At McMinnville during the bi-metallic convention two men met by chance, forming a meeting of national interest. One was Salmon Brown, a son of the famous John Brown, and the other was Mr. Booth, a son of sheriff Booth who hanged John Brown at Osawatimie. They talked over old affairs in a very friendly way. It was said further that a man was present who, being angered at Sheriff Booth for hanging Brown, took revenge by burning several buildings that belonged to Mr. Booth.

Dr. Pickens went out and joined the party, but was compelled to return home on account of illness. The party report having had a pleasant outing. Mr. Huntley was especially benefited by the trip, having apparently fully regained his health. He of late having been afflicted with malaria.

Capt. F. S. Kelly who was a member of the party returned to the city last Monday. If the republicans elect their ticket, it is observed that the "first lady of the land," Mrs. McKinley, will be debarred by the state of her health from social prominence in Washington, and it is discovered that Mrs. Hobert is eminently calculated to fill the lack. The wife of the republican candidate for vice president is an accomplished woman thoroughly conversant with politics, a social adept, a handsome, vigorous, interesting and brainy person, who loves to give dinner parties and to bring interesting people together. She is a clever talker it is said.

Phil Neis, the hop dealer was a passenger for Independence by the river yesterday afternoon. Mr. Neis sees very little encouragement for growers and dealers in present conditions and future prospects, as the enormous over-production of hops last year gave all the brewers an opportunity to supply themselves with sufficient stocks to run them for another year, and Mr. Neis stated that should not a pound of hops be sold in the United States there would still be no difficulty about securing a sufficient quantity.—Salem Statesman.

A mixture of fire-water and incompatibility of temper caused war whoops to resound in marked contrast to the roar of the falls, and razors to fly in the air at the Indian camp on the hill Chief of Police Burns and Officer Shaw heard of the rumpus and visited the group of tepees among the big firs, which resulted in the arrest of Indian Nellie and Indian Joe. Nellie had cut Joe across the arm with a razor, from which he bled profusely. The woman was sentenced to jail for three days, but sentence was suspended as to Joe during a period of good behavior. They asserted that some wicked white man had given them whiskey and they tumbled off into a blissful state of forgetfulness.

There was some lively proceedings connected with the police court at Canby during the past week. The M. Echur camp meeting attracts a large number of people to that thriving town and itinerant peddlers reap a harvest, especially when they are permitted to carry on their business without a license. J. W. Smith was one of these itinerant individuals and he was doing a rushing business, but he was arrested and taken before Recorder Shank. While the court had a few minutes recess, Smith and his attorney, J. E. Marks, boarded the north-bound train and came to Oregon City. A telephone message caused Chief of Police Burns to place Smith under arrest and the Canby police force came down and returned with the defendant to that place, bound in irons.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

New York Tribune. Leader of the Republican Party. 1896. Are You Willing to Listen to a Suggestion? THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE'S broad columns and large print make it the easiest paper in the country to read, either on the cars or at home.

Henry Romeike, proprietor of the largest Newspaper Clipping Agency in the world, testifies in a published card, that his clippings for over 4,000 clients shows that THE TRIBUNE contains, "day by day and week by week, for more original matter than any daily newspaper in New York City." He proves the fact by figures. THE WEEKLY ranks the same.

Business men find the market report of THE TRIBUNE absolutely without an equal. THE TRIBUNE is the only newspaper in New York City whose reporters actually visit all the different markets in person.

THE TRIBUNE now prints the best and freshest humorous pictures of the day from the comic press of two continents, and supplies plenty of other entertainment.

By its special telegrams and correspondence, its able editorials and high literary character, THE TRIBUNE maintains a splendid position in the regard of Republicans and lovers of music, art, and good books.

THE TRIBUNE'S society news is known everywhere for excellence. Its fashions have always been of special value, and changes of style are, as a rule, foretold in THE TRIBUNE sooner than in other newspapers.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE is recognized, officially, as the leading newspaper of the Republican party.

As for Farming and Labor, THE TRIBUNE has for 50 years demanded, and yet demands that very possible dollar's worth of food and commodities, consumed by the American people, shall be produced by the American people. For this cause THE TRIBUNE labors in its various additions 365 days in every year.

A man is judged by the newspaper he takes. He who reads THE TRIBUNE is wide awake, progressive, respectable and capable, worthy of the confidence of business and social friends. If you are a young man you will live in a rut all your life (except by catering to that which is base) if you feed your mind upon newspapers, full of scandal, vulgarity and inanity. Think for a moment of the people who read newspaper of that class. On the other hand, THE TRIBUNE has probably the largest clientele of the very people who can help to improve a young man's position, of any newspaper in the United States. Associate yourself with them.

Mr. Horr continues to write for THE TRIBUNE. Sample copies free. DAILY, $10 a year SUNDAY separately, $2. SEMI-WEEKLY, $2. WEEKLY, $1. TRIBUNE ALMANAC for 1896, 50 cents.
