine baby boy on Monday, June 1. The pride of the father was so taken up with his hopeful that he forgot the newspaper man, hence the lateness of this notice.

Do you like a good laugh? If you do, then go to the Baptist church Friday night and hear Fred Ager talk about Africa and sing negro songs. He will have the native dress, and many curios that he brought from Africa. Admission only 10 cents.

A great slaughter sale of goods slightly damaged by smoke will be on for the next 15 days at E. E. Martin's cash store in the old Methodist church on Seventh street. Many of the goods not in the least damaged, will be sold away down below cost.

Meade Post, No. 2, will entertain the Women's Relief Corps in royal style at their hall in the Willamette block, this (Thursday) evening. The ladies of the Corps carried off the honors at the Independence encampment, and the veterans feel like complimenting them.

It would be hard to convince a man suffering from bilious colic that his ailment is due to a microbe with an unpronounceable name. But one dose of De Witt's Colic & Cholera Cure will convince him of its power to afford instant relief.
It kills pain. C. G. Huntley, druggist.

B. F. Swope read a paper before the State Sunday School convention in Portland last week on "The Unsaved in Our Communities, which was highly complimented by those who heard it. Rev.
A. J. Montgomery gave an excellent paper on "The Town Well Church."

When we consider that the intestines are about five times as large as the body, we can realize the intense suffering experienced when they become inflamed.
De Witt's Colic & Cholera Cure subdues inflammation at once and completely removes the difficulty. C. G. Huntley, druggist.

The marriage of Miss Margaret A.
Hesse of Canby to Mr. Irwin Norton of Milwaukee took place Wednesday at the M. E. parsonage in this city, Rev. S. W.
Stryker officiating. The young couple have many friends in this county who wish them all the happiness that comes of truly wedded life. They will make their home at Oak Grove, near Milwaukee.

L. O. Smith, of this city, who formerly edited and published a paper in William McKinley's home town in Ohio, is personally acquainted with, and a great admirer of the Major. In his residence he has a life-sized portrait of the probable next president, hanging on the wall in one of the rooms, which shows the intellectual face of the Ohio statesman to good advantage.

The Bank of Oregon City received a brand new and latest improved Corlies safe this week. It is guaranteed burglar proof, and has the capacity to hold $1,000,000 in gold coin. Its weight is seven tons, and it was hauled up from Portland on one the O. T. Co's truck wagons. The safe is very compact and circular in shape.

David Story, the blacksmith, has a broken thumb. On last Monday he was driving down the hill in his buggy and held a rope attached to Gabe Potter's colt. The colt was following behind, and suddenly took a notion to move in the opposite direction from the one in which the buggy was going. The end of the rope by which he led the colt became fastened around his thumb in some way, resulting as above named.

Eli Hill, Lumber City, Pa., writes, "I have been suffering from piles for twenty-five years and thought my case incurable. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me as a pile cure, so I bought a box and it performed a permanent cure." This is only one of thousands of similar cases. Eczema, sores and skin diseases yield quickly when it is used. C. G. Huntley, druggist.

Great preparations are being made for the meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' association at Union next Saturday. Miss Jennie Rowen and her pupils, assisted by the board of directors are making special efforts for the occasion. As this will be the last meeting of the association during Mr. Gibson's term of office as county superintendent, it is the intention to make this gathering a complimentary one to him. Superintendent Gibson is held in high esteem by the teachers of Clackamas county, as he has always taken a great interest in educational matters, and they delight to do him honor.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
Awarded Gold Medal Midwinter Fair, San Francisco.

The Novelty Candy Factory's big fountain is running almost day and night and the proprietors are serving their customers with the finest ice cream soda.
Artic soda, Wilnoit mineral water, root beer and carbonated orange cider.

While in Stockton, Cal., some time ago, Thos. F. Langan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely with cramps and diarrhoea. He chanced to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly afflicted. He says: "I told him of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and we went to the Holden Drug store and procured a bottle of it. It gave Mr. Carter prompt relief and I can vouch for its having cured me." For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

Mrs. J. T. Shattuck, about 76 years, died in Portland last Friday, and the remains were brought to Oregon City Sunday morning and interred in the city cemetery. Mrs. Shattuck was a pioneer of Clackamas county, and for many years resided with her husband in this city, having at one time conducted a hotel here. She was an aunt of Mrs. Jacob Shade. A number of relatives and friends followed her remains to the grave.
For several years past Mrs. Shattuck has resided in Portland with her son-in-law, William Buchanan.

Miss Anna Graham, daughter of Captain and Mrs. J. M. Graham, was married in Portland Wednesday evening to Mr. Ardee Morrill, a railroad man of Portland. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Dr. Locke, and took place at the residence of George Fuchs, on the East Side. Miss Graham has many friends in Oregon City, who extend their congratulations. For the past four years, Miss Graham has resided in Portland with her sister, Mrs. George Fuchs, and has been holding the position of type writer and stenographer in a well known wholesale house. Mrs. J. M.
Graham, Mrs. Fuchs, and Mr. Andersen, were guests at the wedding from Oregon City, also Miss Winnie Graham.

Oregon City received Wednesday afternoon a visit from the physicians who are in Portland attending the National Electrical Physicians Association. There were a number of ladies in the party, which filled three electric cars on the trip from Portland. At Seventh street President E. E. Charman of board of trade, and a number of citizens, met the visitors and escorted them across the suspension bridge and showed them the sights on the West Side, after which the party returned to the East Side and spent an hour looking over the city. The visitors were from nearly all the states of the Union, and expressed the fact that Oregon City would compare in her growth and possibilities with the most favored towns of the East, and that at a future day a great manufacturing city would be gathered about the falls of the Willamette.

Distinguished Guests.
Tuesday afternoon Mayor Straight had as guests of the city, the council and other city officers of Seattle and Mayor Frank and a part of the Portland city council. The party was accompanied by several prominent men of Portland, among them being W. W. Goode, of the Electric Company, who assisted in showing them through the electric station.

The party came by special car on the East Side road and were met by Mayor Straight, Pres. Charman of the board of trade and P. F. Morey, C. H. Caulfield, and a number of other citizens of Oregon City and taken through the points of interest on the east side of the river. At electric station A the visitors were taken aboard the steamer Altona and given a ride up through the basin around the head of the falls and the factories on the west side. After spending an hour inspecting these, a ride on the elegant coaches of the Willamette Falls electric line to Willamette was taken and the party given a chance to view the great falls of the Willamette river from the hills above. On their return the party boarded the Altona and were given a pleasant river ride to Portland. Each one of the visitors was greatly pleased with Oregon City and expressed great confidence in the future of the city as a great manufacturing center.

It hurts our friend the enemy awfully, to find after all the crowing and shouting

One of the most desirable features in a book or publication designed to be carried for the purpose of giving information, or for guidance in various pursuits is compactness of proportion. A book that will go into the pocket of an overcoat or duster is vastly more serviceable than a large bulky volume. It is said that one of the greatest reasons why the Rand-McNally Railway Guide is so popular is that its size 5x7 inches renders it entirely convenient under all circumstances. At the same time all the advice that could be desired can be found within its 672 pages. Subscriptions received at the home office, 166 Adam street, will be promptly acknowledged and the beautiful wall map of the United States, 66x44 inches, or if preferred, a large scale wall map of any state, sent the subscriber, prepaid. The map actually sells for $2.00. Yearly subscription, $3.00.

large trains that went up from McMinn-some of the cars. The Salem Statesman estimates that at least 8,000 came in on the various trains, and the conductors are to be congratulated on the success of their excursion.
