A Girl Seriously Hurt—Children From the Orphan's Home to be Entertained—Good Road Work.

CLACKAMAS, Aug. 10.—Bertha Pankie was thrown from a horse last Thursday evening but was not seriously hurt. She remained unconscious for four or five hours.

Blackberries, blackberries, is all one hears and I won't try to tell how many have been some going the second time.

One can say now, that the road from Portland to Oregon City is clear from brush, and if they hadn't had an Eastern ruster for a boss, the brush would have been as high where they began as it was in front of them.

Mrs. Howlet is very sick at this writing. Mrs. Hickie and Walter are at Mr. Keyes' keeping house for her daughter, who is at the coast.

Mrs. E. J. Longeoy made a surprise for her husband on the evening of the 8th, and invited the W. C. T. U. and their husbands. A lunch was served and afterwards the union presented the host and hostess each with a china pitcher, bowl and plate, but only one John Chinaman doll, the event being in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Longeoy's birthday.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union and Loyal Temperance Legion have prepared to entertain between 80 and 90 Home children from Portland, August 11th. The Southern Pacific railroad brings and returns them free. Lunch will be given them and many other enjoyments made for them in the beautiful grove. Our floral department has prepared an everlasting bouquet and text on each, which is to be given as they return to take the train.

Viola Violins.

VIOLA, Aug. 10th.—Miss Sadie Brock, of Astoria, is visiting with relatives here.

Howard Hayden left for Vancouver, last Monday, to enlist in the U. S. Army.

Mrs. M. E. Karten and Miss Annie Hickie, both of Astoria, attended the Teachers Institute at Oregon City last week.

W. H. Dohy, a well known lawyer of Canby, was here last Tuesday and Wednesday on legal matters.

Mrs. L. Phelps, took a trip to Portland last Friday.

Miss Olive Tenny is visiting friends in Oregon City.

Mrs. Ruth Robb, who has been stopping in Portland for some time, returned last Friday.

A party was given Eva Mattou last Tuesday evening, the occasion being the 10th anniversary of her birth. Quite a number of her young friends were present. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and games. All enjoyed themselves hugely until a late hour.

Arthur Mattou has been setting up cigars to the boys, on the advent of a new son.

A church social will be given Friday evening, August 28, a program will be rendered consisting of music, singing and recitations. Ice cream and other refreshments will be served. Proceeds from the sale of refreshments will be given to the preacher.

There will be a grand picnic at Viola Park, August 25, to which every body is invited.

The Teacher's Association of this county will hold their regular monthly meeting here at the above date. The program is in the hands of an efficient committee and will appear in the county papers in due time.

Jessie Mitchell met with an accident that came very near resulting fatally. While chopping wood the ax glanced and struck his foot inflicting a dangerous wound. He was brought to Dr. Kartens' office, where the flow of blood was stopped and the wound was dressed, but he was too weak to be removed until the next day.

Miss Millie Brouillette, of Gervais, lectured to a large and appreciative audience at the M. E. Church, August 21. Her subject was temperance, and was delivered in a pleasing and earnest manner and was frequently interrupted by hearty applause. Miss Brouillette is an earnest worker and we bespeak for her a grand career.

VIOLET.

Carus News.

CARUS, Aug. 10th.—The M. E. Church and Sunday School will hold a donation sociable in the church building Friday evening, August 21, for the benefit of the pastor. A good literary program is in preparation.

Yesterday quite a number of Carus iters visited the New Soda Springs, recently discovered on the farm belonging to Huris opposite E. C. Maddock's place. It is pleasantly erected and may develop into a popular summer resort.

Mr. Hayhurst has moved from the old parsonage building on the southwest corner of his farm to the location formerly occupied by E. C. Maddock, was commonly known, Father Whitlock. He has partly rebuilt and entirely remodeled the old dwelling house, finishing it neatly inside with fresh paint and paper.

In spite of hard times, many improvements are going on and about this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardesty, of Eastern Oregon, are visiting friends and relatives here about.

CALLA.

CARUS, Aug. 8.—The rain has hindered harvest and perhaps spoiled or at least injured the grain. But it has assured a fair potato crop and proved agreeable in many respects.

Six wagons passed Carus Corners last Monday enroute for the Eagle Creek country. The thirty or more occupants were going for an outing and also for blackberries.

Horton Graham who has a position in Portland, came out August 2nd to spend his birthday with his parents.

Mrs. Richardson spent a few days this week with her son, John Steidam and family.

Mrs. J. E. Lewis went to Portland Wednesday p. m., expecting to return on Friday accompanied by her sister Mrs. Mary Turner, of Carbonada.

Mrs. Humphrey Jones and sister returned Thursday from Chinook and Long Beach, where they have had a pleasant two week's outing.

