Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 229 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a stage of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes special pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's Last Letter.

The last thing written by Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, only a few days before her death, was a loving acknowledgment to the public for fond remembrances and tokens and expressions of affectionate esteem, on her 85th birthday, which she sent to The Ladies' Home Journal. In the next issue of this magazine it will be published in fac simile. It reflects the beautiful nature of the gifted authoress, and by her death has become her last message to the American public.

The Portland.

Re-opened near the corner of Main and Seventh street. Clean, bright, well-furnished dining room and private rooms elegantly fitted up. Have one of the most skillful cooks on the Coast. If your meat order does not please you, just let me know. Best dinner in the city including a glass of wine for 25 cents, 11:30 to 4 p. m. Oysters served in every style. Open day and night. Give The Portland a trial.

L. RECONICH, Proprietor.

A Laboring Man's Home.

For a person, who desires to stop paying rent and to raise their own vegetables and fruit, I have a splendid piece of land, one acre on Abernathy road mostly improved, house, chicken-yard, good well and some fruit. One mile and half from Oregon City. School house and church 1/4 of a mile from place, three brick yards and saw mill near by. Price $250, part down, balance on time. Trade or work in part pay. Inquire at place or address G. W. WALDRON, Oregon City.

Best and Cheapest Insurance.

Save money on your insurance by calling on E. E. Martin, who represents the only Mutual doing business in Oregon City. You cannot afford to keep on throwing your money into policies and pay from 3 to 5 years premiums in advance and then have the company fail. The Oregon Fire Relief association will stand the closest investigation.

E. E. MARTIN, Agt.
Commercial Bank Block.

For Young Men and Young Women

There is nothing that will arouse the ire of a young man or woman so quick as to have inferior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussy their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Farnsworth's barber shop.

Buy A Home.

I have a house and 4 lots for sale only 5 blocks from Main street, a good well with pump in wash room, 25 young fruit trees that will soon be bearing. Will sell cheap, part down, balance on easy payments if desired.

S. F. SCRIPTURE.

H. B. Miller, of Eugene, was in Oregon City Tuesday. He has resigned his position as one of the regents of the state agricultural college, as he probably expects to be elected president of that institution. Governor Lord has appointed Samuel Hughes, of Forest Grove, to fill the vacancy.

W. F. Hubbard, superintendent of the Clackamas hatchery, states that they are getting everything in readiness for a profitable season of hatching salmon as soon as the season begins. A lot of racks have been put in at Salmon river, from which it is expected to get an extra supply of spawn to replenish the Clackamas hatchery.

A New Novel by Rudyard Kipling.

Rudyard Kipling is now putting the last touches on a fifty-thousand-word novel dealing with the Gloucester fishermen and their life on the Grand Banks. It is written from close personal study of the scene and the people. It is American in its characters, and in its plot seafaring and adventurous. It breaks entirely new ground. The title is "Captains Courageous." There has been a lively competition for the serial rights of "Captains Courageous." They have been secured for the United States by The S. S. McClure Co., and publication of the novel will begin in the November number of McClure's Magazine.

National Populist Convention.

The St. Louis populist national convention seems to be a convention of recesses, at least there was a recess last night, and there was another recess until three o'clock, this (Thursday) afternoon. It is possible that presidential nominations will be made Friday.

Insurance that insures—

F. E. DONALDSON.

The cruiser Philadelphia arrived in Portland last Saturday, and is being visited by a large number of people. Several of the crew spent last Sunday in Oregon City, and apparently enjoyed a day on dry land.

Ask for Dairy Creek butter and you will get the best.

E. E. WILLIAMS, the Grocer.

George Stock has been appointed administrator of the estate of his son, Henry Stock, who was recently drowned in the Abenethy. The estate is of the probable value of $1500.

You don't have to send your laundry to Portland. You can have them laundered perfect at a reasonable price, at the Willamette Steam laundry of Oregon City.

C. A. Nash has remodeled the old plumbing shop on upper Seventh street and it serves very well the purposes intended for a general merchandise store.

