Additional to his national reputation as a pulpit orator, a particular interest is manifested for the Rev. Mr. Davis here, from his former engagement in the city and the friends that he made at that time. The lecturer seems to have become a favorite in Oregon, first having been introduced at the Marquam Grand in Portland, and lately addressing immense audiences at the state convention of his church at Turner and the state fair at Salem. He is now on his way to the Chautauque at Oregon City, where he is to deliver two addresses.—Albany Herald.

R. D. Wilson, Wm. Wright and Chris Looney spent last Saturday and Sunday on the Upper Clackamas and Clear creek fishing. They report a royal good time, the only thing happening to mar the pleasure of the occasion being the persistence of Wilson in filling up the bottle with water to the injury of their systems.

Eli Hill, Lumber City, Pa., writes, "I have been suffering from piles for twenty-five years and thought my case incurable. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me as a pile cure, so I bought a box and it performed a permanent cure." This is only one of thousands of similar cases. Quite a large number of people from Corvallis went to Oregon city by boat last Monday, to be present at the Chautauque now in progress there. The Ladies, band, Prof. J. B. Horner and wife, Mrs. S. N. Wilkins, her daughter, Miss Lola, and her son Hallie, Mr. W. D. Prichard, Prof. and Mrs. Cordley, President Bloss and wife, Prof. Hedrick and Rev. and Mrs. Moses were among the party. Mr. Prichard goes for the purpose of taking care of exhibits that go from the agricultural college, while Prof. Horner and wife are to chaperone the ladies of the band.—Times.

The excursion given by the ladies of M. E. church on the Fourth of July was a grand affair. The ladies of that church are noted for making a success of everything they undertake. Nearly 600 of Oregon City's best people went on board the Harvest Queen Saturday morning for this grand ride up the Columbia. The scenery along the route was grand, and the steamer made the successful trip without a hitch or accident, returning to Oregon City by eight o'clock. The Clackamas Band furnished music for the trip, and all who were fortunate enough to get on board of the steamer, report a most delightful trip.

Mr. Stock was an excellent young man of good repute, and was aged about 23 years. He lived in "Kansas City" addition to Oregon City, where he owns property. His parents live several miles up the Abernethy, and his mother is the beneficiary of a $2,000 insurance policy in the Woodmen.

It would be hard to convince a man suffering from bilious colic that his agony is due to a microbe with an unpronounceable name. But one dose of De Witt's Colic & Cholera Cure will convince him of its power to afford instant relief. It kills pain. C. G. Huntley, druggist.

For the Ocean Side.

The White Collar Line and the O. R. & N. Co. have effected a combination whereby the two companies will work in harmony. The Gatzert has been withdrawn from the route, and the Ocean Wave takes her place. The Potter and Ocean Wave will alternate as night boats, running direct to Ilwaco, while the Telephone and Thompson will take the day run. Under the new schedule a boat will leave each end of the line daily, including Sunday, and as soon as the people get accustomed to the change will doubtless appreciate the new service, which is as near perfect as can be devised.

Royal Baking Powder

Rev. L. Grey, the new minister of the Lutheran church here, is rapidly building up a large congregation, and his efforts deserve to be crowned with the fullest success, as they doubtless will be. He is a good worker. He finds there are about 150 men and women in The Dalles who have at some time in the past belonged to the Lutheran church—a larger membership, he believes, than any other protestant church in the city. Many are slow in attending services, having been out of the habit of attending church for so long, but all have contributed generously to the work. Mr. Grey finds plenty of reason to be thankful for the way the church work is progressing, and soon this noble old church organization may have an edifice of its own in The Dalles.—The Dalles Chronicle.

New York Tribune.
Leader of the Republican Party.
1896.

Are You Willing to Listen to a Suggestion?

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE'S broad columns and large print make it the easiest paper in the country to read, either on the cars or at home. Henry Romeike, proprietor of the largest Newspaper Clipping Agency in the world, testifies in a published card, that his clippings for over 4,000 clients shows that THE TRIBUNE contains, "day by day and week by week, far more original matter than any daily newspaper in New York City." He proves the fact by figures. THE WEEKLY ranks the same. Business men find the market report of THE TRIBUNE absolutely without an equal. THE TRIBUNE is the only newspaper in New York City whose reporters actually visit all the different markets in person.

THE TRIBUNE now prints the best and freshest humorous pictures of the day from the comic press of two continents, and supplies plenty of other entertainment. By its special telegrams and correspondence, its able editorials and high literary character, THE TRIBUNE maintains a splendid position in the regard of Republicans and lovers of music, art, and good books.

THE TRIBUNE'S society news is known everywhere for excellence. Its fashions have always been of special value, and changes of style are, as a rule, foretold in THE TRIBUNE sooner than in other newspapers. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE is recognized, officially, as the leading newspaper of the Republican party.

As for Farming and Labor, THE TRIBUNE has for 50 years demanded, and yet demands that very possible dollar's worth of food and commodities, consumed by the American people, shall be produced by the American people. For this cause THE TRIBUNE labors in its various additions 365 days in every year. A man is judged by the newspaper he takes. He who reads THE TRIBUNE is wide awake, progressive, respectable and capable, worthy of the confidence of business and social friends. If you are a young man you will live in a rut all your life (except by catering to that which is base) if you feed your mind upon newspapers, full of scandal, vulgarity and innuendo. Think for a moment of the people who read newspaper of that class. On the other hand, THE TRIBUNE has probably the largest clientele of the very people who can help to improve a young man's position, of any newspaper in the United States. Associate yourself with them.

Mr. Hort continues to write for THE TRIBUNE. Sample copies free. DAILY, $10 a year SUNDAY separately, $2. SEMI-WEEKLY, $2. WEEKLY, $1. TRIBUNE ALMANAC for 1896, 50 cents. THE TRIBUNE, New York.

Last Thursday M. A. Plowman brought suit in Justice Dixon's court against A. G. Maisten for $50 alleged to be the balance due on a board bill incurred during the year 1895. Hedges & Griffith appeared for the plaintiff, and V. R. Hyde for the defendant. The defendant submitted evidence to show that he had paid the account in full, but the plaintiff contended with rebutting evidence that the balance claimed was correct. The Judge rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. Reliable fire insurance—F. E. DONALDSON.