The sun is out, the clouds dispersing and harvest will boom merrily along. Commissioner Jaccar is having his threshing machine put in order and will probably be in the field early next week.

Last evening, David Hunter received the sad news of the death by drowning of his grand-nephew, Harry Hunter. He was fording the Lewis river when his horse threw him off and he sank immediately.

CALLA.

Concord Notes.

CONCORD, Aug. 9.—One of the most enjoyable events of the season was a social given in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Rhoda Lee by her friends and relatives, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Robertson, on the evening of August 3rd, 1906.

An early hour her numerous friends and acquaintances assembled and found the house beautifully and tastefully decorated with evergreens and various kinds of flowers. The evening was spent in social converse, singing, and various kinds of games. At 10:30 which came all too soon a splendid lunch was spread which would have gratified the palate of the most fastidious epicure. The table fairly groaned under the load of good things prepared for the occasion, and the company did full justice to the excellent supper prepared for them. About 12 o'clock the company reluctantly dispersed, each one apparently feeling that it was well for them to have been there. Among those present were the following, who all joined in wishing the fair recipient many happy returns of the pleasant occasion: J. S. Rasley, John F. Risley, W. F. Seboll, John Outfield, Phillip Outfield, Earnest Outfield, Henry Thiesen, Edward Roethe, Paul Roethe, Will Kiehl, Ota Larson, Joseph Stephens, Robert Caulfield, Mrs. Bibby, Mipes Amand Outfield, Ella McNeil, Ida Starkweather, Dora Thiesen, Minerva Thiepen, Emma Roethe, and Annie Heilmeyer.

The hay crop is good in this vicinity, the potato crop will be light. The oat crop will also be very light, while spring wheat will yield a fair average. Hops are not looking so well as they did last year, and as there seems to be no price for them, growers are correspondingly discouraged.

All kinds of business is very much depressed at the present time, and the only way I see out of it is to elect McKinley, and stand firm for sound money, moderate and equal protection, and prosperity will surely follow.

Our Sunday school is in a prosperous and flourishing condition. At an election held recently for the selection of officers for the ensuing year, our present efficient superintendent Daniel Robertson was elected for the third time, Mrs. Rhoda Lee was selected as assistant superintendent, Miss Ida Starkweather secretary, M. Outfield treasurer, and Joseph Stephens librarian.

Rev. Mr. Powell preaches for us on the second and fourth Sundays, and Rev. Mr. Wright and Sellwood hold services occasionally, so we are well supplied with religious services.

As ours is a union school all denominations are free and equal. I think there is an effort being made by some, to change it to a denominational school, but that cannot be done, as there is not enough of any one persuasion to warrant such a course.

OLGO.

Crescent Rays.

CRESCENT, Aug. 11.—Hot weather. Farmers are glad to see the rain over for the present. Now the dust is laid, one can travel much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinger have gone on their wheels for a pleasure trip, expecting to go as far as the coast.

Mr. Stevens and wife, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Yach, Mr. Z. Gard, J. A. Jones and a member of his family have gone to the mountains for berries and an outing. Some have returned not having had very good success.

Messrs. Yach, J. and T. Kraeft talk of going to the mountains this week, to a mining district it is said.

T. Kraeft furnished the brick and built the foundation, fireplace, chimney and flue, while Mr. Rue and Mr. Yach have done the carpenter work on Mr. Yach's new house. It will be a credit to the neighborhood.

A dance at J. A. Jones' hall last Saturday night would have been very pleasant, if it had not been for a few young men who were drinking and consequently made some disturbance.

A number of our young people gathered at the church last Saturday evening for the purpose of cleaning the yard. They spent a few hours very pleasantly eating cake and drinking lemonade.

Mrs. Lavelle Marshall of Portland, and Mr. Frank Collard of Lafayette, made a short visit last week with their uncle, G. W. Waldron.

Misses May and Jane Stone of Canby, visited at G. W. Waldron's last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Bennet and son of the state of Washington, are visiting with her sister, Mrs. Vosburg.

The hunting party consisting of Messrs. J. A. Jones, Oscar and Gilbert Jones and Chris. Tooney, have returned proud in the possession of both bear and deer meat.

GLENN.

EAGLE CREEK, Aug. 8.—The rain is causing much damage to wheat in the shock, but it is doing potatoes and other vegetables a great deal of good.

Mrs. J. W. Douglas returned home last Monday from Dufur, where she has been visiting relatives for the past six weeks. Her health is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gibson of Milwaukie, Mrs. S. Holcomb of Portland and Mrs. C. Dauchy and sons, Charlie and Frank, of Gladstone, are visiting relatives and camping at this place.

Miss Linnie Keenan of Portland, is spending her vacation at J. P. Woodie's.

Rev. Wm. Rich will preach at the school house in district No. 50, the 5th Sunday in August, at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

REDLAND NEWS.