W. W. Stovall, the upper Seventh street groceryman, has leased the old feed store stable and now makes a specialty of boarding horses and teams.

Mrs. Anna Belshaw has been appointed postmaster of Rodland, taking the position made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. L. D. Johnson.

County Clerk Dixon has granted permits to marry to Margaret Waters and Joseph Lenery, and Minnie Augusta Thun and John Henry Bottemiller.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

The matter of the estate of Ulrich Payne, deceased, was up for consideration before county Judge Hayes this week. J. C. Bradley, administrator, filed his report upon the condition of said estate, and also his resignation as administrator. Mr. Bradley claimed that he did not have time to look after the interests of the estate properly, and asked that some one else be appointed in his stead. His report of receipts and expenditures was filed and approved, and an order made by the court releasing the said J. C. Bradley as administrator, and that his bondmen be exonerated from all liabilities. Upon petition, Thomas Payne, son of the deceased, was appointed administrator of said estate.

F. E. DONALDSON.

Henry E. Doseh, horticultural commissioner for the first congressional district, has widened the offer and extended the time for competition for his medal to be presented for the best essay by girls or boys, attending any graded or ungraded school. The time has been extended to November 1, 1896, and all boys or girls between the ages of 14 and 18 years, attending any country school are entitled to compete for the medal. The essay must not consist of more than 700 words, and must be accompanied by the author's full name, and state what school he is attending, and postoffice address.

Our special offer sale will mean a saving of no less than 25 cents on each dollar. We mean what we say.

MISS C. GOLDSMITH, The Milliner.

While in Stockton, Cal., some time ago, Thos. F. Langan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely with cramps and diarrhoea. He chanced to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly afflicted. He says: "I told him of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and we went to the Holden Drug store and procured a bottle of it. It gave Mr. Carter prompt relief and I can vouch for its having cured me." For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

Best insurance companies

F. E. DONALDSON.

Lawrence Ruconich of the Portland restaurant has arrangements made whereby he receives fresh mountain trout from the upper Clackamas river twice a week for his restaurant. Mr. Ruconich makes a specialty of providing all the delicacies of the season for his guests and his tables equal the best in Portland. The cooking and seasoning is to perfection and the table service all that one could ask. His 25 cent dinners cannot be excelled in the state.

We are dumb during this special offer sale, our prices do the talking.

MISS C. GOLDSMITH, The Milliner.

Road supervisor E. S. Bramhall, of Bull Run, on Tuesday sent in a communication to the Portland Water commission, asking the committee for a donation of $100 to aid in keeping in order the pipe line road down the Sandy bluff. The committee declined to appropriate anything, as they thought Clackamas county should keep this piece of road in repairs.

Largest insurance business

F. E. DONALDSON.

The Chautauqua closed at Gladstone Park, near Oregon City, yesterday. The session has been the most successful one ever known on the coast, both for broadening the mind and furnishing a high-class series of entertainments. The only thing to mar the enjoyment was the heat during the latter part of the session. The entire party that went from here is expected home by boat today.—Corvallis Times.

Reliable fire insurance—

F. E. DONALDSON.

The Methodist church has had the good fortune to secure the services of Mrs. J. H. Strickler as choir leader and she is giving good satisfaction. Next Sunday evening in place of the sermon the choir will give a sacred concert. In addition to the anthems, solos, etc., some of the old-time hymns will be sung and a bit of interesting history recited. A cordial welcome to all.

Every summer hat must go at our special offer sale.

MISS C. GOLDSMITH, The Milliner.

A representative of God's American Volunteers, the new Salvation army under command of Ballington Booth, was in Oregon City during the last week, trying to raise money to fit up a hall for their division. He however, did not meet with encouraging success, and started out to seek other fields. He succeeded in organizing a division at Woodburn.

Leading insurance agency

F. E. DONALDSON.

The Oregon Press Association has accepted an invitation to hold their annual session at Astoria on August 18th, 19th and 20th. This is the time set for the annual regatta and the occasion will be a notable one.
