FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1896.

POPULIST CENTRAL COMMITTEE MEETING.—The populist county central committee and a majority of the newly elected county officials, held a meeting in Justice Dixon's office last Saturday afternoon. A plan of policy was adopted for conducting the county offices under the new administration. It was settled that Sheriff Grace should provide one deputy and two horses, to be paid out of his own salary, and that County Clerk Dixon and Recorder Luelling should have one deputy each, to be paid in the same manner. It was also decided that they should do their utmost to attend to all the business with the force thus provided. If extra help is necessary, it is understood that the county is to pay for it if agreeable with the county court. It was also decided that Assessor Stout should receive $800 a year, instead of $4 per day, and that the county should pay his deputies. Treasurer Shade is willing to run the office for the lawful salary, and pay what deputy hire is needed. Commissioners Marks expresses himself as not in favor of taking mileage, if it is not lawful. All the newly elected officers were present except Starkweather, the school superintendent elected, and consented to the arrangement. E. E. Martin will be Clerk Dixon's deputy, J. W. Grout will probably officiate as deputy sheriff, and Recorder Luelling will appoint his daughter, Miss Olive A. Luelling, as deputy. Treasurer Shade informed an ENTERPRISE reporter, that he had not yet decided what he would do in reference to help in his office, until he entered upon the discharge of his duties, and became thoroughly conversant with the work of the office. He intended to get some competent person to help at the beginning, until he was familiar with all the details of the work, and it is probable that he will try to do most the work himself, although of course, there are times when help is necessary. The committee found that its total campaign expenses from September 1st, 1895, to date, had been $483, and was all paid except $100, which amount was provided for at this meeting. Since the above meeting was held Superintendent Starkweather has expressed his willingness to fill the office for the sum laid down in the platform.

SCHOOL MEETING.—The board of directors of the Oregon City school district, No. 62, held a meeting at the office of Clerk Ryan, last Friday evening. J. W. Noble, chairman of the board of directors, presiding. The salaries of the teachers for the month of May was ordered paid. Clerk Ryan reported that he had paid off the notes held against the district by the Bank of Oregon City, with interest, amounting to $1,528.80. The clerk was directed to advertise for 70 cords of wood to be delivered at the Barclay school, and 65 cords at the Eastham school. The following teachers for the next year were elected: Barclay school—city superintendent and principal, S. W. Holmes; vice-principal, P.

M. Weddell; grade teachers, Miss Gertrude Finley, Miss Hattie Monroe, Miss Mabelle Wiggins, Miss Laura Beattie, Miss Hattie Cochran, Miss May Kelly; Eastham school—principal, L. W. McAdam; grade teachers, Mrs. L. W. McAdam, Miss Erma Lawrence, Miss Anna Baird, Miss Ora Spangler, Miss Mollie Hankins. All the teachers and grades are the same as last year, with one exception. Miss Wetherell, who was one of the teachers last year, did not file an application, and Miss Wiggins was elected to succeed her. Last year there were 80 applications for positions in the Oregon City public schools, while this year there were only 52. The salary of Prof. McAdam, principal of the Eastham school was raised to $1,000 per year, the same as city superintendent. The salary of the vice-principal was raised to $70 per month, and the other teachers will receive $360 each for the year.

GOLDEN JUBILEE AND PIONEER DAY.—Tuesday was a great day in Portland, and the fiftieth anniversary of the treaty with Great Britain, that gave the territory of Oregon to the United States, was observed in a becoming way. The attendance of pioneers was greater than ever before known in the history of the association. The parade, addresses, songs, poetry and banquet, were everything that could be desired. Among those who attended from Clackamas county were: J. S. Risley, W. Cary Johnson, William Barlow, J. T. Apperson, S. F. Marks, Jane Caulfield, David Caulfield, Mrs. Fannie L. Cochran, Mrs. Mary La Forest, George F. Smith, William Galloway and C. N. Greenman. Of course, there were many others in attendance who did not register their names. Following are the new officers of the association; President, Hon. George H. Williams; vice-president, Captain J. T. Apperson; corresponding secretary, Dr. Curtis C. Strong; treasurer, Henry Failing; directors, A. Bush, William Galloway and William M. Ladd.