Ladies' Aid Society Elect New Officers—Political Matters.

REDLAND, Aug. 10.—The Ladies' Aid Society of this place met at Mrs. Allen's last Tuesday afternoon. There was no work for them to do so they had all the afternoon in electing their new officers, who will remain in office for the next six months. The following officers were elected: Mrs. H. Wilcox, president; Mrs. Murdoch, vice-president; Miss H. F. Wilcox, secretary; Miss Olive Mosher, assistant secretary; Mrs. B. Funk, treasurer.

We will soon hear the hum of the thrasher in this town. Say, friends! I was told by the owner of the machine that he calculated to have a meal at every ranch where he thrashes and that there will be two hearty eaters with the crew this season. He did not inform me whether he was going to have A. B., the pie eater, with the crew or not. If he does it will take all of the grain to get a hog fat for land and all the fruit that the country affords to make the pies.

The Ladies Aid Society intends to have a musical concert in the near future. They have not decided on the admission fee yet. The proceeds will go toward fixing up and improving the cemetery.

The late rain injured the grain that was cut as the ground was so warm that it moulded all that was not shocked. The balance is hurt more or less.

The person who took the liberty to enter Mrs. Barrett's cellar and take a pan of milk, also some shorts and hay from the barn, could have had the same by asking for it, but probably it was easier to take it than to ask for it.

The Ocala brass band did not make as much out of their picnic at Wright's Springs as they expected on account of bad weather. D. H. Mosher and C. Walenstine were visiting at String Town Saturday and Sunday.

T. W. Sinn lost a horse a few days ago. W. Stone purchased a new horse recently from Stricklen & Burnett of Eastern Oregon.

Some of our republicans are feeling a little down-hearted at present for our learned men say that Bryan is our next president, (they are populist of course), but just wait till the ballot is counted next November and if Bryan is not elected to stay at home, I miss my guess.

Will Berkeley wears a smile on his face of late. It is caused by the arrival of a new boy at his house. Wife and child doing well.

Rev. Quimby failed to fill his appointment at this place Sunday, August 2nd. The cause was a lecture at Viola that demanded his presence.

The boys who take Sunday evening strolls want to be sure that there is a church they can attend.

Miss Olive Mosher is working for Mrs. Berkeley.

Miss Emma Funk, who has been working in Oregon City, is home at present.

Tramps and burglars are becoming quite numerous in this part of the county.

M. W. Carpenter says he caught two fellows in the act of breaking into his cabin lately.

E. A. Sprague is burning coal of late. He intends running his shop this winter we presume.

D. H. Mosher, F. E. Sinn, E. A. Sprague and E. Howard cut a bee tree the first of the week. They reported poor luck. If it had been the tree someone cut for D. H. Mosher they would have had enough to eat. They said it was E. H. got all he could stomach and probably a little more.

Quite a few of our young folks attended the dance given at Preester's last Saturday evening. All reported a very enjoyable time.

Misses Milda and Hester Sinn are visiting at Corvallisville GUYSEY.

Canby News.

CANBY, Aug. 11.—Many Canby people have been or are now camping in the mountains, or on the coast. Some go for berries, some for fish and others to see the sights.

Chester Hodges, Robert Coe and Frank Zollner are over at Nestucca recreating.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rosenkrans, are spending a month at Bandon, Coos county.

A party consisting of L. D. Shank and J. F. Deyoe, left for the Cascades to look for huckleberries Tuesday, (8th.) They returned Sunday last.

A company composed of Wm. Knight, Mrs. Wm. Knight, Mrs. Bertha Lee, Arthur Knight, Mrs. Joseph Knight, William Knight, Andrew Knight, Annie Knight and Laura, W. H. Dohy, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. C. Phelps, Daisy Phelps, Mrs. Dr. Casto, Misses Ella and Kate Casto, Charles Casto, R. Doughty, J. L. Waldron wife, Miss Budie Batton, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dundas, spent last week in the blackberry patch at the head of Eagle Creek. They had abundant success picking berries and more fun than any other crowd heard from.

City council met Monday night the 3rd in regular session, and much business of importance was transacted. A special meeting of the council was held on last Tuesday night.

The Canby baseball team has a standing challenge to play match games of baseball against any team in the county professional grounds last Sunday between local talent. The score as far as the count has been completed, stood about 365 to 400 in favor of the professionals.

Canby B. C. will give a social dance in Evan's Hall on Friday evening, August 10th. Calvin Ball, and others will start huckleberrying soon. They intend to pick for the market.

Mink Items.

MINK, Aug. 9th.—At last the long-looked-for rain has come, and from present appearance, gone again. In its course it has done some good in our part of the country, and some injury. Grain that was cut has begun to sprout, at least some of it. On the other hand, vegetables, such as potatoes, turnips, kroust etc. have been benefited a great deal.

Rev. Geiser, pastor of the Methodist church of Clarksville, who has resided in our neighborhood the past two or three years, has moved to Logan. We are sorry to see him leave us, but what is our loss is their Ex-Justice Schuebel, is the happiest and proudest man around at present, and well may be, for there has arrived at his home a young and jubilant populist just like his pa they say.

There will be a concert given at the German Reformed church a week from next Tuesday evening. The young people of the church have prepared an excellent program and a grand time is expected. There will be an admission fee of 5 cents. Come one, come all, and enjoy yourselves for the evening.

Robert and Hettie Glutner have been attending the institute the past week. Mr. H. O. Inskeep of Carus, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Glutner today.

Mr. Henry Brandt and family, Mrs. Schnerer of Elyville, Miss Rosa Hornschuh, Miss Wintermantle, Eddie Hornschuh of Oregon City, and Herman Wintermantle of Canby, were in our vicinity, visiting friends and relatives today.

There have been some copies of the Three Sisters distributed through this part of the county, and from what we see in it, and the search light thrown upon it by the ENTERPRISE we have come to the conclusion that "The Three Brothers" would be a better name for it. We heartily endorse the work the ENTERPRISE is doing in exposing the rascality that has been done by these gents.

ACREYLENE.

STAFFORD NOTES.

STAFFORD, Aug. 10th.—Pleasant Oregon weather once more, after a week of rain and cloudy skies. The rain, while it did not do much material damage to the harvested grain, helped gardens, late potatoes, and the weeds of the Native Oregonians.

Mrs. Sweek of Tualatin, Washington county, Mrs. Julia Gage of Woods, Tillamook county, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard and family of West Oregon City, visited at J. P. Gage's a number of days.

Mrs. Phillips, father and family from Independence, made her a visit last week. It is thought by some that Mr. Oldenstadt's little boy may have a tapeworm, as he has been sick about two months.

The other ailing ones are all on the high-road to complete recovery.

The contractors have the body of the school house enclosed.

Mr. Baum raised his house, and Fredrick's barn last week.

Gottlob has been painting his mothers house inside.

P. Harrison, looks after the school house seeing that all things are according to boyie.

Fred Moser, runs a weekly conveyance from Stafford to Portland and back every Friday and nearly always has a full complement of passengers, mostly young ladies, or their mothers. Happy Fred.

Fruit is quite scarce, and we are too far from the mountains to go for berries.

And still J. L. Gage lingers at the coast: says his hay does not dry sufficiently to haul.

J. P. Gage, received 36 cents per bushel for old oats last Tuesday.

The new oat crop in this section is short and not well filled.

Mount Pleasant Notes.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Aug. 10.—Mrs. John Hendrickson has returned from the city.

Mrs. Doremus of Oregon City, and Mr. McKillicain and families, spent Sunday at Beaver Creek.

Morton Haines has taken leave of us for a time, being now employed by the boat company.

Mrs. Myers and Mr. Smith and families have been to the mountains we are informed.

The outstanding grain has suffered more or less damage from the late rains.

Mr. Stafford, who is in charge of the Holmes estate, considers that the coming vintage will be generous and abundant. In point of fact the grape crop will be unusually good this year.

Mrs. Russell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Aveline, for some time, contemplates returning to her California home.

Miss Mollie Holmes is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Dan O'Neil, and her brother, Hon. Edward Holmes, at their northern home among the Alaskan waters. Mrs. O'Neil left here only a short while ago. Mr. Holmes has not been a resident of this place for some time. He is, however, remembered by many, who feel, regardless of personal political views, that Mr. Cleveland is a man of keen perception when it is a matter of appointments. Should the next incumbent, whether he be McKinley or Bryan display so much wisdom in political affairs, there will certainly be no room for complaint.

Elliott Prairie News.

ELLIOTT PRAIRIES, Aug. 10.—The recent rains were very acceptable to the residents of this neighborhood being a great benefit to late potatoes and gardens, but we fear too late to help the oat crop much.

Fall grain is all cut, but no threshing done yet in this vicinity.

G. W. Owings, has about completed his barn which adds much to the appearance of his place.

A. F. Chapman, made a business trip to Portland last week.

D. Erb, has been running his sawmill the last week to its full capacity, preparatory to take his engine out for the threshing season.

On last Saturday evening the citizens of Monitor Mill and vicinity were given a treat in the shape of a speech on the political issue of the day by Walter L. Toozie of Woodburn the silver tongued orator of Marion county. He spoke for over two hours to a large and appreciative audience, showing up the fallacies of the populists on the financial question. After which at republican club was organized with 50 members on the roll. A. E. Francis was elected president, W. R. Townsend, first vice president, Jerome Simmons, second vice president, William Bird, secretary.