IN JUSTICE DIXON'S COURT.—On last Friday the case of Charles Shields and Gus Freeman vs Evans & Silvey, was heard. The plaintiffs had been cutting wood for the defendants, and claimed a balance due of $88.64. The defendants, however, asserted that the claim had been paid by an order on F. H. Grasspach, of Portland, but the latter, who was in attendance on the court, testified that he was not indebted to defendant, at the time the order was given. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs for the amount sued for. G. B. Dimick and L. L. Porter appeared for the plaintiffs, and W. T. Burney for the defendants. On Tuesday, William Porter, of Garfield precinct, was up on a charge of assault on the person of Mrs. Dietrich with criminal intent. He was bound over to appear before the grand jury in the sum of $100. On Wednesday, Geo. Weber had a hearing on a charge of larceny of wood from Myer & Rhode, on the Kinson farm. He was fined $25, in default of which, he is serving out his sentence in the county jail.

Y. M. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT.—The young people of the Congregational church gave a very interesting concert in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last Friday evening. Every number was heartily applauded, and a few responded to encores. First was a piano solo by Miss Ora Spangler, with response; a solo, "Madeline," Mrs. Dora Gray, with response; trio, "Silence," Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Caulfield and Miss Spangler; solo, "One Day," G. H. Bestow; song, "Little Rose," Crescent Quartette, with response; reading, "The Strike in the Choir," by Robert Burdette, Miss Mabelle Wiggins; quartette, "Come where the Lilies Bloom," Mrs. Caulfield, Mrs. Gray and Messrs. Bestow and Weddell, solo, Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, "Love's Old Sweet Song," with response; song, "Dreaming," Crescent Quartette. Next Saturday evening the young people of the M. E. church will give a concert at the rooms, which will be the third of the series given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A.

DROWNED IN THE CLACKAMAS.—About two weeks ago Everett McCafferty came from near La Camas, Washington, accompanied by his family, consisting of a young wife and two small children, and took up his residence at Gladstone. He obtained employment from Mr. Cross, and was engaged in driving logs down the river. Tuesday afternoon he was riding across the river about three miles above the mill on one of Mr. Cross' horses, and getting into deep water the horses stumbled from some cause, throwing Mr. McCafferty into the river, where he drowned. The horse reached the shore safely, and search was at once instituted for Mr. McCafferty's body, but at the latest accounts the remains had not been discovered. The deceased is said to have been a member of the La Camas A. O. U. W. lodge. His loss is a sad one to the young wife and two small children.

FLOWERS IN GLADSTONE PARK.—Fifty-two varieties of flowers have been discovered by the students of botany in Clackamas county do wild flowers grow in greater profusion or exhibit more brilliancy of color than in this favored locality. The old Indian burying ground is at this time decorated with a great variety of wild flowers, that gives it a highly attractive appearance. Just at this particular season Gladstone park is at its best, and the numerous varieties of wild flowers make it a most beautiful spot. At no place about Oregon City can a more pleasant place be found for a stroll or to spend an afternoon than in this park.

Probate Court.

Gordon E. Hayes, Judge.
The last will and testament of Conrad Neibert, deceased of Canby, was admitted to probate, with Mrs. Rosa Neibert as executrix. The estate is valued at $8,000, and is situated in Clackamas and Marion counties. The five children will be allotted their share of the estate, upon arriving at their majority. John A. English was granted letters of administration on the estate of Thomas J. English, deceased. The personal property of the estate is valued at $900, and J. C. Tracy, J. B. Culick and D. M. Marshall were appointed appraisers of said estate.

In the matter of the estate of Owen P. Owen, deceased, the final account of the administrator, R. D. Price, was approved, and he was discharged from further liability in the matter.
